

he addressed them on the beneficial conse-
 that would arise to themselves and their by becoming teetotallers, contrasting the habits, graceless character, miserable mind, etched circumstances of a drunkard, with the condition of a temperate and religious man. He at no one need be ashamed to take the pledge perance, for men of high rank and station daily joining the cause, were it only to shew a ample to others; and he exhorted them that only adhered to their pledge, and laid up what could expend in whiskey and porter, there would occasion for their going into a workhouse they grow old and infirm. Throughout the her Mathew related many interesting incidents ve of his noble work, and concluded his labors past four o'clock, when 5000 persons were en-the majority of whom were women. He then d to the residence of the Roman Catholic and left for Cork yesterday; but before his re 1000 more took the pledge.
 er Mathew will preach at Cashel, on Sunday,
 National and Convent Schools.
 Howly, Esq. of Downhill, has lent the Rev.
 Keane, P.P. of Attymas, Mayo, 150*l.* to roof
 pel.
 Rev. Andrew O'Connell, Dublin, has received nowledge from the Council of the Associa-Paris for Propagating the R. C. faith, for a remittance from the association in this 7.
 er Mathew's secretary receives a salary of £2
 ek, besides travelling charges. The Rev. gen-is himself £1,500 poorer than when he ed up the great cause of Temperance, and he bted £1,100 for medals at Birmingham; in r has given out often more liberally than he ceived.

reported that Louis Phillipe has invited the postle of Temperance, Father Mathew, to visit

O'Kelly, of CloghJordan, is appointed vaccinator
 Nenagh Union—for Modreenny and Borrison

Conservatives have again obtained a large y at the Sligo Registry Quarter Sessions.
 O'Connell is to be entertained to dinner at gar, to-morrow.

Hon. Mrs. Massy Yescombe, late of Belmont, ived in Dublin, and will shortly proceed to the ent.

own Council for the City of Cork is to be under the Municipal Act on the 25th October out the present magistrates will continue in o December.

total quantity of tea bonded in this port does eed 300 chests, and the quantity of tobacco is la.

the end of the year 1839 the stock of free grain
 ary in Glasgow was—wheat, 100,000 bolls;
 17,500; barley, 17,400; beans, 8,670
 ; flour, 5,260 sacks, 4,250 brls.; oatmeal, oads. At close of 1840—wheat, 109,760; 0,000; barley, 8,290; beans, 3,300; flour,
 sacks, 36,440 brls.; oatmeal, 17,635 loads.

Wizard of the North came out at Clonmel on y night.

Clonmel guardians excluded the Press from eeting on Friday.

Waterford Guardians will appoint two medical oners at £40 each, and apothecary at £30, on a inst.

Mr. Meehan, R.C. Curate of Kilrush, presided
 eeting in this city on Monday night, which Mr.
 attended, when a resolution of thanks was o the two Steam Companies who refused to Robert Kerr, with emigrants for Jamaica, e river. This vessel is still in the Poole, windat a considerable expense to the owners.
 eady has succeeded the late Dr. Enright as n to the Ennis fever hospital.

Treslove, Queen's Counsel.
 At Marylebone Church, Benjamin Whichcote, Esq. son of Sir Thomas Whichcote, Bart. of Aswarby-hall, Lincolnshire, to Harriett, relict of the late William Villiers Surtees, Esq. of Rotherhouse, Sussex.

DEATHS.

