

is appointed Presbyter-
-ion.

DS—TUESDAY.

(of last publication.) d in the opinions of the nd seconded the address, the speech delivered by which it was not at all d be at all disposed to d have been prepared to of late years had been scing in the whole of the any particular qualifica-on might deem fitting.
ather have pursued that the course he was about ertain portions of the Adeir Lordships an amendd—My Lords, the nature umstances under which it which it was supported, ear and distinct spirit—were stated, are such as ake it necessary for me, importance, to trouble your ervations on the subject, that question, with which and that is the question of thwithstanding the statements ade—notwithstanding the luctuations of the prices in but feel certain that the uld conduce to the steady-ers.) It is perfectly self-hat effect. I know there le, that it will change and will be a great variation in produce a great steadiness lar and equal current of me to doubt. I certainly asions, for putting off the of this question, which I n, must be attended with the Noble Lord has des-y that the discussion must

GTON said, it was natural o moved the amendment, rdships the grounds upon se grounds were, in the f the finances of the country es, and carrying on the war nt, when no provision them by Parliament.— nd had stated what was l of coming forward to Par-

Croom, in this County.
In Tralee, Mr. John Murphy, to Miss Anne Walsh.
In St. Mary's Church, Donnybrook, William Henry St. Leger, Esq. son of the late Hon. Colonel St. Leger, to Emily, daughter of Luke Davis, Esq. of Cullenswood.
At Llandysilis Church, Anglesey, George Crawford Feath, Esq.
Solicitor, son of Henry Keightley Feath, of Cork, Esq. to Isa-bella Jane, daughter of Henry Andrew Bates, Esq. Lieut. R.N.
Mr. Christopher John Reddy, of Ely-place, to Marsella, daughter of James Whelan, Esq. of Dublin.
Mr. Peter Gorman, Solicitor, to Miss Ellen Pratt, of Deerpark-house, county Meath.
At St. Peter's Church, Walworth, John Saxby, Esq. of the Priory, Peckham, to Sophia, only daughter of the late Richard Dixon, Esq. of High Holborn.
At Great Malvern, Edward Mitchell, Esq. of Goresgrove, in the county Kilkenny, to Elizabeth Anne, widow of the Rev. Joseph Carter, late Rector of Bainton, East Riding of Yorkshire.
At St. John's, New Brunswick, Lieut. George Howell, 2d West India Regt. to Maria, daughter of John Walker, Esq. Ordnance Store Keeper, Bahamas.
Eugene Colgan, Esq. Kilbeggan, to Rosanna, only daughter of Eugene Handibede, Esq. Ballyhast, county Westmeath.
In St. Mary's Church, Dudley Fletcher Murphy, of Francis-street, Esq. to Frances Jane, daughter of Wm. Morgan, Esq. of Mary-street.
At St. John's, Isle of Thanet, the Rev. Abraham Louis Martin, French Wesleyan Minister at Calais, to Laura, eldest daughter of the late Jeremiah Le Souef, jun. Esq. United States Vice Consul at London.
At Sherbourne Minster, the Rev. Arthur G. S. Shirley, Vicar of Stinsford, Dorset, and son of the late Evelyn Shirley, of Eat-ington Park, Warwick, Esq. to Georgina Emily, daughter of the Rev. Wm. Cookson.

DEATHS.

Yesterday, in Francis-street, George Smyth, Esq. late of Exeter, son of Alderman Philip Smyth.
In Clare-street, at an advanced age, Miss Jane Hogan.
At Kilrush, in his 48th year, Mr. John Keane. His strict integrity and obliging demeanour as a man of business, combined with many other valuable qualities of head and heart in the relation of social and private life, have rendered the demise of Mr. Keane, a source of deep regret to a large and respectable circle of friends and acquaintances.
At Moira, sincerely lamented, Helena, the beloved wife of the Rev. Dr. Waugh, Wesleyan Minister.
In Tralee, Mr. Thomas O'Leary and Mr. James Leggett.
John Downey, Esq. of Ballinakill, Queen's County.
In Harcourt-street, Francis Thompson, son of Barry Edward Lawless, Esq.
At Clongu, county Mayo, Anne, wife of Thomas Moore, Esq.
At Clifton Terrace, Monkstown, Elizabeth Sophia, youngest daughter of Michael Fox, Esq. of Stephen's-green.
In York-street, the infant son of John Coulter, Esq. M.D.
At Clontarf, Margaret Susanna, eldest daughter of the late Rev.
Charles Mulloy, formerly Rector of Clontarf.
At Plymouth, Capt. Hugh Nurse, R.N.
At Ramelton, Mr. Thomas Bond.
At Chelsea, Ann, relict of Isaac Harris Wrentmore, of Boverton, Glamorganshire.
At Vauxhall, Rachel, relict of the late Joseph Montefiore, Esq.
At Montreal, Quarter-master Humphrys, 7th Hussars.
At Montreal, Mr. John Smith, of Ronestrar, county Wicklow.
At Gardiner's-place, Dominick Tobias, son of the late Dominick Ronayne, Esq. of Ardsallagh, Youghal, and M.P. for Clonmel.
Mr. John Boyle, innkeeper, Derry.
At Cowton, Yorkshire, aged 88, Mr. Robert Newsom, for years an eminent cheesemonger and butter factor in London.
At Leamington, Lady MacLeod, wife of Major-General Sir Donald MacLeod, East India Company's Service.
On Sunday, at Guernsey, the Rev. Philip Hayes, many years a resident in that island.
At Dieppe, Barnard Topham Foord-Bowes, late Captain in the 95th Regiment.
At Richmond, Surrey, Mrs. Letitia Bradbury, aged 89.
At Fulham, Theodore E. Hook, Esq. the accomplished author.

Road, Ennis, together joining thereto.

Offers in writing will Manager of the Provin
who will give instructio

INDIC

Humphreys'

THE attention of th invited to this po dicine, which, during before the Public, has ed in modern discoveri dinary demand which that during the first fo plied to one house no and wherever a trial ful testimony has be efficacy

Mr. HUMPHREYS ha voluntary testimonial have received benefi limits of an Advertisem scribed to publish the with merely quoting th ed from some hundre

" TO MR. HUM

" SIR—For nearly afflicted with pains in symptoms of a disord tried various medicine benefit, until I was in valuable Camomile P two or three boxes, I

" So severe and fre several days in a wee to any business, but Pills, my health is increased, and the att well as less frequent.

" I think it a duty
this communication, as you think proper,
questions to the simil
" I am

" Melbourne-street
AGENT

Surgeon

Chemist in or MEDICAL HA
CORNER

Please to address a NESSY, Chemist to George-street.