We, the Members of the LIMERICK CITIZENS' CLUB, having at heart the best interests of our common City, beg respectfully, at this season of universal rejoicing, to call your attention to the present state of that excellent Institution, the MENDICITY—hitherto a proud record of your good sense and benevolence of feeling. The word "Charity" has ever been to Irishmen a hallowed charm to allay the ferment of political or sectarian division, and produce that unanimity of sentiment and action, which it is so delightful to the Christian to behold. We are confident that this appeal, on behalf of our fellow-creatures, will not be made in vain; and we hereby pledge ourselves, promptly and cheerfully, to co-operate with you in this laudable and imperative undertaking.
