TO CAPITALISTS.

TO BE LET, in the Town of NENAGH, on very moderate terms, about 3000 Feet of the finest Building GROUND, admitting the deepest Gardens and Bere, in the large and spacious New Street recently opened there, offering incalculable advantages to those desirous of laying out their money in a place where not a foot of eligible building ground is to be had, nor a private House to be obtained at any price. NENAGH has been recently made an Assizes Town under an order of the Privy Council, where a County Jail and Courthouse are now erecting. The inconvenience felt during the few Assizes already held there for want accommodation, cannot be well imagined, and the return for money so expended in building, must be therefore unusually great.

As an encouragement no Rent whatever will be charged till the Houses are in an actual state of completion, and making a return to the Builder.

Application to Doctor FINUCANE, Nenagh.

May 6.

In St. George's, Camberwell, Pedro Jose de Guerra, Esq. Consul-General at Paris, to Maria Rynd, daughter of the late Good-latte Rynd, Esq. of Ryndville Castle, Ireland.

DEATHS.

On Monday last, near Leeds, after a short illness, to the deep affliction of his good and respected mother, the Dowager Lady O'Brien, Edward O'Brien, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, third son of the late Sir Edward O'Brien, of Dromoland, Bart. and son-in-law of the late James Hewitt Massy Dawson, Esq. M.P. leaving a young and amiable widow in peculiarly interesting and delicate situation, to lament the loss of a most affectionate husband, so unexpectedly taken from her arms, in the prime of life, by the hand of that omnipotent Providence, to whose decrees we should all submit without murmur or repining. Williams, will, while it is cause of regret to the whole community, be shared by every person who has the benefit of his friendship and the happiness of his acquaintance; and sure we are that a sympathy, at once genuine and general, will be felt by the wide circle of his scientific associates and numerous admirers, when they shall have heard of his bereavement by the early fall of his only son, who has thus fallen in the bloom of life at Madeira, after a short illness, and has been thus prematurely cut off from a world which he would have served and adorned by talents that gave promise of fame, and may, had it pleased the Almighty to have spared him until they were matured, have even rivalled those of his respected father.
