

Judgment withheld.

Darboon v. Prosser, a case of breach of marriage by a young lady against an old man, eighty, after occupying the Queen's Bench three days, terminated in a verdict of damages.

Valley of the undermentioned counties (not in the foregoing list) has been offered as follows:—Carlow, to Robert Latouche, Esq.; Fermanagh, to Robert Loftus; Kerry, A. L. Saunders, Esq.; Wick, to the Marquis of Kildare; Monaghan, Sir T. Bart. and subsequently, J. B. Kernan, Esq. A novel match between officers of the 1st and 2nd Regiments of Foot, for 30 sovs. came off in the neighbourhood of Clonmel. Capt. Peacock, 46th, backed a mile across a stiff country on foot, against his brother officers, Ensigns Campbell and O'Connell, on horseback. At two o'clock the three came to the post, all in good condition. At the start, Mr. Campbell riding Capt. Peacock's pony, and Mr. Garrett his famous pony, when the word was given they went off at a gallop, all well together to the first fence, at which they all baulked, the gallant Captain going over on his side like "a trump," and leaving the two looking rather blue at the wrong side. A good deal of perseverance and persuasion was used, but, alas! too late, as the Captain was ahead and kept the advantage he had gained like "a good un" in a canter.

The ship, Mary Bannatyne, the property of Mr. Bannatyne, Esq. of this city, has arrived in a cargo of Bengal sugars from Calcutta. The Saxon, from Cork, with emigrants, arrived on the 16th July; and the Eleanor, from Sydney, with emigrants, the 22d August.

The proprietor of the Castlebar Telegraph has been sued with a bill of costs for £240, in a libel case, in which a verdict was awarded 6d. damages and 6d. costs. The same person paid £328 costs in another libel, by the Rt. Rev. Dr. O'Finan, under a bill for £500 damages, the libel having been published by one of his own Priests, on learning which the Prelate remitted all the damages.

FORT-ETNA.

HOUSE, OFFICES, GARDENS and PADDOCK, as now held by JOHN WESTROPP, Esq. Let from the 25th MARCH next, for such term may be agreed upon, with or without the condition of raising about 20 Acres, Plantation measure, of Potatoes to be Sold at FORT-ETNA. EIGHTY-EIGHT PLANTATION ACRES, and immediate Possession can be given. The lands are divided into two Farms—one containing 27 Acres Tillage and Pasture, the other 27 Acres Wheat Soil, 23 Pasture) situate near the LE Bridge.

PART OF THE LANDS

OF CLOCLOKA,

Applications will be received by DAVID FITZ-GERALD, of the England Insurance Office, 109, George-street, Limerick, Dec. 15.

At St. George's Bloomsbury, the Rev. J. Maude, of Newport, Isle of White, to Mary Fowler, daughter of G. H. Hooper, Esq.

DEATHS.

On Saturday last, at his house, Lapps Island, in the 81st year of his age, Lieut.-Colonel Arthur Gibbings, late of the Hon. East India Company's Madras Army, in which he served for a period of 24 years. It has seldom fallen to our lot to record the decease of an individual more universally respected and beloved. His life was throughout that of a sincere Christian, and he died in the full assurance of everlasting peace.

In Sexton-street, Mr. Michael Grace.
On the 8th inst. at Bold-street, Liverpool, aged 62, Mrs. Mary Dodd, widow of the late Mr. James Dodd, of this City.

At Rock-house, Cork, the seat of Edward Gillman, Esq. Mary, relict of the late William A. Kellett, Esq.

In Tralee, Miss Christina Mulchinock.
At Barbersfort, Mrs. Jennings.

In the 74th year of his age, John Richardson, Esq. of Rossfad, formerly Major in the Tyrone Regiment of Militia.

Aged 73, Robert Macintosh, Esq. of Dublin.
At Ballinasloe, at the advanced age of 92, Mrs. Martin, relict of the late J. Martin, Esq. Sligo, and mother of the Rev. Henry Martin, Rector of Aughrim.

