

The Royal Artillery, 7th Hussars, 74th Regiments, all under the command of Col. h. Kingstown, the 'Richard Webb,' barque Hughlen, to embark male convicts; rs, R. N. in charge. Lieut. Mears, and of the 93rd Regt. are on board. and the officers 24th, Col. Senior rs 65th, patronise the Royal Circus at oost every evening, and send their own rechestra. Regiment will proceed to China from has transmitted to Col. Hodges, our -citizen, late Consul-General at Alex- re of honour, studded with diamonds." e, 47th, has arrived from Barbadoes. ascar, 48, Captain Foote, and the 3, Lieut. James, are hourly expected at men for general service. hard Edwards, of the Plymouth division s, has been promoted to be Lieutenant- Sir F. G. Lee, deceased. First Lieuten- ad, has been promoted to be Captain, to the Plymouth division.

Police stationed at Athlone, under Lieut. Packe, when returning on Tues- the Seven Churches in the King's Co. Cutter had a very narrow escape of being seen overtaken by a tremendous squall, the boat violently against one of the in the river, when sailing at the rate of n hour. Had she been struck at either stead of the middle, she must have im- te to pieces, and all would have inevita- so high were the waves. By the mercy e, however, she escaped, her side being stove in.

O'Ferrall, Esq. M.P. late secretary to the icality, has forwarded a subscription of arlow indemnity fund. Cosby, Esq. is appointed Deputy Lieut. 's County. oker, Esq. Stipendiary Magistrate in xchange stations with L. C. Smyth, Esq.

Toole, a farmer, was killed on Friday glass, by the wheel of the caravan from g over his head. id three sons of the name of Hackett, at g's County, all died suddenly within the drunkenness.

y night, a little girl four years old, the a man named Thomas Kelly, near Bar- g, was burned to death, through the e parents, who left the little creature- child in the house, where a fire was e they went out to dig potatoes. Alder- old an inquest on the remains. Verdict— eath.

othecaries Hall v. R. Copley, for illegally s apothecary without a diploma, and down for trial at Cork assizes, when the withdrawn by Plaintiffs, the court of ch this week, granted liberty to enter up s in case of non suit. ces commence on Wednesday next, when e cup of £50 will be contested, and for orses are entered.

MacMahon's hounds of Firgrove, will following places for the present month: — Knockanira; 12th, Newmarket; 15th, 18th, Carrigoran, 22d, Carnelly; 25th, 30th, Toureen.

y Galway Hunt met yesterday at Rox- ey meet on Tuesday at Moyne.

arterly meeting of the iron masters of id Derbyshire, held in Sheffield on Wed- following prices were fixed for pig iron: 2s. 6d.; No. 2, £4 7s. 6d.; No. 3, £4 2s. eekly Cattle Market, yesterday, Beef sold wt., and Mutton 5d per lb. Amongst re—Mrs. Healy 1 Heifer, at £11 5s.; n 2, at £9 2s. 6d. each; Mr. James Frost : Mr. Bourke 1, at £10 5s. Several t Cows were sold at £6 10s. to £7 10s. urther of the Protestant Orphan Society acknowledges the receipt of £1 from Col. I. Assistant Adjutant-General, for that on Warburton thankfully acknowledges the the Rev. J. H. Bouchier, of one pound O'Brien, Esq. M.P., his subscription to f the Rathkeale Parochial Free School. G. Massy gratefully acknowledges to have the Protestant Orphan Society, a dona- from Hon. J. Massy; £1 2s. from Wm. Esq.; and £1 from Wm. Lee, Esq.

missioners last year £70), a property which the Grand Canal Company complain of being wrested from them, and an award of £5 only made by Government.

The High Sheriff and electors of Fermanagh held a county meeting yesterday to address the Lord Lieutenant; and Mayo sends another congratulatory address.

Two sons of Baron Foster have sailed for New South Wales, to settle in that colony.

