obstructed in the attempt to exercise which the law had invested them. observed, in calling them a mob, for ociates of a chimney sweeper, (for he t the prisoner was of that trade) com- terprise in which the prisoner, if he r appeared to have been a most active ved no other appellation. The free- itimate electors of the county, could are in such an outrage. From the low- lder to the wealthiest £50 voter each in preventing, not promoting the success ence with their rights. If such interfe- ated, it would be useless for the legis- cribe the conditions or the terms on ts of voters at elections were to be e mob would become the constituency, entation would be no longer in the electors of the county. Furious as its general circumstances, it appeared cter that distinguished it from all other of which he had heard or read. In all the person of the candidate seemed to ected. In this county, Mr. Vandeleur, it was known that his time and his ent and employed in improving the tenantry, who was a liberal contri- project that had for its object the ment of those who surrounded him in ural conduct, was himself the object of victim of violence. Another remarka- he case was, that this riot was perpe- re were in the town magistrates, paid wo companies of foot, and half troop of one hundred police, and in the most fare in this principal town of the e only person who was made amenable this chimney-sweeper, out of several hom Mr. Keane stated the riot had at such a person as Mr. Vandeleur en made the object and the victim of e, was to be lamented, but there was circumstance in the case—no voice behalf of the prisoner, no word was favour, no one seemed to sympathize s afforded some proof that the riot was angers, who volunteered the service s engaged. The Barrister then said it y to pronounce sentence on the priso- magistrates who were present declined d left the punishment to his judgment. he should pronounce was that the be imprisoned for twelve months, the hard labour.

sting to Sportsmen "came off" at the r Sessions of Ennis. The County Clare e 200 gs. and open to challenge by Clare ace the year 1794, after passing into seve- on by Capt. Mansergh in 1832, and twice 1834 and '36. On the latter occasion the e Mr. Charles Studdert, of Newmarket . D'Arcy, since deceased. Mr. Man- ared the winner, but the race was dis- Studdert on the grounds that Mr. Man- von under the proper article, but under pecially by Mr. M. for his own advan- sequence detainers were lodged by all e stakes of 10 sovs. each. After much iation Mr. Mansergh sued the stake- irk, of Ennis, and after the examina- witnesses on both sides, succeeded in e, from which it is understood it is Mr. ention to appeal. The Cup, an article sign and workmanship, is now in the Ir. Studdert.

ancellor has appointed Nicholas Bid- Conger House, a Magistrate of the ary.

Grubb, of Clonmel, a member of the nds, permitted his carriage and horses uction at Clonmel on Wednesday for ge.

illery has been sold to the District e purpose of pulling down, for the sum d pounds.

s appointed Local Crown Solicitor of m of Mr. Burgess, displaced.

yle, arrested at Clonoulty, and lodged n, is now in Tipperary bridewell.

ew carriage has just been launched at yard, Kilkenny, for the Countess Londonderry at his agricultural show , stated that he would be happy that was married and settled among the he county Down.

Freshmen in Science, Junior Freshmen in Classics; Friday, Nov. 5th, Senior Freshmen in Classics, Junior Freshmen in Science, Catechetical examinations for Senior Freshmen on Saturday, Oct. 30th; for Junior Freshmen, on Wednesday, Nov. 3d. Supplemetalists for examinations omitted in the Senior Freshman Year, are to appear in the Hall on the day appointed for the general examination of the Senior Freshman Class. The Examinations for entrance in November will be held on Monday, the 8th,

Mr. Finch White, son of Benjamin F. White, Esq. of Rathcahill, Shinrone, obtained the Hebrew Premium awarded after the Entrance Examination at Trinity College this month.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

"Nemo loquatur nisi prius cogitet se loqui, debere vere et prudenter."—CICERO DE OFFICIIS.

