REGULAR PACKETS FOR AUSTRALIA.

UNDER the management of Messrs. CARTER and BONUS, in conjunction with Messrs. JOHN GORE and Co., Mr. ROBERT BROOKS, and other Merchants of London, interested in the Colony. JOHN BESNARD, JUN. CORK, SOLE AGENT FOR IRELAND.

These Packet Ships are a First Class, of Large Tonnage, have Poops, and first rate accommodations for Cabin, Intermediate, and Steerage Passengers. The Captains and Officers are carefully selected for character and experience, and a skilful Surgeon is appointed to each Ship. They will sail in the following order, and never deviate, (wind and weather permitting) from the fixed days of Sailing, viz:—

For	From LONDON,	From CORK,
POR	PHILIP, March 1	March 12
	Ditto May 1	May 12
	Ditto July 1	July 12
	Ditto Sept. 1	Sept. 12
	Ditto Nov. 1	Nov. 12

For	From LONDON,	From CORK,
SYDNEY,	April 1	April 12
Ditto	June 1	June 12
Ditto	August 1	August 12
Ditto	October 1	October 12
Ditto	Dec. 1	Dec. 12

Passengers from the East Coast of England and Scotland, can reach LONDON by Steam at a small expense. CORK has been selected as the final place of departure on account of the superior advantages of its Harbour, and from its offering greater convenience to Passengers than any Port in the British Channel; Passengers from the West of England, and West Coast of Scotland, can join at Cork by the numerous Steamers which give cheap and rapid conveyance direct to that Port, from Plymouth, Falmouth, Bristol, Liverpool, Glasgow, &c.

FREE PASSAGE with Victualling and Bedding will be granted by these Ships to a limited number of Emigrants of the following classes, viz:—Agricultural Laborers, Shepherds, Carpenters, Smiths, Wheelwrights, Bricklayers, Masons, and Female Domestic and Farm Servants, who are all much wanted in the Colony, and will obtain High Wages there.

A House has been fitted up for the reception of Bounty Emigrants, where they will be received on their arrival in Cork, and lodged free of cost—and should the ship be prevented from Sailing on the day named, by contrary winds, or any other cause, they will be supported, as well as lodged.

A Matron has been appointed to attend to the comforts of the single Females. The whole Establishment will be under the superintendence of a respectable Married Couple.

Every person who may go out under the Colonial Government Bounty will be allowed (in case of need) to remain on board the Ship, and be Victualled for Ten Days after arrival in the Colony, in order to afford time for his or her engagement in Service.—The undersigned has two Brothers residing in New South Wales, with whom he is in constant correspondence, he also receives the Sydney and Port Phillip Papers regularly, and has made arrangements with two of the first Mercantile Houses at Sydney and Port Phillip, to supply him with every information calculated to be of use to the Emigrant.

As these Ships are to be despatched under the superintendence of Mr. BESNARD, he pledges himself that nothing shall be left undone to secure the comforts of all Parties proceeding by them, whether as Cabin, Intermediate, or Steerage Passengers.

* * A Cow is carried in each Ship, especially for the benefit of Infants and young Children.

All Particulars respecting the above Ships, and the Australian Colonies, may be known on application to JOHN BESNARD, Jun.

Australian Emigration Agent, Cork.

P. S.—The Splendid Ship "Royal Saxon" A. I. 750 Tons, will be despatched from London on the 1st, and from Cork on the 12th March.