At Toomevara, Charles Wickham Hird, Esq. late 74th Regt.
 and nephew of the late Right Hon. W. Wickham; a gentleman very much regretted.
 At Rathescar, county Louth, George Frederick Augustus, aged 11 years, son of the Hon. Baron Foster.
 Suddenly, William Augustus Howard Minchin, Esq. Ballintur, county Dublin.
 At St. Oran's, Galway, Anthony Blake, Esq.
 Edward Shaw, Esq. of Killyglass.
 At Youghal, Elizabeth, wife of Mr. E. Fitzgerald.
 At Tuam, Catherine, wife of Thomas Bodkin, Esq.
 At Cove, Thomas, son of the late P. Goold, Esq. of Curtglass.
 Of typhus fever, at Mountcharles, Donegal, Dr. Kerrigan.
 In Upper Rutland-street, Allen Dowell, Esq. of Milford, in the county of Galway, aged 71.
 At her brother's, in Grafton-street, Alicia Jane Kinslugh.
 In Dorset-street, William Armstrong, son of the late John Armstrong, Esq. of Belview, King's County.
 Herbert William, son of Mr. James Waller, Pembroke-road.
 Mrs. Mary Cahill, of Cove.
 At Buttevant, Anne, wife of Mr. Robert Fames.
 At Drogheda, John Chadwick, Esq. an extensive merchant.
 In Mecklenburgh-street, Dublin, Mr. Henry Courtney, Printer.
 The Rev. Bryan Kiernan, Curate of Bullinahown, Ardagh.
 In Gardiner-street, Anne Henrietta, daughter of the late Doctor Purcell.
 Miss Bridget O'Donnell, Rathkeale.
 At the Bowling-green, Galway, Mr. Terence Gunning.
 Mrs. Donnelly, widow of Mr. John Donnelly, Ennis, whose husband died last month.
 In Killarney, Miss Honoria M'Sweeny.
 In Galway, Mrs. Mahon, wife of Mr. Michael Mahon.
 At his seat, Carrigmanus, Cork, Richard Dowe, Esq.
 At Cove, aged 45, William, only surviving child of Mrs. Jamson, and grandson to Christopher Owens.
 Mr. Richard Eager, Old George-street, Cork.
 At St. Helen's, Jersey, Mr. John O'Brien.
 At Kirkwall, Orkney, Lieut. Lindsay, aged 70.
 At Falmouth, Mrs. Teague, mother of Mr. J. Teague, Master,
 R. N., aged 90 years.
 In Plymouth, Mary, wife of Samuel Gibbons, Esq. Army Medical Staff.
 After a long illness, at Lyme-Regis, Dorsetshire, Major Richard Jebb, late of the 40th Regiment.
 At Batcombe, Somersetshire, the Rev. Thomas Copey, L.L.B.
 50 years rector of the parishes of Batcombe and Upton Noble.
 At Clarendon Park, Lady Harvey Bathurst, wife of Sir Frederick Hervey Bathurst, Bart.
 On Christmas-day, at Trevor-square, Brompton, Sarah, relict of Lieut.-Colonel George Tad, late 29th Regiment.
 In London, Abraham Lewis Herbert, Esq. Captain h. p. late York Light Infantry.
 At Leamington, Captain Samuel George Pechell, R. N. Berely, Hants.
 Lately, at Rome, the eminent astronomer the Abbe Scarpellini.
 Thomas Dalton, Esq. of Jersey.
 At Kensington-place, Lieut. Abraham Pike, R. N.
 At Jersey, Eliza, wife of Mr. James Watson.
 At Wimborne, Dorset, Jane Penelope Hanham, sister of the Rev. Sir James Hanham, Bart. of Dean's-court, in that county.
 At Hayselden, Cranbrook, Miss Toby, sister of Lady Astley.
 W. R. Wickham, Esq. of Foxley-road, Kennington.
 James Crossfield, M. D. son of Edward Mason Crossfield, Esq. of Edge Hill, Liverpool.
 John Hall, Esq. of Portslade, senior partner of the Union Bank.
 Captain John Crossley, late of the 7th Dragoon Guards.
 At Mill House, West Cowes, Mary, relict of the late Admiral Osborne, aged 87.
 Frances Ann, daughter of Major Axford, Mount Vernon.
 At Cadiz, Frank Hall Standish, Esq. of Duxbury, Lancashire.
 At Woodford, Essex, James Barry, Esq. many years a merchant in Cateaton-street.
 Mrs. Elizabeth Newcombe, Prince's-court, Westminster, sister of the late William Newcombe, Esq. of Trevithick, Cornwall.

MONTHLY MILITARY OBITUARY.