An account of the alleged "outrage" on the mail coach, &c. at Cahir, will be seen in first page. It proves how truth may be distorted for malignant purposes.

The Bank note circulation of Ireland increased £438,317 in the month ending 16th October last.

The sixth annual meeting of the shareholders of the Clonmel National Bank of Ireland was held on Thursday. Mr. Bianconi was unanimously re-elected Director, and the report favorably received.

The Dublin Steam Packet Company has declared a dividend of three per cent., for the last half-year.

The sale of Butter in the Glin market from the 15th May to the 1st inst. was so large as 8452 firkins, producing the sum of £21,328 5s. This handsome and populous town, so conveniently situated on the river, is daily raising in importance, and its central position renders it a most desirable outlet for the exportation of butter and corn, were but a pier erected on a spot adjacent, which Nature has peculiarly fitted for the purpose, and where the spirited proprietor of the soil, the Knight of Glin, is willing to expend a liberal sum in the event of the Board of Works meeting the wishes of the Town in a like feeling.

BUTLER.

WILL be disengaged in a few days, as BUTLER, a steady, sober, active man. Apply at the CHRONICLE Office, if by letter pre- paid.

November 6.

Corn Store and Kiln To be Let.

AT Reduced Prices, and immediate possession A given, the CORN STORE, occupied by the late JAMES FERGUSON, Esq. To be sold at First Cost. Oats, Sulphur, Bagging, &c., also part of a Handsome Dwelling House, to suit a small family, comfortably furnished.

Apply at No. 42, Henry-street; or at WILLIAM HENRY HALL'S, Esq. Francis-street.

November 6.

Fire Without Smoke.

A SMALL CARGO of Prime Anthracite COAL, is now being landed by JOHN ABELL, Warranted free from SMOKE, SULPHUR, or CLINKER, and particularly suitable for KITCHEN RANGES, HOT HEARTHES, ARNOLD'S, and all other STOVES, HOT-HOUSES, CONSERVATORIES, &c. &c. as the Flues cannot be stopped by soot; it also produces great heat, and is very durable.

J. A'S Ware-rooms are well stocked with ARNOLD'S Economical Kitchen Ranges; Improved Belgian Cooking Stoves; Open Fire Ranges, with Ovens and Boilers, for large and small Families; Bright Steel; Bronzed and Black Polished Registers, and Hob Grates; ARNOLD'S ALMSTED YESPASIAN HOT AIR Stoves, of various sizes; WARRANTED Cutlery; London Plate; Looking Glasses; Solid British Plate; Spoons; Forks and Ladles, Bronzed and Steel Fenders and Fire Irons, in great variety; with Brushes, Whips, Bridles, Rugs, Sponges, and Chamois, and a large Stock of House Furnishing Hardware and Ironmongery; Cast Metal Eave Shutes and Pipes.

IMPROVED ANTI-CORROSION PAINT OF ALL COLOURS.

Of the durability of this Paint, it may not be necessary to say more than that the Proprietors of the Iron Bridge at Southwark, who had it Painted with the Anti-Corrosion Paint, Ten Years since, have not thought it necessary to repeat the Coat.

London's Encyclopedia of Architecture, in page 265, says, "The Anti-Corrosion Paint lasts so long, when applied to Iron, well seasoned Timber, or Masonry, as seldom to require renewal during a man's life time." He is also supplied with CROWLEY'S CHEAP RAISED ZINC LETTERS, For Shop Fronts, &c. which are not liable to be corroded, as the weather does not injure them. Invisible Strained Wire Paling, Hare and Rabbit Fence for Flower Gardens.

Smith's Portable HOT AIR BATHS, which can be administered to an Invalid whilst lying in bed! Old Established Hardware House, 5, RUTLAND-STREET.

11th Month 6th, 1841.

