troller of Customs at that port.

At Kingstown, Mary, only child of Sir Gilbert King, Bart.
At Cullenswood, Dublin, sincerely lamented by her family and friends, Eliza, relict of the late Arthur Brereton, Esq. of this City—a lady of great worth and piety.

In Roscrea, on the 19th inst. at the advanced age of 96 years, Elizabeth, relict of the late Mr. Owen Evans. In her was the Christian character fully exemplified, as she made the Scriptures her daily study, and departed this life, trusting alone in the merits of her SAVIOUR. She died regretted and esteemed by her relatives and friends.

At Ballina, Killaloe, Mr. Nathaniel Cordue, divinity student of Trinity College, Dublin.

At Inchbrakie, Colonel Græme, of Inchbrakie, aged 85 years, one of the few surviving heroic defenders of Gibraltar, under General Elliott, where he was wounded. He subsequently commanded the Perthshire Fencible Cavalry.

In Wyndham-place, Major John Lockhart Gallie.
At Devonport, Richard Fitzgibbon, son of Dr. John Stokes, of Dublin.

At his residence, St. David's hill, Exeter, Mr. J. Burt, by whose death a vacancy is occasioned in the Exeter Town Council, the Corporation of the Poor, and the Improvement Commissioners.

At Somerset-place, Stoke, daughter of Captain Hillyar, of H.M.S.
Southampton.

In London, Lieut. George Rose, R.N.
In Creighton-street, at the advanced age of 90 years, Mr. Thomas Mulligan, for fifty years in the service of the Ballast Board. In early life he served in the American war, was present at the memorable battle of Bunker's Hill, and also at the siege of Gibraltar.

Richard Aylmer, Esq. wine merchant. Dublin.
At Lancaster-quay, Cork, John Humphries,
At Sallymount, Cullenswood, James Burke, Esq.

At Lower Gloucester-street, Robert John, son of John Lennox Macartney, Esq.

At Newcastle, in an advanced age, Mrs. Tierney.
Colonel James Hamilton, British Vice Consul at Angustura, South America.

At his house in Cashel, Mr. John M'Grath, the oldest and a most respectable member of the Cathedral choir of Cashel.

At Liverpool, Mr. Rowland Ryley, some years a reporter for the Morning Post, and Mirror of Parliament.

At North Cray, James Lowe, Esq. of the firm of Lowe, Garey, and Sweeting, solicitors, London. Mr. Lowe was a most profound equity lawyer.

At Paris, Miss Emily Calcraft, youngest daughter of the late Lieut.-General Henry F. Calcraft, and cousin to J. H. Calcraft, Esq. M.P.

At Blackpoole, Lancashire, S. Anthony, Esq. of Seymour-place, London, and the Spa, Gloucester.

Louisa Frances, wife of George Holloway, Esq. of Nottinghill-square, Kensington.

At Interlachen, in Switzerland, aged 14, Louisa Evelyn, youngest daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Rowley. She was descending a mountain with her father, sister, and brother, when she was precipitated to the bottom, and killed on the spot.

Mary Ann, daughter of Thomas Gaskell, Esq. of the firm of Dugan, Gaskell, and Co. brewers.

Rather suddenly, at Dover, the Rev. Charles Palmer.
At Reigate, in his 84th year, Ambrose Glover, Esq. F.A.S.
