

arch to 5th April by the d, for the propagation of uding £1 from the Coun-chael's Parish, Limerick, arish of Glenroe, per Rev.

this week received from donation of £10 for the Commissioner, attended a rdians on Tuesday, who ion:—"That as no proper l, of the expenditure of as there appears to be a ds, we postpone for the £4,000 now produced to the raising of any further the Poor Law Commissiocontract for building the merchants have formed for building ships in the umber can be imported at plank at 8s. while in Eng-and £4 per load. All f Man are entitled to be the will of the late Earl, ster, Bart. after the death

d not to Mr. Alexander, he representation of this ed.

ina, Mayo, fully acquitted having charged James earing to a registry claim Margaret Hehir, residing anged herself a few days insanity.

of Carrigaholt Castle, D.L. mperance Society of Car-purchasing musical instru-market, purchased this r, Esq. a fat bullock, which 2 cwt. and a small heifer, nsidered by many to have er-bred in the county Clare.

At Hornsey, Benjamin Cressie Marsham, Esq. to Catherine Mar-nette, daughter of Henry Powell, Esq.

At St. Giles's Camberwell, Joseph Brownell, Esq. of Peckham, Surrey, to Susannah Caroline Duncombe.

Thomas Kirkpatrick, Esq. of George-town, Demerara, to Margaret, daughter of the Rev. D. Whyte, Presbyterian Minister of Ballee.

William Martin, Esq. Chief Justice of New Zealand, to Mary Anne, daughter of the Rev. William Parker.

At Dominica, Lieut. Wm. H. Thornton, 89th Regiment, to Rebecca, daughter of Commissary-General Lindsey.

In Waterford, the Rev. Wm. Arthur Darby, Wesleyan Minister, of Dublin, to Margaret, daughter of the late John Hughes, Esq. of Dudley, Worcestershire.

DEATHS.

In Dublin, Mrs. Pepper, relict of the late Thomas R. Pepper, Esq. of Laughton, county Tipperary, and sister to General Lord Bloomfield.

At the house of her son at Ashford, in this county, Jane, mother of Richard D. Alleyne, Esq. M.D.

At his residence, Clanbrassil-street, Dublin, Mr. William Maddock, many years Billet Master and High Constable of Dublin.

At Maryborough, William Webb, Esq. aged 79.

In Cork, aged 40, Mr. David Hennessy. This gentleman has left but few to survive him who had qualities equal to those by which he was distinguished. He had an unerring and intuitive keenness in perceiving what served his country; and neither influence of grade, rewards of profit, or frowns of party, were able to turn him off his path of intention. He enforced his views with mildness, yet with strength; and his character for rectitude assured all that, if they were in any way erroneous, they were unquestionably sincere. In private life he was amiable to an extreme.

At Upper Glanmire, Mrs. O'Mullane.

At Swinford, Mary wife of Mr. Patrick Cunniffe.

Bridget, relict of the late James Rogers, Esq. of Creves, Ballina.

In Castlebar, Mr. Patrick Coyne, confectioner.

Peter Wilkinson, of Skryne Castle, county Meath, Esq.

At Belfast, Mr. John Milliken.

Patrick, son of James Fitzsimon, Esq. of Bridgefoot-street, timber merchant.

At Kelvin Grove, near Glasgow, Mrs. Dennistoun, aged 75.

At Putney-heath, in her 86th year, Charlotte, widow of the late John Sargent, Esq. of Lavington, Sussex.

At his seat Longmer-ball, near Shrewsbury, in his 87th year, Robert Burton, Esq.

Elizabeth Compton, daughter of Sir Augustus and Lady Clifford.
Suddenly in Mabledon-place, Thomas Dorville, Esq. late Lieut-Colonel Grenadier Guards.

At Madeira, the Rev. John B. Langford, of Rowell, co. Cork.

At Pisa, Elizabeth, wife of Dr. William O'Shea.

At Rome, the Princess Marie Antoinette Josephine, Abbess of the Ursulines, Infanta of Spain, and Aunt of the Duke of Lucca.

At Killimer Castle, county Galway, Hyacinth George Burke, Esq.

At Gloucester-street, Miss Eliza Hall.

At Lagore, Anna Maria, daughter of Michael Thunder, Esq.

At Ballinroe, county Cork, the Rev. Thomas Purcell, R. C. curate of Castletown.

At Whitchurch Canonicorum, Dorset, Anne Ward, widow of the late Bishop of Sodor and Mann.

At Claremont-villa, Bath, Miss Taylor, daughter of the late W.
Taylor, Esq. of Maze-hill, Greenwich, and niece of Admiral Taylor.

At Paris, Thomas Valentine Nugent, Esq.

Last Spring S

FOR Q

TO Sail on the permitting
British built Oa

OF LIM

This very sup opportunity to Passengers does of the best En
proved constru
rate, having la respect to other most extraordi
being nearly on almost the last fore, have a tw Vessel, as they ther with having

Early applica
be limited, the g

A few more pa
ABBS, to sail a

T

P. O'CALL
Extensiv
Retail GROCE
No. 9, GEORGE therein.

It is unnecess tages possessed are in the very larage and Stor lishment would House, which is at present in th tunity for the rarely presente

The business v tion until a ten