WITH the deep conviction I feel of the responsibility incurred by the individu that shall affect the rights of mankind, and the ha of my own limited capacity, I cannot but with extremest diffidence present myself to my fel electors of my native County of Limerick, as a didate at the ensuing Election, for the honour of coming one of their representatives in the Hou Commons.

 Perfectly aware that my social position comm no elective influence, I ground my pretensions to suffrages upon public opinion, which has emphati proclaimed the expectation that the County of L rick will furnish two liberal representatives, compe to afford a continuous attendance to Parliamen duties, and sustain, by their votes at least, the poli principles of the great majority of the electo your county.
 Had any gentleman, enjoying the confidence of electoral body, embarked in the enterprise in whi task which a sense of duty impels me to, an should have more contentedly continued an hu but zealous elector of the County Limerick.

 It would be the highest gratification to me to the abode of every Elector in the County, but sh time and circumstances prevent me accomplish that object previous to the Election, I trust the motives which I have respectfully suggeste
