prishioners of St. Michael-Will you permit this edent and indecest assumption Remember that befret election of Poor Law Guardians in Limerick expied the attention of Parliament, and was a prinand cause of Irelaid receiving an unjust and limited nesure of Corporate Reform. Will you not be ruled by experience? The old Corporations were condemned for favouritism and partiality. Surely you cannot adopt their example. If you do, depend pon it you will have every honest and honorable ma arrayed against you. Corporations were intended, not for the senefit of impudent and narrow-minded "cliques," who fear the light of public opinion, but for the advantage of the country generally. This, however, is not the first time that the fell spirit of party has deprived the people of blessings which were already within reach of their hands.

Pledging myself to watch closely the proceedings of every self-appointed inquisition, I remain, Sir, A PARISHIONER OF ST. MICHAEL'S-A LIBERAL IN