DEAR SIR—I did the other day, speak publicly, and vehemently, of the unpopular-forbidding and exclusive system pursued by the directors of the Limerick Musical Academy. I afterwards had a conversation with the principal of the Academy, and would have taken no further notice of the matter, had it not been for a communication sent to your office by one of these directors, in which he states, that I did attack the Musical Academy in no measured terms, because the pupils did not attend the late Temperance Banquet. What he states is true; indeed, I did attack the Academy, and chiefly for the reason assigned. Was I right in doing so?—that is the question. I maintain I was. The directors themselves declare their willingness to give the services of the musical band for occasions of public charity, or legitimate amusement, whilst they say they are resolved to refuse on any occasion of a party or political nature. The question now comes to this:—Do they mean to tell the Citizens of Limerick that Father Mathew is a politician, or that the temperance movement contains any thing of a party or political character? This, or something of the kind, they manifestly must mean, otherwise there remained no grounds for their refusal. Therefore, fairly assuming the fact that this they did mean, and no mistake, they stand convicted of malevolence and slander, by the living evidence of five millions of their fellow-countrymen, and that of their honest and enlightened fellow-citizens of every denomination. One of these gentlemen told me within the last two days—what think you did he tell me—that they lost a large number of subscribers—for what reason, because they gave the services of their band for an occasion of public charity to the Sisters of Mercy. Now, Sir, I ask, what opinion must be formed of an Academy so constituted? I say that it is the Academy of a party, for the very best reason, because it is against all parties. Away with an Academy under the arrogant domination of any party. Put half the subscriptions in proper hands, and you will have music at your command at any hour, and in any place you like. Indeed, I am told that the band exhibits at Pery-square; yes, for the aristocracy—the right sort. They play also at the Northumberland Rooms; but who are admitted?—subscribers only. These gentlemen, indeed very inconveniently for their purpose, quote a learned writer, Dr. Taylor, in their report, "We have in this country (says the Doctor) somewhat about two millions of societies for the improvement of the lower orders. We have not one single institution for promoting the recreations and increasing the innocent pleasures of the poor, though such a one is sadly wanted, and would do more to promote mutual good feeling between the extremes of society, than all the rest put together." These words require no comment. I leave to the public to judge how unfairly the Academy puts forward this noble sentiment of Dr. Taylor, in its report, and how miserably it is carried into effect. Influenced by these reasons, and in a great measure because the Academy band did not attend the late Citizens' banquet, I did blame them, and do still blame them, and shall ever protest against the Academy, as long as it is conducted in this way.

I remain, dear Sir, your's, sincerely,
JOHN B. NOLAN, St. Mary's.

Sir Harry's Mall, Oct. 22.

N. B.—Facts, undeniable facts, on last evening, the Amateur Band attended a private party given at George's-street, under the patronage and with the sanction of the Directors of the Academy. About six weeks since the same band attended the exhibition of an itinerant piper named Hanigan, but they did not, and they dared not attend the banquet given to the Rev. Mr. Mathew!!

Oct. 23. J. B. NOLAN, St. Mary.

The Marquis Lansdown, and Lieut.-Col. Vandeleur, 10th Hussars, yesterday became annual subscribers to the Limerick Musical Academy.

Ireland, has had lately an attack of apoplexy, but is now considerably better.

Sixty-nine criminal cases were for trial at Galway Sessions, before the Chairman, Mr. Freeman.

At Galway petty sessions on Saturday, James Cosgriff, of Ardfry, was fined 40s. for a fraud in corn.

The four men detected blackened, and armed, in the burglary of O'Neil's house, near Cappawhite, are sent to Clonmel gaol, fully committed for trial at the ensuing assizes. Their names are Croagh, Ryan, Develyn, and Bunbury. All the robberies and depredations committed in that part of the country are charged on them.

BIRTHS.

At Ballyknockane, in this County, on Thursday last, the Lady of William Scanlan, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, of a son.

On Wednesday evening, in Thomas-street, the Lady of Mark T. O'Shaughnessy, Esq. of a daughter.

On Tuesday, at Firview Cottage, Kenmare, the Lady of George M. Maybury, Esq. M.D. of a daughter.

At Caherina, the Lady of Maurice Quill, Esq. of a son.

At Altavilla, Cove, the Lady of H. D. Scott, Esq. M. D. of a daughter.

At Arbutus Lodge, the Lady of Mr. Mark Collins, of a son.

At Belmullet, the Lady of the Rev. Samuel Stock, A. M. of a daughter.

At Fitzwilliam-square, the Lady of William N. Barry, Esq. of a daughter.

At Portarlington, the Lady of the Rev. Richard Clarke, of a son.

At Armoy Glebe, county Antrim, the Lady of the Hon. and Rev. W. S. Blackwood, of a son.

At Lower Sackville-street, the Lady of Edward S. Smith, Esq. of a son.

At Shillinglee Park, Sussex, the Countess of Winterton, of a daughter.

Mrs. Notter, West-square, of a daughter.

At Chester-terrace, Regent's-park, the Lady of Robert Lloyd, Esq. of a son.

At Hull, the Lady of Major Magenis, 97th Irish Fusiliers, of a son.

