Newspaper Establishment.
 A GENTLEMAN of talent and Literary acquirements, and capable of conducting the Editorial department of a Newspaper, will find a favourable opportunity of investing a moderate Capital to advantage, as the Proprietor of an old established PROVINCIAL NEWSPAPER is desirous of forming a Partnership with a Gentleman, whose abilities would be calculated to place that Paper on a useful, efficient, and permanent basis.
 The Provincial Journal, being now the oldest Paper in Ireland, stands high in public estimation, possesses a good circulation, and is invariably well supplied with Advertisements.
 A very moderate capital would be sufficient to place this Journal on a most respectable and independent foundation, and amongst the most influential of the Provincial Papers of Ireland. Any Gentleman disposed to expend a reasonable sum in the concern, will, no doubt, find it a safe and profitable investment. The Journal is published in the Capital of one of the Provinces, an improving town, of considerable commercial importance, and the County, in which it is situated, is one of the most extensive and populous Counties in Ireland.
 Letters and Proposals addressed to the Proprietor, to the care of Messrs. JOHNSON & Co. 1, Eden-Quay, Dublin, will be promptly attended to.
