and three records.

Augustus Stafford O'Brien. Esq. M. P. arrived yesterday at the family seat, Cratlee Woods, near this City.

It was the Bishop of Cashel officiated at the Lord Lieutenant's marriage on Monday, and not the Archbishop of Dublin.

There are 150 men employed this week upon the new gas works.

It is understood that a Stipendiary Magistrate in this county has resigned, to avoid an inquiry into his conduct for want of precaution and energy; an inquiry affecting Mr. Cheevers, Stipendiary at Listowel, has been ordered, connected with the Kerry election, when a mob was suffered to pelt the Magistrates, Military and Police, with absolute impunity, at Listowel.

The Irish representatives in the last Parliament comprised 70 liberals, and 35 conservatives. In the new Parliament the number will be 45 Conservatives and 60 Liberals,

We originally stated that Sir Ralph Howard, M. P. for Wicklow, would support Sir Robert Peel's government, and we have now the satisfaction of adding that he has pledged himself to the conservative electors " to maintain the institutions of the country, and the integrity of the empire."

The trees overhanging the road at Newcastle, are a dangerous nuisance; Mrs De Vere, proceeding to Thornfield the seat of Sir Richard Bourke, received a violent burt on the eye from one of the branches, while driving by that road.

The death of the Baroness Braye, mother of R. Otway Cave, M.P. for Tipperary, is reported, in which event he must vacate his parliamentary seat.

Lord Chancellor Campbell is gone to England.

The Tipperary Conservative Society has just published in the London papers, the retiring addresses of Messrs. Maud and Barker, from the late contest, to show the great intimidation and violence that prevailed.

Sunday night, Henry Fitzgerald, journeyman hatter, died in a state of intoxication. He was a pledge breaker, and this is the second premature death in St. Mary's parish under circumstances of intoxication in the last two months.

Col. Bruen is to be entertained by the Carlton Club Judge Ball contributed £1 towards the repairs of Castle-Connell Chapel.

Her Majesty's schooner Skipjack, Lieut. May, R.N. at the West India station, was wrecked upon the Grand Caymana's reef. Officers and crew saved.

The Royal Marines are 1000 short of their quota, though with 24 Recruiting parties in England, but not one in Ireland!

Ensign Johnsto 27th, is promoted the latter corps.

to the Colonelcy and to hold it so

The Adjutanto by the promotion in the Royal Can

The Quarterma Quarter-master of

A Colour Serje master of the Re

The first division at Portsmouth for Robinson transport

A wing of the Portsmouth, per

The Depots 24 being consolidate landed at Portsm tive Depot Adjutative Corps.

The 85th De Plymouth by the the 38th Depot fi

Major-General the benefit of the last week, has a income of 7s. 6d.

The 50th is ordered and the 34th at 1

Mr. J. Foster garrison, was pr people of Belfast officers.

Capt. Bevan, In The commission William Smith, in was three weeks purchase, in the celled, he being declared too sho

Lieut. Lloyd, inhabitants, on le

Lieut. Croft. F Capts. Blake, O' Regt. sold out o

Lieut. Wilson Royal Artillery.

The band of the Cork Horticultu

The Duke of Lawrence were