 On the 24th inst. at Milford House, near this City, aged 18 years, Thomas F. P. Stacpoole, Esq. son of the late Matthias Stacpoole, Esq. of Moymore, county Clare, and nephew of Capt. Stacpoole, Royal Navy. This interesting young man's decease is a source of inexpressible grief to his numerous friends and relatives, by whom he was most tenderly loved.
 At Kilpeacon, Mr. Cornelius M'Namara, aged 76.
 Suddenly, at Garnikavine, Tipperary, George Lee, Esq. solicitor.
 On the 19th inst. at his house in Kinsale, Captain Henry Taylor, R. N.; an Officer distinguished in the maritime annals of the late war for many daring and gallant deeds. He expired with Christian resignation, in the 56th year of his age, after a protracted illness, consequent upon the numerous and severe wounds he had received in the service of his country. As a friend, his loss will be deplored by a numerous circle of acquaintance, whose esteem for him was based on their appreciation of his consistent, upright, and honorable bearing through life. He has left a widow and large family to weep over the death of an affectionate husband, a tender and attached parent; and his country will be ungrateful, indeed, if she does not adopt, as her own, the children of one of her most gallant defenders.
 In Killarney, Mrs. Meagher, wife of Mr. Edward Meagher.
 At Bridge-street, Cork, Louisa, wife of Thomas Chatterton, Esq.
 At New Ross, Miss Deborah Glascott.

 In the Four Courts' Marshalsea, where he was a prisoner for 30 years, Mr. Francis Stephen Dillon, the unsuccessful claimant for the earldom of Roscommon. He was interred in James's church-yard, at the expense of the Marshal.
 At Island Bridge, after a long illness, Mr. Wm. Graham, printer.
 Matilda, daughter of Mr. Frederick Norman, Grafton-street.
 At Mountmellick, Susanna, daughter of Samuel Sheane, Esq.
 Miss Honoria Maria O'Reilly.
 At Kingstown, in his 78th year, John Semple, Esq.
 Wm. J. M'Donagh, Esq. son of the late Morgan M'Donagh, Esq. of Sligo.
 At Bushy Park, Galway, Captain Robert Martin.
 In Lower Gloucester-street, Sibella, wife of William Cadge, Esq. of her Majesty's Customs.
 In Athlone, Thomas Wyndham, eldest son of William Cooke, Esq. of Retreat, county Westmeath.
 At Dundrum, Marianna Henrietta, child of James Adams, Esq.
 In Tullamore, Mr. Henry F. Macdonald.
 Mrs. Poole, of Stretton, Cheshire.
 At Liverpool, Mr. Thomas Morris, aged 80.
 At Emral, advanced in years, Sir Richard Puleston, Bart. He is succeeded in title and estates by Capt. Puleston, of Chester.
 In Charles-square, Mrs. Anne Catherwood, in her 80th year.
