

the Tuam work-house men, 3s. 6d. a day ourer. The contr assessed in Dublin
e pound.
loss of life to his th i, has plunged Sa of the King's Cou ne greatest afflict Henry, upon return gun to a boy to t as in the act of do detonator) went ssed through Mas a few feet in adv
omen, causing inst
area, was quickly
life was extinct.
foreign butter w ferred serious charg rt of Common Ple
the 9th George 4
h July.
s, LONDON.—On and solemn exami
Shannonview Hou
d a Member of t erary, is admitted avits by the Court
New South Wales ha
Esq. Agent for em
r and inscription.
ation to their intere non, County Survey action against M e Grand Jury Room is to be tried at Sli otland must pay du Scotch whiskey m country, without th of Clonmel, has o a mandamus, to t ice.
Mr. Watts' Hummi
00 guineas for horse i's filly, by Blackro ond class Corinthian at Windsor.
d by the Ballast-offi Rock-island, Cro nt of Mr. Applin, pr Baths, picked up onport market, and he was munificent
!!
asurer to the Ad n behalf of the des s most sincere than unificent donation
tlemen—George Fo
; Rev. J. S. O'Grady
n, Adare, £5; Joh Westropp, Shuntrad
Andrew Coghlan, Adar
Sub-Inspector, 10s. in Adare, 14s. 6d.
odge, £3.

also several letters.
LATEST PARTICULARS. to say that her Majesty has not suffered from the excitement, but that she is in the of perfect health, and in excellent spirits, making her drive earlier this evening than in order to show herself to the people who are in multitudes round the Palace, and who to have ocular demonstration of the of their Sovereign. Shortly after ten for Majesty the Queen Dowager, arrived Palace, and remained there for of time. His Royal Highness the Duke accompanied by Prince George, arrived and was immediately followed by her Royal the Duchess of Cambridge and the Princess in their carriage.
at this afternoon all the Cabinet Minisat the Home-office, and a close and examination was made. Several witnesses examined; but what occurred in the Council was to transpire. We understand that the betrayed no signs of intimidation or confu-and answered all the questions put to him off The result was that he was ordered to be comto Newgate, to take his trial for high treason. him on leaving the Council, and he appeared but not downcast. His sister, and his sister's and his uncle, were waiting for him in the of the Home-office, and he embraced her affectionately, and apparently with tears. His describe him as passionate. He is said to more than a dash of black blood in his veins; having been a Mulatto. He is tolerably connected; his uncle is a very respectable man, Gracechurch-street.
half-past five two boys, one of whom is James Jennings, found one of the bullets fired Majesty. It was buried in the ground directly the wall, which was marked by it. On finding it in his pocket, and was about to with it, when he was stopped by Mr. of 15, Great Portland-street, Cavendish-who was standing near at the time, and to the Palace. The bullet is flattened on one side, and is marked with red streaks, as though struck against a brick. It is in possession of the Inspector, at the Palace, who also took charge of day between the hours of twelve and one the Mail Car, travelling from Clonmel to the office in this City, was violently arrested in about four miles from Tipperary, between and that town, by two men whose faces were They called to the driver and compelled him of his life to uncase the mail bags, which obliged to deliver up to them, comprising bags, Tipperary, Clonmel, Limerick, and intermediate stages on the Post-office line. secured their booty, the fellows quickly disand the Postman drove on to the next station, but as only two Policemen were there, could not leave to pursue the robbers.

(LIMERICK CHRONICLE) have Sydney letters to the 12th of January. The Alfred out with several respectable passengers in-Messrs. Windham Fitzgeralds', and M'Kern, City; also Mr. and Mrs. Jardine, and Miss Craig, the Dryade. day, Serjeant Riedy arrested Thomas Taylor, of near Tulla. This active Police officer both thief and booty.
Ribbon delegates were arrested in conclave more. Leitrim, on Thursday, by Mr. Stipen-Terry and the Police.

John Orr Ewin, Esq. Craigenga, Dumbartonshire, to William Jane, daughter of the late William Bennett, Esq. Glasgow.
At Kingston, Upper Canada, James Wallis, Esq. of Marysborough, county Cork, to Janet, youngest daughter of the late Judge Fisher, of Adolphustown, Upper Canada.
At St. James's Westminster, Lieut. Rattray, 72d Highlanders, son of the late Lieut.-Col. Rattray, 63d regiment, to Louisa Price, daughter of Lieut.-Col. Peddie, 90th Light Infantry.
At Lee, Kent, William E. Collins Wood, Esq. of Keithick, Perthshire, to Anne Wallace, only daughter of the late Lieutenant Colonel Colquitt, Grenadier Guards.

DEATHS.

