

enormous expence. Hay, £37 17s. 4d. a ton ; provender for horses cannot be had ; meat varies from 1s. 8d. to 2s. a lb. ; potatoes. 16s. for a hundred ; and no straw to be had. Lieut. Mills, 93d, Lt. Fountain, Lt. Powell, 81st, are appointed Fort Adjutants. Lieut. Guy, 81st, the senior Subaltern, died of fever at Trinidad, in April.

Four of the 95th, at Ceylon, were attacked by hydrophobia from the bite of a mad dog.

The son of Sir John Conroy, who entered the military service, was, by last accounts, in a dying condition.

Capt. De Lacy, 36th, is gone to London on leave of absence.

Some non-commissioned officers of the 89th Depot at Dublin, entertained to a farewell dinner on Monday evening. Colour Serjeant James Sibbald, who is about to be discharged.

Mr. M'Dermott, 89th Depot, having gone from Dublin on leave to England, Dr. Vaughan has got the charge during his absence.

Our respected Chief Magistrate's well timed precautionary notice, relative to mastiff and cur dogs coursing the streets, without any restraint, at this season, will not have the salutary effect intended, unless the Police follow up the intimation by corrective measures, as a matter of public safety.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—A beautiful boy, aged 12 years, son of Mr. Manderson, proprietor of the Mill Mills, Killaloe, walking with his sister on the bank of the canal, about five o'clock, yesterday morning, slipped in, and was drowned in the presence of a distracted relative. When taken out of the water and conveyed home, every means which science and skill could suggest, under the superintendence of Mr. Burke, was had recourse to, but in vain as a permanent resource ; Thracotomy was performed by a Doctor, but without success.

At a meeting of the governors of Sir Patrick Dun's Hospital, Dr. John C. Ferguson was elected physician ordinary to that Institution.

Monday, the market-house and two others were pulled down in Swandlinbar.

The Marquis of Waterford and Lord John Beresford accompanied by Mr. Uniacke, and Mr. and Mrs. Macaulay, of Maypark, and Miss Jephson, have arrived at Rockwell kennell, from Curraghmore. The boat belonging to Lordship's drag was occupied by a number of persons, for the covers in the neighbourhood.

William Carroll, Esq. was this day appointed Secretary to the Athlunkard Bridge Commissioners, in place of his late brother.

Madame Vestris and Mr. C. Mathews are engaged to perform at the Theatre Royal, Hawkins-street.

The Primate of Ireland has resigned his rectorial charge at Donaghadee, amounting to £350 per annum, and augment the income of the Vicar.

Burrows, Dean of Cork, lies dangerously ill at the house of his son-in-law, Rev. Samuel George Burrows, Riversland, near Omagh.

Public meetings of the county Tipperary Protestant Society are to be held in Newport, on Tuesday ; Nenagh, Wednesday ; Burreisokane, Thursday ; Cloughjordan, Friday next.

Rev. G. A. Selwin, curate of Windsor, has received the appointment to the lately created Bishopric of New Zealand, through the interposition of Prince Albert, who was studying the English Constitution under the Rev. Gentleman's father.

Miss Byrne, Miss Darrac, and Miss Walsh, made their usual vows of religious profession on this morning at the Presentation Convent, Sexton-street, in the presence of the Right Rev. Dr. Ryan.

Weston's Nob won the sweepstakes of £100 at Ascot, on Thursday, beating the Duke of Devon's Oakley, and others.

The business of the Limerick branch of the Provincial Bank of Ireland will be transferred to the new and commodious Bank-house, Upper George's-street, on Monday next, where the affairs of that establishment will be conducted in future.—See Advertisement.

the late Edward Bulteel, of Singo, Esq. to Catherine, daughter of the late Rev. Mark Chartres, Rector and Vicar of Ferns, Wexford.

DEATHS.

