Commissioners have offered a reward for such information as may lead to his conviction, and we trust that an example may be made, that will effectually put an end to such outrageous acts, which are enough to deter persons from giving employment at all.

Lady Isabella FitzGibbon has arrived at Kilkee.

Government have fixed the 10th instant for an enquiry at Listowel, into charges preferred against Mr.
Cheevers, Stipendiary Magistrate.

A brig supposed to be a smuggler with tobacco, was seen hovering off Kilkee on Wednesday. The Revenue cruisers on the coast are in quest of her.

The Mayor held an Inquest at the County Infirmary, on the body of Thomas Mulcahy, who died in consequence of a wound inflicted by William Shin-ners, of Port Ryan, county Tipperary, on the 5th of July. It appeared that they were both smiths, working at the same bellows, when some trifling dispute occurred, which caused Shippers to fling a piece of red hot iron at Mulcahy, the effects of which caused his death on Monday. Verdict accordingly,

Several artisans from this city with their families, embarked for America, in the Governor which dropped down the river this morning.

We understand that a complete report of the Fishery case lately tried in this city, including the speeches of Counsel in full, and the various ancient documents read in evidence, is now in the Press, and will be published in a few days by Messrs. M'Kern, of George's-street. From the importance of this trial such a work must be read with interest, not only here but in every part of Ireland where the rights of fishery are a matter of dispute.

The criminal business at Tralee assizes, which have just terminated, was heavy in its nature, although the cases were not very numerous. There is now a great open at the criminal bar of this circuit. Some of the heaviest capital felonies there were ably and in every instance successfully defended by Counsellor Athill.
The acceptance of the offer of a silk gown by W. D.
Freeman, Esq. and his consequent withdrawal from criminal business, has afforded an opportunity to o-her Barristers of great ability (but whose talents were, from the acknowledged powers of Mr. Freeman as a crown lawyer, kept in obscurity,) at length to come forward and establish their reputation in the same field in which his own was so long unrivalled.

Counsellors Austen and Talbot, are retained for the Petition against the return of Mr. H. Watson, for Kinsale.

£350 is granted by the City Cork Grand Jury for the support of foundlings,

The county Cork Grand Jury will on Monday next appoint a Surgeon.

A deserted infant was left in a field at Newcastle, near this city, on Wednesday evening.

The Medical Gentry of the West County of Cork, meet at Cork on Wednesday next.