In Ennis, the Lady of M. Talbot, Esq. of a daughter. On the 2d inst. at Eyrecourt Castle, the seat of her father, the Lady of Captain Russell, 97th Regt. of a son. At Ballincollig Barracks, Cork, the Lady of Lieut. H. Murray, R.A. of a daughter. In Leeson-street, the Lady of J. M. La Barte, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, of a daughter. At Liscomick House, county Longford, the Lady of Robert Thomas B. Hearn, Esq. of a daughter. At Annfield, near Donnybrook, the Lady of R. Perceval Maxwell, Esq. of a son. At Sidney Lodge, Booterstown Avenue, the Lady of Samuel Gerrard, Esq. of a son. At Sea View, Tramore, the Lady of Richard Duckett, Esq. of a daughter. At Edinburgh, the Lady of Sir Norman Macdonald Leckham, Bart. of a daughter. At Escot, Devonshire, the Lady of Sir John Kennerly, Bart. of a daughter. In Portland-street, the Lady of Lieut.-Col. Charles Bowen, of a son. At Crosswood, Cardiganshire, the Countess of Lisburne, of a son. In Upper Belgrave-street, the Lady of Mr. Serjeant Thompson, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

On Tuesday, at the Cathedral, Cashel, by the Rev. Thom Newingham, the Rev. John Hare, Rector and Prebendary of Turlycorbet, Clogher, eldest son of John Hare, of Fitzwilliam-street, and of Deerpark, Esq. to Mary, eldest daughter of Matthew Pennefather, of Newpark, Esq. After the ceremony upwards of seventy persons partook of an elegant dejeuner at the hospitable mansion of the bride's father. On Thursday, at her father's house, Charleville, by the Rev. T. Croke, Helena Maria, daughter of D. Clancy, Esq. to Edward J. Sheehy, Esq. of Ballintubber House, in this County. At Smeem Church, Robert A. Thompson, Esq. of Tralee, to Christine Frances, daughter of the late Francis C. Bland, Esq. of Dunquin Castle, Kerry. John Kenny, Esq. Listowel, to Catherine, second daughter of James O'Hallaran, of Coolnaleen House, Esq. At Holly Park, county Galway, Francis James Lynch, Esq. M.D. of Loughrea, to Harriet Mary, daughter of the late Pierce Blake, Esq. of Holly Park. In St. Andrew's Church, Mr. Thomas Reilly, jun. Printer, to Miss Walcott, of Dunleary. At Rockmills, Mr. James Crody, to Miss Biddy Landers, daughter of Mr. Michael Landers, of Castlebar. At Piercestown, Dr. Andrew Furlong, Kilmore, to Eliza, only daughter of Mr. James Clifford, Urinah Lodge, county Wexford. At Stranorlar Church, John Joyce, Esq. of Beechmount, county Tyrone, to Eliza Anne, only daughter of the late Alex. Wallen, Esq. of Drumboe Abbey, Donegal. At Acton Bunnell Hall, Shropshire, Arthur James Netterville, Esq. of Crenceath, county Meath, to Constantia Frances, daughter of Sir Edward Smythe, Bart. At St. George's Church, Viscount Campden, eldest son of the Earl of Gainsborough, to Lady Ida Hay, daughter of the Earl of Errol. Major-General Frederick, C.B. to Mary, eldest daughter of the Rev. Edward St. John, of Ashe Park, county of Hants. At Christ Church, St. Marylebone, William Frederic Simon, of Carlisle, Esq. to Margaret, daughter of Samuel Tarrant, Esq. of Portland-terrace, Regent's Park. At Frankfort-on-the-Maine, Justinian Alston, jun. of Odell Castle, Bedford, Esq. to Anna, daughter of A. H. Mercer, Esq. At Edinburgh, Thomas Stuart, Esq. merchant, Honduras, to Isabella Balfour M'Kenzie, daughter of George M'Kenzie Ross, Esq. of Aldie, Ross-shire.

DEATHS.