On Sunday last, in Dawson-street, Dublin, Major George Gough, of Woodstown, near this City, eldest son of the late Lieut.-Colonel Gough, City Limerick Regiment, and brother of Major-General Sir Hugh Gough, and of the Archdeacon of Derry. The demise of this excellent gentleman is the cause of deep regret to all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

After three days illness, at his uncle's residence, Hill Cottage, near Kilmallock, aged 12 years, John, second son of the late Thomas O'Donnell, Esq. of Great George's-street, Cork. The premature death of this endearing and interesting child is a source of deep sorrow to his relatives and friends, by whom he was very much beloved.

At her house, Springfield, Doonass, on Sunday last, Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson.

In Youghal, Mary, daughter of the late Roger Green, Esq. At his residence, at an advanced age, Abraham Beamish, Esq. of Abbey Mount.

At Cove, Anne Simira, daughter of the late John Pyne, Esq. of Lisgoold, and wife of John George Pyne, Esq. of Ballinacarriga. John, son of the late Thomas Warren, Esq. of Prospect Villa, county Cork.

James Kirwan, Esq. of Castletown, Galway. Thade, fourth son of Mr. Morgan O'Connell, of Murhur, Kerry. At Eyre-square, Galway, at a very advanced age, Capt. Denis, late of the Carabineers.

At Elly Walks, county Wexford, Samuel Elly, Esq. At Mount Pleasant Avenue, Anne, relict of the late William Abbott, Esq. solicitor.

Joseph Carolan, late of Grenville-street, Esq. Julia Catherine, daughter of R. W. Beaty, Esq. Blessington-street.

Mr. Samuel Percy, weigh-master, Belfast. At Borrisokane, Robert De La Poer, son of Thomas S. D. Robinson, Esq.

Mr. James Swan, of Warrenpoint. In Bishop-street, Miss Anne Reed.

From the effects of wounds received during the Peninsular campaign, Robert Prescott Eaton, Esq. formerly Captain 28th Regt. and latterly of the Royal Hospital, Kilmainham.

At Glantane, Tuam, Mrs. Festus MacDonagh. At Borrisokane, Elizabeth, wife of Thomas S. D. Robinson, Esq. Mary, daughter of the late Lewis Grant, Esq. many years Adjutant of the Royal Hospital, Chelsea.

At Broxbourne, Herts, Daniel Lutyens, Esq. late of the 3d Dragoon Guards.

Suddenly, Mr. John M'Innon, Precentor, Tron Church, Glasgow, Samuel Cochran, Esq. muslin manufacturer, Glasgow.

At Carlton-place, Edinburgh, George Watson Taylor, Esq. Suddenly, Peter Horrocks, Esq. of Beomond cottage, Surrey. Elizabeth Jane, daughter of Thomas Barlow, Esq. of Paddington-green, and Judgment-office, Temple.

At Liverpool-street, Bishopsgate, Robert Sacheverell Newton Wilkinson, grandson of the late Lieut.-Colonel Robert Sacheverell Newton, of Bulwell-house, near Nottingham.

At St. Leonard's-on-Sea, Isabella, eldest daughter of the late Patrick Chalmers, Esq. of Auldbar, Forfarshire.

The infant daughter of Sir Archibald and Lady Edmonstone. Harriet, daughter of Thomas Streatfield, Esq. of Park-terrace, North Brixton.

At Kentish-town, Mr. Thomas Steel, of Chancery-lane. John Theodore Wilcox, 49th Native Infantry, son of the late Rev. John Wilcox, Rector of Little Stonham, Suffolk.

At Warrington, John Brandwood Burdett, Esq. Rev. William Rose Stephenson, Rector of Coningham, Essex, and Neenton, Salop.

At Beddington-lodge, Surrey, Sarah, widow of the late Admiral James Pigott.

At Oban, Breadalbane Campbell, son of Capt. D. M'Innes, late 42d Regt.

At Plymouth, Emma, the only surviving daughter of the late Charles Furlong Wise, Esq. of the New Forest, aged 14. Henry James, Esq. of Stratton.

The Rev. John Allen, Vicar of Bledington, Gloucestershire, and master of the Grammar Schools, Crewkerne, Somerset.

At Les, Kent, John Burnett Bennet, Esq. aged 86, many years Inspector of Mail Packets to the Post-office.

At her residence, Maida-hill, Lady Campbell, widow of the late Sir William P. H. Campbell, Bart.

