DEATHS.

On Monday, the 21st inst. at his house in Glentworth-street, in the 72d year of his age, the Rev. John Pinkerton, for nearly forty years minister of the Presbyterian congregation of Limerick. It has seldom been our duty to record the death of an individual more generally esteemed and respected. In private life his uniform kindness of disposition secured to him the warmest affection of his many friends, while the public institutions of this City always found in him one of their most assiduous supporters. His remains will be interred at Munchin's Church to-morrow morning, at half-past nine o'clock.
