DEATHS.
On the 4th inst. at Bushfield, county Tipperary, very sincerely and deservedly lamented by her family and friends, Mary Elizabeth, the beloved wife of John Philips, Esq.
Of bilious fever, at his residence, Millview, county Tipperary, on the 4th instant, Henry Sargent, Esq. Barrack Master of Cahir, Aylmer Richard Martin, Esq. an eminent Solicitor, and Chamberlain to the Corporation of Cork.
On Sunday, after giving birth to a son and heir, the beloved wife of William Studdert, Esq. of Thornbury, county Clare.
On the 6th instant, at the house of her uncle, Walker J. Mason, Esq. Glentworth street, in the 14th year of her age, Kate, eldest daughter of the late Robert Harding, Esq. M.D. a young lady possessed of an amiable disposition and endearing manner.
At Ashline Park, Ennis, county Clare, the infant son of James Mahon, Esq.
On the 2d instant, in Kanturk, at the house of her father, Eliza, only daughter of Richard Curran, Esq. aged 22 years. Seldom had such a combination of virtues both religious and moral arrived to perfection at so early an age. She was grand-niece to the late Right Hon. John P. Curran, and inherited no small share of his high and extraordinary talents. She had acquired a perfect knowledge of the Greek, Latin, and English classics at the age of 15 years, when her literary pursuits were interrupted by severe illness. She was dignified yet humane, kind yet unostentatious, sincere yet unaffected, truly religious, yet unconscious of any merit but that of a Saviour. Her remains were accompanied to Newmarket, the family burial place by numbers of all classes, who evinced the most unfeigned sorrow on the occasion.
On the Grand Parade, Cork, Mrs. Michael Collins.
At Bandon, Catherine, relict of the late Robert Sealy, Esq.
At Patrick's Hill, Cork, Joshua Harman, Esq. late Lieutenant in De Watvill's Regiment.
At Bandon, Mr. Wm. Bennett, eldest son of Thomas Bennett, jun. Henry Beecher, Esq. of Abadown, in his 67th year.
Mr. John Lucas, of Ballyclohessey.
At his son's house, in Killarney, Mr. W. Byrom of Cork.
At Campfield Terrace, Maria, wife of Francis Codd, Esq. Rockville, Rathmines.
In Derry, Capt. Joseph Hayton, of the brig Fly, of Harrington. Mr. Charles Rextor, of Enniskillen, medical student.
At Ballinagh, Cavan, Catherine, widow of H. Sheridan, Esq.
At Woodville, Lucan, the infant son of Major-General Sir Hopton S. Scott, K.C.B.
At Ballymahon, Thornton Francis, the beloved child of the Rev. Francis T. Gregg.
At Sylvan Park, county Meath, Jane, relict of the late Walter Keating.
At Black Rock, Francis Barlow, of Lower Gardiner-street, Solicitor.
In Marlborough-street, Mr. Peter M'Cormick.
In Wexford, Louisa Eleanor, daughter of Benjamin Biggs, Esq. M.D. Surgeon of the Wexford Militia.
At Ballylucas, county Wexford, the Rev. James Murphy, P.P. of Celbridge, county Kildare.
Eliza, daughter of the late T. Bradshaw, Esq. of Mile-cross Lodge, Down.
At Carrickbeg, Anne, relict of the late Thomas Feehan, Esq. Anastasia, eldest daughter of Mr. Thomas Kirwan, of Gurteen, late of Tramore.
At Cabourn, near Caistor, in his 99th year, Richard Cousins, the oldest member of the Wesleyan Society in the circuit.
In Park-lane, London, the Dowager Duchess of Marlborough.
At Clapham, Surrey, John O'Brien, Esq. M.D. late of the 7th Royal Fusiliers.
At Millbank, Ayr, aged 81, Mr. William Mills, formerly of the 42d, with which he served in Egypt and America.
In Liverpool, Mrs. Turner, relict of Major-General Turner, of the Bombay Cavalry.
At his house in Manchester-square, Adam Gordon, Esq. late of the Colonial Office.
At Brussels, the Hon. Berkeley Octavius Noel, seventh son of the late and brother of the present Lord Barham.
At Dominica, William Byam Wyke, Esq. of Antigua.
At Aurungabad, East Indies, George Lanauze, Esq. Assistant Commissary-General in the Nizam's service, and son of the late Andrew Lanauze Esq. of Cavan.
On Saturday, at his house in Frederick-street, Joseph Gabbett Bouchier, Esq. of the Royal Tyrone Regt. He bore a painful illness with Christian fortitude and resignation, and died rejoicing in the hope of salvation, through his Saviour and Redeemer. As a father and husband his loss will be long and deeply felt—and, as a friend, by all those who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.
Louisa Eleanor, daughter of Benjamin Biggs, Esq. M.D. Surgeon of the Wexford Militia.
In Carlow, the wife of Capt. Wright.
Maria Wilhelmina, infant daughter of Isidore J. Blake, Esq. Lower Gardiner-street.
At Reading, Berkshire, at an advanced age, Vice-Admiral Sir Thomas Dundas, K.C.B. and D.C.L.
Mrs. Wilberforce.
At Sandgate, county Kent, Mary Jane, wife of the Rev. Rawdon G. Greene, Chaplain of Sandgate.
Thomas Purvis, Esq. aged 88.
On passage from Leghorn to Glasgow, Capt. L. M'Queen, of the Clyde steamer.
Mr. Henry S. Watson, of the Glasgow Union Bank.
At Greenock, Mr. William Ferguson, coal merchant.
At Johnsbrook, county Meath, William Tandy, Esq.
At Bushfield House, Donnybrook-road, in her 21st year, Charlotte Anne, daughter of Capt. John Duniam, Harbour Master of Dublin.
At Portobello, the infant son of W. H. Nedham, Esq. Royal Horse Artillery.
