PROCESS SERVERS.

Suitors are recommended to deliver their Processes for service, twelve days before the first day of the respective Sessions, in cases where the demand does not exceed Ten Pounds Irish, and twenty days when the demand exceeds that sum. Suitors who neglect this precaution incur the risk of being dismissed with costs. The Process Servers are directed to mark on each Process the Barony to which it belongs, and on pain of being dismissed, must attend at 10 o'clock in the morning at the Court-House, on the day pre ... ceding the first day of the Sessions in each town, and remain in attendance until six o'clock in the evening.
When the Sessions commence on Monday, the Process Servers must attend on the previous Saturday.
CIVIL BILLS.

The Clerk of the Peace will not receive any Civil Bills, (whether Ejectments, Legacy Suits, or Replev ... ins,) on any account whatever after nine o'clock on the evening before the first day of the Sessions in day, all Civil Bills must be lodged with the Clerk of the Peace, at 9 o'clock in the evening on the previous Saturday, and it is requested that all Civil Bills of every kind, be delivered to the Clerk of the Peace, arranged in the alphabetical order of the plaintiff's names, and in separate parcels, according to their re ... spective baronies.

Civil Bills will be heard immediately after the registry of voters, in the following order:— At Rathkeale—Kerry first; Coshma second; Lower Connelloe, third, and Upper Connelloe, fourth.
At Bruff—Costlea, first; Small County, second;
Coshma, third; Clanwilliam, fourth; Pubble Brien, fifth; Owneybeg, sixth; and Coonagh, last.
At Clonmel—Costlea, first; Small County, second;
Coshma, third; Clanwilliam fourth; Pubble Brien, fifth; Owneybeg sixth; and Coonagh seventh, and the City and Liberties last.
Ejectments, Replevins, Suits for Legacies, &c. will be heard without distinction, and like ordinary Civil Bills, in the alphabetical order of the plaintiff's names, in their respective baronies.
Ejectments cannot be made returnable after the first day of the Sessions in each town.
Applicants for registry as voters will be heard at ten o'clock in the morning of the first day of the Sessions in each town, and are requested to state in their notices, the respective towns at which they intend to apply.