On the 31st ult. at Glasgow, sincerely regretted, Frances Cockburn, wife of Major Gervase Power, 10th Regt. and eldest daughter of Rear-Admiral Ross. At Croom, of scarletina, aged ten years, Bessie, daughter of James D. Lyons, Esq. In Cork, Mary, daughter of the late George Reade, Esq. At Arthur's-quay, Mrs. Mary Mullock, mother of the Rev. Mr. Mullock, O.S.F. At the house of his uncle, the Recorder of Cork, Francis MacGillycuddy, Esq. eldest son of MacGillycuddy of the Heeks. Eliza, wife of Mr. John Johnson, Butter Merchant, George's-street, Cork. At the residence of her son, the Rev. James Barry, P. P. East Skull, Mrs. Margaret Barry. Mary, relict of James Atkinson, Esq. of Rathangan, county Kildare. At Broomfield Cottage, Malahide, John Campbell, Esq. In Peter-street, Dublin, Charles Haswell Townley, Esq. R. N. in command of H.M. ship Merlin. At Dundalk, Maria, daughter of Paul Parks, Esq. At Ennisceorthy, aged 14 years, Mary, daughter of P. O'Rourke, Esq. M.D. of that town. Mary, wife of Professor Sewell, of the Royal Veterinary College. At Dundee, Jane, wife of William Stewart, Esq. and sister of Thomas Clouston, Esq. of Dublin. In Castlebar, Mr. Michael Morris, Mail Coach agent. In Abbott's Hotel, William Egan, Esq. M.D. of Cahir, county Tipperary. Mary, wife of Charles Quin, Esq. of Moneyhew, Moneymore, county Derry. At Longford, Colonel-Sergeant Ferguson, 52d Regt. He was a native of Ennis, Mayo, and formerly served in the 88th Regt. At Baxterley Hall, near Atherstone, Louisa, Countess of Kintore, wife of B. North Arnold, Esq. M.D. Captain Henry P. Courtney, late 10th Royal Veteran Battalion. Mr. Robert Wardour Guy, of the Dolphin Hotel, Southampton. At Rothsay, Bute, on the 17th ult. in sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life, Dora Scott Hill, the beloved wife of the Rev. William Hill, Incumbent of Trinity Church, Leicester. At Kensington, Mrs. Enoch, relict of Lieut. Enoch, R. N. Asher Jones, Esq. in his 95th year, late weigner and teller to Her Majesty's Mint. At Manier-lodge, Kennington, Ann, relict of the late Rev. Martin Ready, of Peckham. Eliza Mary, youngest daughter of the Rev. F. Vincent, Pastor of the French Protestant Episcopal Chapel, Southampton, having just entered upon her 18th year. In Liverpool, John Chapman Ives, Esq. At Peterborough, in her 93d year, Ann, relict of John Bailey, Esq. of Thorney Abbey, Cambridgeshire. At Bath, Rear-Admiral J. W. Holland, aged 76. Jane, widow of the late Major Thomas O'Neil, of the 9th Foot, and Assistant Quartermaster-General. William Rankin, Esq. of Seafield, Dunoon. At Barbadoes, R. H. Chase, Esq. Ordnance Store-keeper. At Dominica, of fever, the Rev. John Cameron, Wesleyan Minister. At Barbadoes, Jane, wife of Samuel B. Pitt, Esq.

of which Cecil Street 1841. Office. PR THE very sup of Wexford ment 160 89-94 Pons, built at tion, of the best 10th of August Length Aloft Depth, 11 Feet Iron fasten years, sails fast cargo at a light stores of every for either foreign to sea without an Apply on Board LOCK & SONS, H. MILLRUS THE Contra ready on 1841, to agree Thousand Tons of Particulars ma FAVIELL. Educ WOODSIDE R. CHARL Esq. for, Se them under their morals and tion necessary and the Learn He devotes his intention and object, without any others, and special depart beautiful and he Prospectuses may be obtained as above; or Upper Sackville R 71st Regt Application Mess Commit Summ AS Proposals i LEVERS WILLS County of Limerick c. 8. of the Jus Hour of One the 8th day 'revising the' of which all notice.—Dat