At Duffus House, Morayshire, the Lady of A. Dunbar, Esq. eldest son of Sir Archibald Dunbar, Bart. Northfield, of a son.

The Lady of Capt. Grey, Governor of Australia, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

On Tuesday, the 19th inst. at Tralee Church, by the Rev. Anthony Denny, Norcott D'Esterre Roberts, Esq. of Passage West, county Cork, to Cherry Herbert, youngest daughter of Col. Torrens.

At her father's residence, South Mall, Cork, the Rev. Alexander King, Minister of the Independent Church assembling at George-street Chapel, to Catherine, only child of Joseph MacMullen, Esq.

Michael Christopher, Esq of Dungarvan, to Maria, daughter of Captain Tallon, R.N.

Richard Peard, Esq. of Middleton, to Louisa, daughter of Mr. James Johnston, of Mallow.

Matthew Browne, of Dublin, Esq. to Margarette, daughter of the late Matthew Delany, of the county Cork, Esq.

Captain John Mayne, of the 1st or Royal Regiment, to Lucy, youngest daughter of the late J. Ives, Esq. St. Catherine's-hill, Norwich.

At Elgin, George Leslie, Esq. to Barbara, daughter of the late Major-General William Stewart, C.B.

At Sandwich, Upper Canada, the Rev. Alexanyer Pyne, T. C. Dublin, to Emma Amelia, youngest daughter of John Sparke, Esq. late of the Royal Sappers and Miners.

At Edinburgh, on the 18th inst. by the Rev. James Julius Wood, Thomas Macmillan Hope, Rector of the Grammar School, Kirkcudbright, to Jane, eldest daughter of Mr. Richard Douglas.

J. Lindsay Travers, Esq. of Clapham-park, Surrey, to Eliza, daughter of George Wansey, Esq. of Warminster.

S. H. T. Hayne, Esq. eldest son of Jonathan Hayne, Esq. of Park-hill, Croydon, to Mary Anne, eldest daughter of George Johnston, Esq. late of Carnarvon, and Camden-place, Bath.

In Manchester, Mr. James England, of T. C. Dublin, to Charlotte, daughter of the late Rev. James Liley, of Fairfield.

At Chilton Foliat, Wilts, Robert Miller Mundy, Esq. Royal Horse Artillery, to Isabella Leyborne, youngest daughter of Gen. Popham, of Littlecott.

At Nusseerabad, East Indies, on the 12th August, the Rev. H. Pratt, A. M. Chaplain Hon. East India Company's Service, to Elizabeth, sixth daughter of Brigadier Kennedy, C.B. commanding the Rajpootsna Field Force.

DEATHS.

At her father's house, near Kilrush, Miss A. O'Donnell, third daughter of Richard O'Donnell, of Ballyket, Esq. The premature death of this interesting young woman, in her 22d year, is a source of deep affliction to her numerous relatives and friends.

On the 20th inst. aged nine months, William, second son of William Sullivan, of Tullilease House, county Cork, Esq.

At the house of her father, Mr. John Shine, Bandon, Mary, wife of Mr. William Scott, of Cork.

At an advanced age, Miss Hester Kelly, eldest sister of the late John Kelly, Esq. formerly of the Treasury, and wine-merchant in Dublin.

In King-street, Waterford, Mr. Joseph P. Leary, corn and flour merchant.

Near Antrim, R. O'Brien, Esq. R.N. belonging to her Majesty's ship Belleisle. His death is supposed to have been brought on by over exertion in walking to Antrim on the severe night of Sunday.

Anthony Morgan, of Henry-street, Dublin, Esq. and brother of the late Alderman Morgan.

In Cork, Miss Mahony.

At Fort Johnston, county Monaghan, Thomas Johnston, Esq.

At Mountmellick, Anna Christina, wife of John Brereton, Esq.

At Glasgow, Efiza, daughter of the late John Wilson, Esq.

Benjamin Greig, Esq.

In Glocester-place, aged 54, Caroline, wife of Thomas Hume, Esq. M.D. of Brent-end, Hanwell.

At Hammersmith, in her 84th year, Ann, relict of Wm. Holmer, Esq. late of Southwark.

At the School-house, Oswestry, Mary Hannah, wife of the Rev. Stephen Donne.

Mr. J. Thomas, Head Police Officer at Manchester.

In Cecil-street, Strand, Lieut. Henry Gaitskell, R.N.

Eliza, relict of Colonel Giddes, 83d Regt.

At Quebec, Mr. James Jones.

Mr. William Mickiejohn.