At Glancurra, King's County, Susanna, wife of Isaac Ryall, Esq.
On Sunday, at his residence, Kildare-street, after a few hours' illness, John Crampton, Esq. M. D. Professor of Materia Medica, King and Queen's College of Physicians.
Aged 76 years, Mrs. Smyth, relict of the late Richard Smyth, of Easton House, county Cork, Esq.
In Doneraile, of malignant scarletina, Mary, aged 9 years; and Margaret, aged two years and a-half, the children of Mr.
Denis O'Connor.
At Coleraine, Charles, son of Lieut. Thornley, Sub-Inspector of Police.
At Galway, Miss Bidelia Burke, of Ower, one of the Sisters of Mercy.
At Beech hill, Tuam, in his 83d year, Bernard Mahon, Esq.
Lieut. of the Kilconnel Horse, commanded by the late Lord Ashtown.
On the 12th inst. at Abington House, in this county, Margaret, widow of the late Jeremiah Ryan, Esq.—a lady of the most amiable qualities, and sincerely and deservedly regretted by her family and friends.
On Saturday, on the North Strand, of decline, Charles Hanrahan, Esq.; regretted by a numerous circle of friends and acquaintances.
In Charlemont-street, in his 76th year, William Parks, Esq. of the Bank of Ireland.
At Newbrook, near Thurles, Catherine, widow of Thomas Langley, of Archerstown, county Tipperary, Esq.
At Enniskillen, Caroline Susan, daughter of Wm. Crozier, Esq.
In Dublin, Miss Elizabeth Bell.
In Park-street, Mrs. Falloon, widow of the late Dr. Falloon.
At Coalville, Tipperary, William, only son of Wm. Harvey, Esq.
Mr. George Grace, of Thurles.
At Dungarvan, Richard, son of the late Richard Barron, Esq. of Durrug.
At York, Eustachius Strickland, Esq. barrister-at-law, son of the late Sir William Strickland, Bart.
At Eaton-place, Belgrave-square, Augusta Jane, daughter, and John Farquhar Fraser, Esq.
In River-street, Myddelton-square, in her 85th year, Charlotte, relict of the late Mr. Henry Gunnell, one of the committee clerks of the House of Commons.
At Prescott, Upper Canada, Richard Douglas Johnstone, Esq. late of Snow Hill, county Fermanagh.
At Leamington, Lambert Middleton, Esq. son of the late Major Middleton, of the Blues, and grandson of Sir John Lambert Middleton, Bart. of Belsay Castle, Northumberland.
At Guilford-street, Russell-square, Mary, wife of Sir Thomas Wylde, her Majesty's Solicitor-General.
At Bentinck-street, Manchester-square, James Green, Esq. formerly Consul-General of Tangier.
In Wyndham-street, Marylebone, Ann, relict of C. B. Smart, Esq. of Maida Vale, Paddington.
At York-terrace, Regent's-park, the Rev. Alexander Crombie, LL.D. F.R.S. in his 79th year.
At Woodside, Cheshire, J. J. Smith, Esq. of the firm of Cotesworth and Smith.
Mr. John Grovesnor Bradley, eldest son of the late Joseph Bradley, Esq. of Ashbourne, Derbyshire.
At Biggleswade, in her 71st year, Anne, wife of John Foster, Esq.
At Ealing, John Bainbridge, Esq. of Walcot-place, Lambeth.
At Dumfries, Isabella, daughter of the late W. Kirkpatrick, Esq. of Ellisland, one of the principal Clerks of Session.
At Cold Harbour-lane, Camberwell, Mr. G. F. Richardson.
At Clapham, Caroline, daughter of the late Samuel Favell, Esq.
At Royal Circus, Edinburgh, Miss Harriett Maconochie, daughter of Lord Meadowbank.
At the Hill House, Melton, Suffolk, Lieut.-Colonel Schrieber, unattached.
At Cunninghamhead, Janet, daughter of William Pollock, Esq.
At Kelton Manse, suddenly, the Rev. John M'Lellan, minister of the parish of Kelton.
At Malvern Wells, William Nassau, Esq. aged 48.
At Cambridge, William Searle, Esq.
At Hans-place, Chelsea, Mary, widow of the late Major-Gen.
Lewis, of Cadogan-place.
In London, on Tuesday, the Hon. Lieutenant-General Sir Robert W. O'Callaghan G.C.B. late Governor Madras, and Colonel 39th Regiment.
At Adelaide, South Australia, by a fall from his horse, Samuel Stephens, Esq. son of the Rev. John Stephens, of London.
At Kotah, East Indies, James Swiney Haig, Assistant-Surgeon in the East India Company's Service.
On the 17th March last, off the Cape of Good Hope, Captain Joseph Whiteford, 66th Regt. Bengal Native Infantry.
At Jaffna, Haddon Smith, Esq. late Major in the Ceylon Rifles, in which island he served for 25 years. He was with the 22d in the West Indies, with the 73d in India, with the 45th in England, and, lastly, in the Ceylon Rifles.

20 miles in length, adorn islands, whereon are the ru where BRIEN BARHOME, The FAMOUS MONA was contented to domestica altogether comprehends FOUR THOUSAND FIV of land highly cultivated, a happy and contented tenant of this circumstance is the literally a mere bagatelle.
The mountain scenery, w amphitheatre, is really of cloud-capt mountains with rising in majestic grandeur the clouds—the mighty lak silver—the valley teeming i scene of such grandeur, bea to forbid the hope of convey description. The views are bly beautiful, extending ov country, and including.
THREE WHOLE PROV
and alone terminated by
THE VAST ATL
“ Its mighty water
Their myriad cou Nature has vouchsafed its nitely beyond compariso scene well calculated to human mind, and incline i PERFECT PARADISE BI
The FISHERIES and may safely challenge con civilized world. Little mill gate on the vast lake. It s independently of
The IMMENSE AN
from the Lands, there are EXTENSIVE SLA
of which the Engineers' re gibly, proving, past doubt and situation, Mr. Pennar producing
FIFTY THOUSAND PO are not at all superior. M haps ought to be said in prai Robins, however, prefers competitors to seek ocular d full well that this hasty and impress them with half the are sure to find there.
To those who may still be that the vast renown acquir PRINCELY T has rendered it indispensa and travellers visiting Irela the Castle doors two day the year.
To conclude—An immen within reach by those who by building
FIFTY or ONE HUNDRE of the
The estate is in the quiet, v thirteen miles only from the Particulars and plans, and are in progress, and may be at the mansion of Mr. Sa Moorgate-street, and Mr. J Receiver, Fitzwilliam-street and Richards's, George-stre rison's Hotel, Dublin; the George Robins's Offices, L
P. S.—The title is clear