Lieut.-General—Sir W. H. Pringle, G. C. B. 45 F.
 Major-General—Hull, C B, E I Comp Service.
 Colonel—Oglander, 26th, at sea, off the coast of China.
 Majors—Sir W. Dick, Bart. E I Comp Serv; Fuller, ditto; J. L.
 Jones, ditto; Harte, ditto; Monke, ditto.
 Captains—Halkett, Colds Gds; Colley, 16 F; Nicolls, 21 F; H.
 Ellisor, 88 F; Harriott, late of R Mar; Hon James Stuart, Unat; H A Sitherland, h p 10 F; Græme, h p 72 F; Cavallace, h p Sicilian Regiment.
 Lieu enants—Jones, 16 F; Jenkins, 44 F; Fenwick, 61 F;
 Fulton, 62 F, drowned at Moulmein; Elkington, 62 F; W. Dunn, 12 F; Bottomley, h p 15 F; Tuton, h p 3 Garr Bn; De Offen, h p 7 L ne Bn Ger Leg.
 2d Lieut. and Cornets—Fagg, h p 4 Dr Gds; F Pipon, 4 Dr; W.
 Hagerty, h p R Mar.
 Paymasters—Strange, h p 62 F., Mil. Knight of Windsor; Sprakeling, h p Rec Dist.
 Quartermasters—Holmes, h p 1 Dr Gds; Shaw, h p 8 F.
 Medical Department—Insp Gen of Hosp J. Phillips, h p; Dep.
 Insp Gen Dr. J. Cope, h p; Assist Surg Dr. Everard, 54 F; Ass.
 Surg M'Creddie, Staff, drowned at Bermuda.
 Mem.—The death of Dr. Mostyn, late Surgeon of the 47th F.
 and now on half-pay, was erroneously inserted in the Army List for November last.

With some half-bred Stock, consisting of Heiffers, and Strippers.
 Such of the Gentry as are about to proved SHORT HORNS, will find in this S
 AS GOOD STOCK AS ENGLAN PRODUCE.
 The Fat Stock will be found very fine
 ing Stock extremely good, fashionably-
 the young Bulls, really first-rate.
 JOS. & JAS. MARSHALL, A
 Due Notice shall be given of this imp

Carriages, Phaetons, C

MESSRS. MARSHALL have always variety of Vehicles, mostly at ex Prices. Persons requiring such would do the Farming Repository, Limerick; and to Sell will find a ready market, if they value.

HORSE AUCTIONS

Are held the first Saturday in every while the Proprietors regret that they many FIRST-RATE HORSES, there will found a useful lot of Screws and Harness
 sometimes a Topper.
 Fifteen Couple of the best HARRIE
 for Sale, with all their equipments.

Farms, Houses, Lodging

CAN BE LET AT A SHORT NOTIC
 THE Registry Book of Messrs. MA worth looking to, by persons requi
 Charges merely nominal.
Timber Sales
 TWICE A MONTH, AT LIMER

THE LIMERICK

COMMERCIAL M

JOSEPH & JAMES MARSHALL m fully tender their best thanks to the Gentry of Ireland, for the extensive pat which they have been favoured, hoping by tention and an accurate knowledge of th
 to merit a continuance.
 Sales of Cattle, Stock, &c. first reduced
 a plain, simple, yet advantageous metho
 the consideration of every Stock Holder occasions have tested their usefulness buyer and the seller. The enormous adv former, having an extensive collection to with the assistance of the best judges the produce, and every accomodation afforded to the latter an immediate sale is effected Stock marketable, and the produce is within twelve hours of the sale, instead of property, at immense expenses, to di where, at best he can expect only par while at a public sale the value is best ascertained.

The Senior Partner of the Mart has b by being appointed Judge at most of the AGRICULTURAL EXHIBITIO

in the south of Ireland; and has been furth by being selected to conduct some of the sive Sales of Cattle, Horses, Farming an Effects, in very distant parts of Ireland talents and experience of the Auction metropolis were in competition with him.

The attention of the Junior Partner w devoted to the management of Sales at his best attention shall be given. The Mart will meet under his inspection improv
 Property of every kind will be received fo
 Private Sale, and a certain market be th
 where persons can always either di purchase;

PROPERTY OF EVERY DESCR
 Limerick, Januar