DEATHS.

On Tuesday morning, of the effects of scarletina, at the age of 19, Denys Lyons, eldest son of James D. Lyons, Esq. of Croom House. The superior talents and acquirements of this interesting youth, combined with great sweetness and gentleness of disposition, gained him the affectionate esteem of his fellow students, and of all the masters of Prior-park College, where for several years he bore away the highest honors of his class. During his short and mournful illness, his strong but humble confidence in his Redeemer's mercy, and perfect resignation to the Divine will, contributed greatly to sooth his afflicted parents, to whom the qualities of his heart endeared him beyond the power of words to express.

At Corbally, County Clare, Millicent, the infant daughter of Henry Spaight, Esq.

At his residence, Ballinahina, in the 90th year of his age, the Rev. Dr. Barry, P. P. of Fermoy for more than 60 years.

At Midleton, Mary, wife of Mr. George Balmer.

In Dingle, at an advanced age, Mr. Denis Dunlevy, superannuated chief mate of the late Mason Revenue Cruiser, very deservedly regretted.

At Tyrrelspass, John Hornidge, Esq.

At Parsonstown, Anne, eldest daughter of the late Doctor Wilkinson.

Mrs. Catherine M'Auley, of the House of Mercy, Dublin. This pious woman established the House of Mercy in Baggot-street, and fourteen similar establishments, namely, Kingstown, Booters-town, Tullamore, Carlow, Naas, Galway, Limerick, Wexford, Charleville, Cork, Parsonstown, Bermondsey, Liverpool, and Birmingham.

In Mullingar, of apoplexy, Mr. Thomas Nugent.

John, eldest son of Keith Hallows, Esq.

Pierce Butler, son of Edward Gillman Nagle, Esq. of Dunmanway.

At Walterland, Stillorgan, Jane, relict of the late Captain Rance-ford Tookey, of Brixton Hill, Surry, R.N.

At Edinburgh, Dr. Thomas Hogg, late Assistant-Surgeon of the 41st Regt.

At Loughton, Essex, Charles Lane, Esq. aged 81.

Suddenly, in Dorset-square, Major Archibold Oliver, of Lin-talee, Roxburghshire.

At Glasgow, Mrs. Mary M'Kellar, relict of the late Major Brodie, Pole, Argyleshire.

At Camberwell, the Rev. Henry Geary, M.A. minister of Christ Church, Herne Bay.

At Leamington, Capt. Garth, R.N.

At Greenock, Miss Isabella Currie.

At Edinburgh, Mr. Walter More, of the Royal Bank,

Saturday, at an advanced age, George Ivie, Esq. Lady-lane, Waterford.

At Torquay, Devonshire, Mary Anne Sarah, wife of David Ross, of Bladensburgh, Rostrevor, county Down.

At Kingstown, Margaret, wife of Joseph Barnwall, of Bloomsbury, county Meath, Esq.

Last evening, at his house in Patrick-street, after a tedious illness, which he endured with the fortitude of a man, and the calm resignation of a true Christian, Mr. John Walton, Saddler and Harness-maker. The character of this respectable citizen stood high in general estimation, for his integrity was pure and sterling, as his friendship was lasting and sincere. His loss is deservedly regretted by relatives and friends.

At Evergreen, Cork, Mrs. Catherine Begley.

At Iron Bridge, county of Salop, Daniel Sherwin, Esq. the celebrated Dentist.

On the 8th inst. in Henrietta-street, Cavendish-square, London, Peter Burrowes, Esq. of Leeson-street, Dublin, aged 90.

In Camden-street, of scarletina, Frances, wife of Surgeon
 Michael Daniell, of Caher, and daughter of George Hatchell, Esq.
 Ladford Park, Dundrum.