At Auglora, county Mayo, Eleanor, relict of the late Matthew O'Regan, Esq.

In Dublin, Mrs. Sarah Gatchell, relict of the late Jonathan Gatchell, Esq.

James, son of the Rev. James G. Murphy, of the Royal Belfast Institution.

Suddenly, Ebenezer, son of James Blair, Esq. of Clearstream. At Shreveport, North America, Raymond Savage, Esq. son of the late Rev. Henry Savage, of Glaslough, county Down.

In Buckingham-street, Henry Edmond Taaffe, Esq. At his residence in Upper Baker-street, Edward Johnson, Esq. Chief Clerk of the Private Bill-office, House of Commons.

In Great Brunswick-place, Frances Ada, only daughter of Mr. George MacCafferty, and grand-daughter of the late John Smith, Esq. the celebrated sculptor.

At Queen Charlotte-row, New-road, Captain Francis Newcome, R.N. C.B. aged 70.

At the Elms, Epsom, Thomas Whitmore, Esq. formerly Secretary to the Board of Customs.

At Cateaton-street, George Austin, Esq. one of the earliest members of the Commercial Travellers' Society.

At the house of the Linnæan Society, Soho-square, David Don, Esq. Professor of Botany, King's College, London.

In Berkeley-square, Sarah, widow of the late Thomas Johnson, Esq. of Bute Iron Works, Glamorgan.

John Sidney Taylor, Esq. barrister-at-law of the Middle Temple. In Gloucester-place, Portman-square, Margaret, widow of the late Charles Michell, Esq. of Forcet Hall, Yorkshire. aged 75.

At St. Hilary, near Cowbridge, Glamorganshire, Llewellyn Traherne, Esq. aged 76.

At Montrose-street, Glasgow, Robert Hunter, Esq.
At Woodside Crescent, John M'Nair, Esq.
Robert Crawford, Esq. formerly of Greenock.

At Castle Douglas, James Halliday, Esq. of Chapmanton, M.D.
At Portsea, Margaret, daughter of Major Whylock, R.M.
At Broadhurst, Gosport, Lieutenant H. Hopkins, R.N. (1809.)

At Secunderabad, Ensign S. Waller, 1st Madras European Regiment.

At the Cape of Good Hope, Ensign Bicknell, 75th Regt. Suddenly, at Rossacon, (the seat of her son, Daniel Leahy, Esq. J.P.) Mrs. Mary Leahy.

At his house, Devonshire-street, Cork, after a protracted illness, Mr. Thomas Molony, late of Limerick.

John, and Mary Anne, the beloved children of Mr. James M'Cowen, of Cork.

Bridget, daughter of Mr. Philip Judge, Cork-hill.
At Frescati, Harriett, daughter of William Moore, Esq. formerly of Marlborough-street.

At the advanced age of 90, Mary, relict of Ephraim Hewitt, of Ballylane, county Wexford, Esq.

At the Convent, Carmel House, Durham, the Rev. James Roby, in the 79th year of his age.

At St. Mary's, on the river Gambia, in Africa, Captain Peter Grantham, of Dublin.

At Wotton-court, Gloucestershire, Elizabeth, widow of the late G. C. Hopkinson, Esq. aged 99.

In Russell-place, Fitzroy-square, David Daniel Davies, M.D.
In Mecklenburgh-square, Edward Richard Comyn, Esq.
At Bangalore, W. E. Monteith, eldest son of Major-General W. Monteith, of the Madras Engineers.

Policy of original sum pressed. Were A to current would be. Were he to for that would be. Or if it w annual Bonus, to Or if he pr value of entitled Assurance BER are e THE CUR Edinbur LIMER Ireland. BELFAST Lane. LONDON chant

Lieut.-Col La Tou others, Plain Mathew C others, Defen

hour of O bers on o by Public several La of the 5th newal th Pleadings Several P by the n glasseen, laying an rick, cont the same the term Renewal, D

For pa tions of TOUCHE, Fitzwillia for the Dame-str the Rece