

ustings." ber of the Royal call a meeting of on the distressed subsequently called Grace, and liberal consisting of the rvice, arrived in divisions outside, style—the Sham-nspector-General, mes, &c., of the Keeling, R.N.; ham—Lt. Davies, ; Kite—W. H. iver, Esq.; Prince Melville, Esq.; ; Hawk—Mark son, Esq.; Chance ald, Esq.; Swift— owne, Esq.; Eliza, this visit is a trial being the quickest The usual annual the following Irish acy, Wm. Leeson, erine Reilly, Mary Murphy, Thomas n, Michael O'Con on, Michl. Blood, e, Mary O'Donnel, IRONICLE.

Y 29.

Corporation Bill is Friday next, await-oundary and Com- Jury, sworn yes- Prittie, Esq. High rough Prittie, Fore- hard Wills Gason, Dawson Hunt, John John Lloyd, Thomas Carden, Jas. Butler, onathan Willington Henry Head, Wm. -Col. Henry Dwyer, e, John Willington, ral of the Grand Jury nt books were no- evious to their being- pared to give an opi- vere to come before- at he would make ar- ick in that respect for the desertion of a lover with £1200 damages. The are no prisoners for trial at the City Kilkenny assizes, before Judge Perrin. DONEGAL GRAND JURY.—Edward M. Conolly, M.P. foreman ; Sir James Stewart, Lord George Hill, James Johnston, Thomas J. Atkinson, George Young, Charles Norman, Lord Clements, Andrew Ferguson, Joseph Pratt, Ybrant Olphert, Daniel Chambers, George V. Hart, Robert M'Clintock, Thomas Batt, Sir Robert Bateson, Conolly Gage, John R. Boyd, Hon. James Hewitt, William Fenwick, William K. M'Clintock, James G. Woods, and Benjamin G. Humphrey, Esqrs.

The late Sir Richard Harte, ancestor of the present County High Sheriff, when Mayor of this city, received the honour of Knighthood from the late Duke of Richmond, then Viceroy; and Sir Christopher Marrett, predecessor of our present worthy Chief Magistrate, Sir Richard Franklin, M.D. had the honour to receive the same mark of distinction from George the 4th, when he landed in Dublin, in August 1821.

Lord and Lady Courtenay are staying with the Lord Lieutenant at Newcastle in this county. His Excellency was cheered on passing through the Square to the Castle, on Saturday evening.

The Earl and Countess of Kenmare, and suite, arrived here yesterday from Dublin, en route to Killarney.

A gentleman by the Cork coach to this city, last Sunday, was struck on the head by a stone, flung at him from behind a wall on the road side, as the vehicle drove past towards the Blackboy Pike. The coachman pulled up to know the author of this dastardly outrage, but the fellow was seen to run across the fields, and escaped.

On Thursday morning, a young man named Garvey, a stone-cutter, employed at the workhouse, Newcastle, went to his work apparently in good health, but being attacked with a sudden fit of apoplexy, died shortly after at his lodgings. He was a native of this city.

John Costello, of Castle-park, was taking down part of a house on Saturday, when the materials fell upon him, and fractured his skull.

At O'Brien's Bridge Fair, on Saturday, Mutton sold for 5d. per lb. sinking offal, and Beef 50s. per cwt. Mr. White, of Fort-Henry, sold 20 sheep, at 34s. each; Mr. Wm. Power, Munroe, 22, at 31s. 6d. S. C. Parker, Ballyvalley, sold 2 Cows, at £10 15s.; James Deigan, Ballina, 4 Kerry Cows, at £7 10s.; a Farmer sold 10 very good Heifers (store) at £6 10s. Strippers not in demand; Horses none sought for. Pigs sold at 40s. per cwt.

John Slattery, while labouring under an epileptic fit, fell into an open area in Thomas-street, on Sunday, and received a severe lacerated wound in the head, which may cost him his life. This fatal trap should be looked after by the Parochial authorities.

At a recent meeting of the Fishermen of this City, a vote of thanks and confidence was given to Connellor John O'Hara, for his past exertions in their behalf.

Last week, Sir Richard Bourke, Mat. Barrington, Esq. Alfred Furlong, Esq. and several other gentlemen attended a rehearsal of the first class of the 19th, who performed regiment at Cork. The troop of the Innis will join head quarters Lieut.-Colonel W. Pojesty's leave to wear the Lieut.-Col. Scarlett, 5 for the remainder of the Howard, M. P. to assume ment at Manchester.

It is believed that all the Royal blue clothing The Riding Master of Maidstone to observe n Lord Bloomfield inspe wich, this day.

Ensign Fraser, 86th, h at Liverpool Sessions, f Major Arthur, 93d, command the Depot n goes out to the service

The 96th has arrived Lieut.-Gen. Sir W. standards to the Scots at Birmingham. Cap Scotland. The gallant served with the Grey Flanders. Lieut.-Col. in the Regiment.

Major Malet, 8th De won at cricket, by the This day is the 27th Pyrenees, where the Marshal Soult.

The 10th Regt. has barracks, Manchester. Lieut. Home, 6th B ing service at Newca Lieut. Deacon, 19th, v

There was a destruct day, by which Messrs. suffered severely. Bu General Napier, with Royal Artillery, with property would have

Her Majesty inspe Brigade at Windsor, P. B. Whannel, Es in the Argyle Militia.

Capt. Birch, 17th pointed Deputy Secre with the rank of Maj Malignant fever w March.

The N. and M. Gaz we published an erro Regiment. Our ill- to be nearer the trut time with his absurd A magnificent pres