ILLUSTRIOUS PRINCE.
We, the Citizens of Limerick, faithful subjects of your Royal Consort, being in public meeting assembled, beg leave most respectfully and sincerely to congratulate your Royal Highness on the late happy event, which has realised the ardent hopes of the country, and diffused joy and gladness through the wide extent of our great and matchless Empire. With earnest prayers for the health of Her Majesty, and that of her Royal offspring, we beg to assure your Royal Highness, that no portion of Her Majesty's subjects more deeply appreciate those pecuhar qualimind and heart, which have rendered your Royal Highness's name a talisman of attachment; and we entreat you to believe, that we hall with unbounded delight this new and interesting link, which binds the Prince to the People, cementing in one beloved object the hopes, interests and affections of Most anxiously to we implore for your Royal the continued protection of that gracious Providence, which, on a memorable occasion, so signally interposed between your Royal and the murderous aim of the maniac—and in looking forward, with joyful anticipation, to the events of futurity, we shall confidently rely on the care of your Royal Highness to instil into the mind of the growing hope of the country, those liberal and enlightened views of legislation, and those principles of strict and impartial justice, for which the character of your Royal Highness is so revered; and we doubt not that while the virtues of your Royal Highness, will adorn the pages of our country's history, the cherished name of Albert will descend to posterity, hallowed by the prayers and blessings of a free, pay their premiums either in one sum, in a given number of payments, in annual, half-yearly, or quarintelligent and grateful people.
