To ARCHITECTS and CONTRACTORS for repairing Houses, and to the Public in general CLARE-STREET, LIMERICK. THE Property in this desirable locality, known as O'SULLIVAN'S Houses, each of which is sufficiently spacious to accommodate a large family, being about to undergo thorough repairs, so as to make them not merely comfortable, but in every sense, respectable and desirable residences, CONTRACTORS are invited to inspect, and to send in Tenders for the extensive and substantial improvements contemplated in those to be pointed out, such as are now being made in the House No. 6, viz.:—The Roof and Gutters made perfect; the Plaster Work of the interior repaired all through; the Kitchens raised one foot each, and the flagging re-set, bedded in yellow clay; the Brick-work front of each House to be pointed, coloured and drawn, and the reveals of each front Window to be plastered, and iron balconies to be put to each Drawing-room Window; the entire wood work back and front, and thro' the interior, including four inches on each side of the steps of the Stair-case, from the Hall to the two pair Rooms, to get two coats of Paint, and all the Rooms except the Garrets, to be Papered; the walls now enclosing the Areas in front to be removed, and replaced by iron railing; the steps of each Hall-door to be re-set, and the pathway opposite to be new flagged; the roof of the Stable to be stripped, and new slated, and the entire fitted up with two Stalls and Coach-house complete, and a new Pump to be set up in each Yard. Such of the inhabitants of Limerick as wish to unite comfort with economy (the Rents being low, and the Taxes only a few shillings) are assured, that in a very short time now, they will find it their interest to prefer residing in this Street, which will be lighted with Gas, and watched at night, during the present winter, and which is well known to have been, heretofore, the abode of some of the most respectable of our fellow-citizens. Tenders addressed to Mr. EDWARD REYNOLDS, No. 20, Crescent, Limerick—to be forwarded within ten days. October 24.

CITY OF CORK. TO CAPITALISTS, TEA DEALERS, GROCERS, &c. To be Sold. ROOKE & CO'S TEA & COFFEE WAREHOUSE, PATRICK-STREET AND GRAND PARADE, CORK. THIS extensive Concern, in which business has been carried on for the last thirty years by Messrs. Rooke & Co. of Morley, Co. is (owing to the death of the late principal) offered to Public competition. It is large, and possesses the peculiar conveniences for an extensive Tea, Coffee, and Grocery trade. Its position, presenting a most commanding front to Patrick street and the Grand Parade (the two best situations in Cork for business) stamps it as the most superior situation in the city for any respectable and extensive trade; and the Low Rent and Long Term of Years for which it can be Sold, render it a safe and remunerative investment for capital. In addition to a highly respectable family and large retail trade, an connexion has been secured in the wholesale department with most of the leading towns in this and the adjoining counties, realising a large annual profit, as can be shown by the books of the establishment. The stock, which has been judiciously selected in the best markets on the most advantageous cash terms, will be sold at a valuation. To a capitalist conversant with the Tea trade this concern would prove certainly lucrative, and would not require so heavy an investment as its large annual profits would seem to warrant. THE CUSTOMERS OF THE CONCERN are informed that until it is disposed of, the business will be carried on with the same punctual attention as heretofore. Application to be made to JOHN BENNETT, Solicitor, 9, Academy-street, Cork. Subscription 10/- each. October 24.
