DEATHS.
On Wednesday, in George's-street, Harriette, relict of the late Ralph Westropp, of this City, Esq. Alderman, and sister of Lord Viscount Fort. This much-esteemed Lady was richly endowed with all the virtues which adorn the matron, and consummate the happiness of domestic life. Her goodness of heart was evidenced by the liberal extent of her charities, while the amiability of her manners won the love and respect of all persons. Her loss will be long deplored by children to whom she was the most affectionate and indulgent of parents, and regretted by a large circle of highly respectable relatives and friends.
