DEATHS.

Yesterday, at her father's residence in Newenham-street, after a lingering illness, Catherine, the beloved and only daughter of Thomas Myles, Esq.

On last Monday, after a lingering illness, aged 29 years, George Studdert, Esq. of Kilnemona, County Clare, son-in-law of Hughes Russell, of this Clty, E.q. Gifted with a high and uncommon order of intellect, this meek and upright servant of the Lord could look with surprise and pity on the contentions and vanities that engross our brief measure of existence. He deferred not the momentous concerns of eternity to the fearful chance of a death-bed repentance; but, " remembering his Creator in the days of his youth," endeavoured through life to adorn the Gospel of his Redeemer in all things. Though surrounded by the tenderest and most affectionate of partners, and four beloved and interesting habes, yet at the summons of Him who works all for the good of his people, not only could he without a murmur resign charges so dear to the care of Him who gave them, but rejoice in the prospect of departing to be with Jesus, which is far better.