In the York-road, Lambeth, Mrs. Mary Cooke, in her 84th year, mother of Mr. T. P. Cooke, Comedian.

At Jedburgh, William Rutherford, Esq. Sheriff-Clerk of Roxburghshire.

At Springbank, Dumbarton, Jane, daughter of Robert Buchanan, Esq. At Greenock, Jane, daughter of the late Mr. John Baine, ship-master.

At Langside cottage, Mr. James Crosbie. At Barrowfield, Glasgow, Thomas Shiels, Esq. aged 98.

At Forkhill, the Rev. William Smyth, Curate of Forkhill. Suddenly, at Ashford, county Wicklow, Charles A. Lendrick, Esq. M.D. Queen's Professor of the Practice of Medicine. At Londonderry, Huntley, wife of P. Rose, Esq. of Demerara. The infant daughter of Mr. John Bassett, North Strand. At Bermuda, on the 12th April, Anne, only child of Ellard D'Esterre, Esq. late 30th Regt. At Bangalore, Eliza Frances, wife of Captain H. A. Hornsby, 2d European Madras Infantry. At Swarthdale, Lancashire, Rear-Admiral Sir Robert Barrie, K.C.B. Lately, Brevet Major Robert White, on the retired full pay, Royal Marines. At Dinapore, Lieut. G. Hutchinson, 21st Fusiliers.

J.G.S. Lefevre, Esq. F.R.S. | Esq.

TRUSTEES.

John Deacon, Esq. | John Charles Johnston, Esq. | Esq.

In this Office Assurers for the have now the option, as most accounts and circumstances, either of security and death, at a low rate of Premium, or three-fourths of the nett profits on paying an increased rate of Premium.

The following are the Annual Assurance of £100 on a healthy life

WITHOUT PROFITS.
Age 20 | £1 11s 8d | 30 | £2 2s 2d | 40 |

WITH PROFITS.
Age 20 | £1 16s 11d | 30 | £2 9s 2d | 40 |

A division of the nett profits will be made quennially. Bonuses accrue on all Policies on which three annual premiums shall be paid at a time a division occurs ; and the Policies have the option either to receive bonuses in a present sum, or of having them in augmentation of their Policies, and their future Premiums.

Assurers on the non-bonus system pay their premiums either in one or more number of payments, in annual, half-yearly payments, on the ascending order, or in any other way most suitable to the convenience.

Officers in the Army and Navy, and persons in the service, persons afflicted with chronic diseases, and such as are going beyond the seas to Europe, are also assured at moderate rates.

Prospectuses and all necessary information obtained on application to

72, GEORGE'S-STREET
Or of Mr. N. CUMMINS, Lower
Cork ; C. HAYES, Rogerson's Quay.

Victoria Life Assurance AND LOAN COMPANY
No. 18, KING WILLIAM-ST. M.
Capital £500,000

DIRECTORS.

Sir James Duke, M.P. C.
Benjamin Hawes, Esq. Deputy
William Allen, Esq. | John K.
Benjamin Barnard, Esq. | Benjamin
Charles Baldwin, Esq. | Thomas
James Cockburn, Esq. | Major C.
Bryan Donkin, Esq. | Daniel
Aaron Goldsmith, Esq. | O'Brya
James Law Jones, Esq. | Woo

AUDITORS.

John Barnard, Esq. | Edward
William Hawes, Esq. | Robert

BANKERS.

Messrs. Barnard, Dimsdale & Co.

PHYSICIANS.

Archibald Billing, M. D. ; T. W.

SURGEONS.

James Farish, Esq. ; John Dalrymple

STANDING COUNSELLORS.

Russell Gurney, Esq.

SOLICITORS.

Messrs. Lake and Curran

ACTUARY.

William Ratray, Esq.

The Advantages Offered by Policies granted as low as £50. Low Rates of Premium. Prospectuses may be had at the Office.

Messrs. RALPH WEST & CO. Prospect-R.

John Westropp
SIR RICHARD FRANKLIN
Medical Attendant
ARTHUR BELL
Agent for Kerry, Nelson-