The verdict was felo de se, and the family privately buried him at 2 o'clock on Monday morning, in St John's Church yard. Soon after day-break, a report of the circumstance transpired, and a crowd of people rushed into the grave-yard, and created a great uproar, when the interference of the Police, with difficulty, pre-them disinterring the body of Leonard.which they were determined upon removing from consecrated ground, especially as they alleged he had been placed over the remains of a Priest, buried in the same spot some years before. The crowd dispersed on being told their wishes would be gratified, and yesterday the body of Leonard was transferred to another resting place, in an obscure angle of Patrick's church-vard. Mr. O'Connell attended a meeting of the National Trades Political Union, Dublin, on Friday, where he avowed " I am distinctly and only for Repeal of the Legislative Union, and from this day forward the only object of a political nature which shall engage my attention during the remainder of my existence, is the restoration of the Irish Parliament, I feel my heart get light in making this announcement. There was only one hope for them, that was the Repeal. They should get it, and if they took his advice they would get it. They should have such an Association as they had before (the Catholic Association), and they should remember that it was for Repeal-distinctly for Repeal. If he had £100,000 in bank, subscribed by Repealers, he had no hesitation in saying that they would have Repeal in six months." The resolution which Mr. O'Connell seconded was-" That it is the opinion of this meeting that the only justice for Ireland is the restoration of her domestic parliament.' The meeting then separated, giving three loud and long continued cheers for the Queen, Repeal, and O'Connell.

that we shall have no cause to complain of want of novelty or talent, his endeavours are most unwearied vening was represented before a respectable audience the admired Opera of Guy Mannering, in which the chief attraction was the exquisite singing of Miss Land, of the Theatres Royal Drury-lane and Covent Garden, who sustained the character of "Julia Man-nering." Fame has hitherto spoken largely of this Lady's musical attainments, and indeed, our most sanguine anticipations have been realized. Her voice though not the most powerful, is capable of great execution-" Bid me Discourse" was amongst her happiest efforts, her singing of that simply beautiful ballad "Kate Kearney," forcibly reminded us of Mrs. Waylett. The young Lady's stay we hear is limited to three nights more, 'tis a treat that we have but rarely an opportunity of enjoying, and we would advise all lovers of song not to lose this opportunity of hearing her. NOTICE.

REQUISITION, of which the following is a copy, was left for the HIGH SHERIFF, at his office, in Limerick, on the evening of Sunday, the 19th instant :-To the High Sheriff of the County of Limerick.

Sin-We, whose names are undersigned, request you will call a MEETING of the Freeholders of the County of Limerick, at an early day, to prepare a Petition to the Honourable the House of Commons, against the further progress of Lord Stanley's Registration Bill. Limerick, April 18, 1840.

Land Round, J. P.
Gefferey Browning, J. P. J. Browning, jun. J. O'Grady, D. L. George Leake, J. P.

To which the High Sheriff returned the following Answer, addressed to St Richard Bourke:

My Dear Sir—I have to apologise for not earlier answering the Requisition seut to me to call a Meeting of the Freeholders of the County of Limerick, to prepare a petition against the further progress of Lord Stanley's Registration Bill, but I only received it on my way to Dublin, which, I hope, will plead my excuse.

On my taking the office of High Sheriff, I resolved in every way, to prevent the peace and good feeling of the county from being disturbed; fearing that calling a Meeting for this purpose would infringe on my resolution, with the greatest respect for the Requisitionists, I must decline their request.

I have the honour, my dear Sir,

To remain, yours very truly,
RICHARD HARTE. (Signed) 18, Rutland-square, April 24, 1840.

for rain and snow showers! No fairer day could be desired in the very lap of summer.

(COMMUNICATED.) The Secretary informs us that the petition from Limerick to the House of Commons, against Lord Stanley's Ill, was followed last evening to London, for presentation. The signatures amount to about ten thousand, among which are a great number of names of the first respectability in this City and immediate neighbourhood.

In consequence of the foregoing communication from the Sheriff, a MEETING of the Requisitionists and of such other Gentlemen, being Freeholders of the County of Limerick, as are favourable to the proposed Petition, is requested at the Commercial Buildings, Rutland-street, Limerick, on Wednesday next, the 29th Instant, at One o'Clock.
