

that Judge Perrin
 nation from Lord
 the Lords.
 hundred was held at
 in the chair, when
 the Lord Lieutenant,
 unanimously adopted.
 beautiful order; it
 level as any course
 that formerly existed monly called "the
 ining has fully suc-
 y part of the course,
 er. Several horses
 re the heaviest in
 by the Stewards
 e United Kingdom,
 ng; added to which
 weather, promises
 both Belle and Beau
 the carriages, &c.
 to keep the course
 gh characters of the
 sman and spectator
 n the command of succession to Lieut.
 , a clerk in the post-
 of embezzlement of
 ut of letters. Mr.
 acquitted for killing
 agreed to a reduction
 n that county.
 utledge v. Rutledge
 s, on Tuesday, was to the absence of a
 Mr. Litton and Mr.
 ained for Defendant.
 College have become inage Bill" alluded
 pily for this country,
 machinery is of the
 ining 153 clauses.
 o employ assessors,
 inspectors, &c. and
 to remove standing
 ation! Not a word mmissioners and the nion over the whole
 housanl a year!!

of the Rev. William Penny, of Fox Hall, Essex.
 At Guildford, Henry Blake, Esq. of Birchfield, near Newport, Isle of Wight, to Emma, only daughter of Captain Smith, 2d Life Guards.
 At Marylebone, James Evans, Esq. late of the Bengal Medical Service, to Lydia, daughter of Captain R. Langslow, of Hatton, Middlesex.
 At St. Alphage, Greenwich, C.C. Davie, Esq. Captain 76th Reg.
 only son of the Rev. C. Davie, Rector of Heanton Punchardon, and Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Exeter, to Eliza Frances, daughter of Capt. W. White, of Vanbrugh House, Maize-hill.
 At Croydon, the Rev. T.G. Wilmer, son of the late Lieutenant-Colonel Randall Gossip, of Thorp Arch-hall, Yorkshire, to Emma, daughter of the late Henry Richard Raven, Esq. of Croydon.
 At Secunderabad, Lieut. J. C. Allardyce, 1st M. European Regiment, to Emilia Ruth, widow of the late Capt. M'Leod, 34th Light Infantry.
 At Christ Church, Marylebone, the Rev. J.C. Davenport, rector of Sheffington, Leicestershire, to Mary Anne, only daughter of the late Rev. John Staverton Mathews, rector of Hitcham, Suffolk.

DEATHS.

Yesterday, at Clare Castle, of scarletina, John Cumming, youngest son of Doctor Sheils, 36th Regiment, aged seven.
 At her residence, Barnstead, Blackrock, Bridget, relict of the late John Welstead, Esq. of Ballywalter, county Cork.
 At Corofin, Mary, daughter of the late Mr. Pat Thally, Officer of Excise.
 In Roche's-street, Mrs. Catherine Hayes.
 At Mungret, Timothy Donovan, aged 102. He laid the first stone of the bridge near Bank-place, in 1756.
 At Glen House, near Sligo, Lieut. Charles Gardiner, Roscommon Militia.
 At Sligo, John Taffe, Esq. and Mr. John Ralph.
 In Sackville-street, Sidney Cosby, of Stradbally Hall, Queen's County, Esq.
 At Monkstown, Rose Elizabeth, eldest daughter of William Forde, Esq. solicitor.
 Mr. William Kearney, of Bray.
 Mr. William Kidd, of Maidenhead-house, Queen's County.
 Mrs. Elizabeth Keating, Liffey-street, Lower.
 At Dundalk, William James, the only son of Dr. Brunker.
 In Guernsey, Edward Marlborough Fitzgerald, Esq. son of the late Maurice Fitzgerald, Esq. of Lifford, near this City.
 On Sunday morning, at Fuschia Cottage, the residence of her son-in-law, George Walker, Esq. from an injury received by a fall from her car, Elizabeth, the beloved wife of Richard English, Esq.
 of Seafield House, county Waterford.
 At his residence, Wingfield, county Tipperary, Thomas Doolan, Esq. in his 74th year.
 At Liscarney, county Monaghan, Lieut.-Colonel James Ross, second son of the late David Ross, Esq.
 Margaret Catherine, eldest daughter of Mr. D. Owgan, George-street, Cork, in her 18th year.
 In Cecil-street, Strand, Captain John Kilpatrick, aged 66.
 At Hurst, Tweedy John Todd, M. D. one of the leading Physicians at Brighton, aged 50.
 At Jersey, Edmond Anstice, Esq. Purser, R. N.
 Francis, son of Edward Whitmore, Esq. of Lombard-street.
 Aged 93, Mr. John Humphries, of Warwick, supposed to be the last of the crew of the ill-fated Royal George.
 At Gloucester-place, New-road, Margaret Oailvie, relict of the late Major-General Alexander Keith, formerly Lieut.-Colonel of the 65th Regiment.
 At Darmstadt, Charlotte, wife of M. Jules de Bridenbach, and daughter of Vice-Admiral Sir Charles Ogle, Bart.
 At Calcutta, aged 32, Lieut. Craufurd, 21st Regt.
 Lieut. Western, Engineer at Eden.
 The Hon. James Sutherland, resident at Barado.
 At Glasgow, Mr. Lindsay Anderson, Printer.

James Lynn.
 Denis Clarke.
 Barthw. O'Flaherty.
 John Browne.
 Henry E. M'Donnell.
 Bernard Murphy.
 J. B. Purdon.
 Edward Fitzgerald.
 James Copeland.
 James P. Burke.
 R. N. Summerville.
 R. J. Ievers.
 Lambert Mahon.
 M. Egan.
 J. Kelly.

MY LORD AND G

With feelings of t
 acknowledge the rec flattering address, to regard, which dictated approbation. I must tion of my feeble but
 In the performanc
 indeed have been hig
 best efforts to prese
 order in this town,
 exertions of an intel
 aided when necessa
 the inhabitants. To exertion of mine, m
 fact alluded to by perfect peace of this may Galway continu
 of her quiet, and pea
 attentions which dur
 received, believe me
 do, that no words of lasting gratitude.

Be assured that ex
 kindness will be forg
 look back with feelin
 melancholy, to the h
 and that wherever I g
 rest, in the prosperity
 In conclusion—my e
 will ever preserve thi tion, which I feel as regard for me, than you collectively and have the honour to friend.

Galway, 10th Aug