

for the family of private s, drowned last month,
Some time since it was of the Irish day mails
ar salaries—inadequate, ut still preferable to a a on the casual gratuities will now be surprised to een placed on their former d Mullins, accepted the ald Mathew, at Dingle;

P. and Rev. Mr. Foley.
General Corselles, Col.
at Gibraltar from Fal-er, Vampire, H. Westropp, altar, on the 11th Dec.

as given liberty for twelve Surgeons, to offer them-actising Apothecaries!

Guardians have unani-
am Baird, Superintendant o be Master of the new 60, There were nine can-as appointed Matron, at a are appointed at 4d. in the he rural districts.

ne Conservatives, and 15 ut of 118 notices.
essions 14 Conservatives uis of Waterford's hounds over a hundred horsemen. files in three quarters of an ard was "well accounted kgraffon.

ary, and Mr. Thos. Ryan, for the Nenagh Union. ccoucheur to the Lying-in om of the late Dr. Enright, he Fever Hospital.
ointed Police Magistrate at lder steam-boat, lying off burnt to the water's edge. ull Dress Ball is to come off rthumberland Great Rooms, e Stewards have made the s for this brilliant fete, to of distinction have looked allers paraded with music Stephen's day.

At All Souls Church, Marylebone, by the Lord Bishop of Rochester, Henry James Ballie, Esq. M.P. for Inverness-shire eldest son of Colonel Hugh Ballie, of Redcastle, Ross-shire, M.P. for Honiton, to the Hon. Phillipa Sydney Smythe, eldest daughter of Viscount Strangford, G.C.B.

At the Church of New Windsor, by the Lord Bishop of Llandaff, the Rev. Reginald Edward Copleston, Rector of Barnes, Surrey, to Anne Elizabeth, daughter of the late Thomas Sharpe, Esq.

At St. James's, Piccadilly, Edward, son of the late Edward Longdon Mackmurdo, Esq. of Clapton, Middlesex, to Anne, daughter of the Rev. T. Jones, A.M. one of her Majesty's chaplains at Whitehall.

DEATHS.

At Luton, Bedfordshire, in the 70th year of his age, Lieut.-Col.
Charles Massy Baker, late of the 14th Light Dragoons, and of Lismacue, Tipperary.

At Roebuck, county Dublin, the Hon. Richard St. Leger, of Killea, uncle to Viscount Doneraile—a gentleman universally lamented.

At Charleville, on Wednesday, to the inexpressible grief of her family and friends, Anna, the beloved wife of Daniel Clanchy, Esq. and sister of James D. Lyons, Esq. D. L. Croom-house; a lady whose death will be a grievous loss to the poor of that town and neighbourhood.

In the Rue Royale, Paris, of a three days' illness, Sir Francis Smith, M.D. physician to Lord Normanby as Viceroy of Ireland, and author of several professional works.

At Florence, Captain Arthur Browne, brother to Captain Wogan Browne, of Mainham, County Kildare.

At her brother's house, in Warren's-place, Cork, Martha, daughter of the late Simeon Henry Hardy, Esq.

At High Park, King's County, John Smith, Esq.
Counsellor Boyle, of Strabane.

At Castleblaney, Ellen, wife of William Desprez, Esq.
In William-street, Rebecca, wife of Mr. John Barrett.

At Midleton, the Rev. James Walsh, P.P.

At Caherciveen, suddenly, Mr. Samuel Stephens, schoolmaster.
The Rev. Mark Fogarty, P. P. Lusk, and the Rev. Richard Sheil, C. C. Irishtown.

Mr. Timothy Finucane, many years the master of a school at Blennerville, on the establishment of Erasmus Smith.

In Newry, Mr. Florence M'Carthy, many years Tidewaiter at Blennerville.

In Mallow, Miss Margaret Atkins.

At Cloyne House, the infant son of the Rev. Robert J. Going.

At Hollywoodrath, Miss Garrett.

Mr. T. O'Callaghan, President of the Kerries Temperance Club, Kerry.

At Pau, South of France, Edward Townley Hardman, Esq. son of the late Rev. George Hardman, Rector of Syddan.

At Hastings, Captain James S. Cates, late of the 53d regiment.

At Leipsic, the Princess Victorine of Schœnburg, Waldenburgh.

At Thornby, Northamptonshire, the Rev. Nathaniel Cotton, M. A. Rector and Rural Dean.

At Cambridge, Sibella, widow of William Maxwell Morrison, Esq. of Edinburgh.

Frances, widow of John Woodburn, Esq.

In Stratford-place, Fanny, wife of Vicesimus Knox, Esq.

Elizabeth, wife of James Burrough, Esq. Trafalgar-place.

At Greenock, Mr. Pigott.

At Exeter, Edmund Granger, Esq.

At Stapleton-park, near Pontefract, John Watson Barton, Esq.

In Torrington-square, Mary, wife of the Rev. Joseph Hunter.

At Lincoln's-inn, in the 84th year of his age, Thomas Lane, Esq. steward to that society 48 years.

At Wavertree, Lydia, daughter of Mr. T. B. Butler, chemist.

Mr. John Watson, shipbuilder, Liverpool.

Mary, only daughter of the Rev. T. L. Pain, A. M.

At Rome, Charlotte Sherwin, wife of Edward Markham, Esq.

At Newhaven, U. S. Edward Huggins, Esq. of Old Manor House, Nevis, son-in-law of Major Juxon, of Killarney, Kerry, late 25th Regiment.

lasts, soups, Lun-
up in the best styl
families can be acc
fortable apartment

His BEDS will aired, a comfort u lishment may alw confidence. His instance to promo
guests, and he tru
generally, and th public at large a satisfy that his cla
out proper recom

Country famili
attention in his n

The LIVERY S and expert Man, reposed. Hay an

The Interest of
to be Let or Sold.
J. NIHILL, 10, S

SCIENT

M. COLLIN

ment, fee
Elementary, as w are taught in it o has elicited the a tinguished for Se
our Colleges; th riority of many cates, above th sufficient to indu improvement of
of his Pupils.

NEVILLE, of Ba the same time w
nity College, D (tho' unpatronise solely on ground
of this gentleman
Journal, particu
materials in Coff
for May 1840, sh
and his serving n refutes the opin
tific Engineers,
to them.

M. COLLINS k
8, where young can improve the