

pleased with the regularity, order, and system pursued. There is one field on this farm, now entirely in turnips, containing seventy-five Irish acres. This field was broken, got three ploughings, a cross harrowing, was drilled, sown with turnips, and rolled, in four days, last season. The distance walked in effecting this, was over 1,000 miles, each drill and a-half measuring an Irish mile. Mr. Christy is certainly a model for those who still pursue the old system of farming.

To Bolton Waller, Esq.
August 3rd, 1840.
DEAR SIR—We, the undersigned Magistrates and Gentlemen of the BARONY of KENRY, and its vicinity, feel extremely sorry, that from some recent occurrence at a Petty Sessions held at Pallas Kenry, you had come to a determination of not attending, or giving your useful services as a Magistrate in that district. Feeling as we do, the great loss of one from our Bench who at all times discharged its arduous duties with such honor to himself, strict impartiality, and usefulness to the country in general, beg leave to request you may be induced to alter your determination; and (as Father of this Bench) once more come amongst us. And, we have further to add, though we make this application with sanguine hopes of your not leaving us, that still, if it should be your pleasure to remain away, you will accept from us, individually and collectively, a full assurance of our esteem for you, both as a Magistrate and a Gentleman.
We have the honor to remain, dear Sir,
Yours ever sincerely,

10th August, 1840.
MY DEAR SIR—I have received your very kind Letter, enclosing the flattering Address of my friends and neighbours, with the request conveyed, by which, however, I am sorry it is not in my power to comply. Will you be so kind as to convey to them my sincere thanks for their kind expressions, and assure them that I feel deeply their approbation of my conduct; but I presume my friends are aware of the circumstances which made me withdraw from the Sessions. I think I was right in doing so, and, therefore, would not feel myself justified in complying with their wishes, so long as there is a probability of the same circumstances occurring in our Court-House.
Believe me, my dear Sir,
Very sincerely, yours,
BOLTON WALLER.
Thos. E. Davenport, Esq. &c. &c.
Curragh Bridge, 27th August, '40.
MY DEAR SIR—The enclosed address was entered into at the last Petty Sessions held in Pallas, and should have been sooner forwarded to you, if it had not been delayed in consequence of being obliged to send it for signature to those Magistrates belonging to us who happened not to attend. In the hope that it may be the means of inducing you to alter the determination expressed in your answer to a former address, which I was party to, I have most willingly become one to this, and am,
Believe me, very sincerely yours,
GEORGE FOSBERY.
Bolton Waller, Esq.

AN ADDRESS
From the Magistrates of the Kenry Petty Sessions, to Bolton Waller, Esq. &c., Pallaskenry, 17th August, 1840.
DEAR SIR—We regret to find by your letter to Thomas E. Davenport, Esq. of the 10th inst. in reply to an address from the Magistrates and Gentry of the Barony of Kenry, that you could not feel justified in complying with their request to again take your place upon the Bench, as you apprehend the probability of the same circumstances occurring in our Court-house, as have induced you to withdraw. We beg leave to assure you, that the same courteous behaviour which has hitherto marked our discharge of official duty with you, and each other, shall be uniformly maintained by us in our intercourse with you; and as far as in us lies, we pledge ourselves to support the dignity of our Bench, both in your person, and that of any member of the Bench demanding our countenance and support. We have the honor to be, your faithful friends, and Brother Magistrates,

I cannot doubt that the business will be again conducted with the same order and courtesy which for so many years rendered the Court so respectable and useful to our neighbourhood.
I remain my dear Sir,

Presuming on his Collegiate Character and long experience (being over ten years principal of one of the most respectable Boarding Schools in the South of Ireland), Dr. FAHIE hopes he may prove himself not altogether unworthy the high testimony borne to him by two distinguished PRELATES, from whose letters in connexion with his recent appointment, he begs to give the following extracts—
"I have known Dr. Fahie for many years as principal of the Fermoy School, having long resided in his immediate neighbourhood, where he always stood, deservedly, in the highest estimation for first rate Classical attainments, and unimpeachable moral and religious character."
(Second Extract.)
"I shall feel much pleasure in stating (if applied to) that in your progress through Trinity College, Dublin, you obtained great distinction as a Classical Scholar; that your conduct was unexceptionably correct, and that you have had great experience and success as a Teacher. I do not know who the other candidates are, though I admit that it will not be an easy matter to find one more highly qualified than yourself."
