y on Tuesday, a silver medal was awarded to el Cuffe, for having saved the life of Ellen , while bathing at Miltown Malbay, last summer.

Rev. S. Monsell, son of the Archdeacon of , is appointed to the curacy of Aghadoe, Kerry. Rev. Mr. Collis preached at the Asylum opal Chapel on Thursday last.

understand the Rev. G. N. Watson, from st, whose intesesting and edifying sermons were ed to with such deep attention last Sabbath of hip, Bedford-row, will preach there again on ay next.

Sunday the following were ordained Priests by ord Bishop of Ripon, in the Cathedral of that ss:-The Rev. Thomas B. Browne, and the Benjamin L. Poyntz, of Trinity College, Dublin. ons-Irwin Lloyd, and Thomas H. Manning, ty College, Dublin.

e Rev. Dr. Todd, F.T.C.D. the Donnellan Lec-, is on a visit at Tervoe, the seat of William sell, Esq. also, the Rev. Mr. Sewell, of Oxford. . Golightly, of Oxford, is named for the vacant

ish Bishopric.

lady of the name of Clarke has recently made a ition of £1:9 to the Clergy Sons' School, Lucan. ne Plymouth Town Council offer to sell the wsons of St. Andrew and Charles vicarages for 00, sooner than let them fall into the Bishop of diocese. Lord Ashburton offered £4,500 for he Rev. J. Woodroffe, of Cork, is to preach on torow, at the Episcopal Asylum Chapel in this city, annual charity sermon in support of the establishit, and of the blind inmates maintained upon its dation. - See Advt. t the January meeting of the Society for promo-Christian knowledge, on the motion of the Rev. nk Hewson, late of Worcester, an inquiry was ered into the condition of the large class of barge-, who are understood live in a most demoralised

e, of observing no Sabbath.

tey. Theobald Mathew arrived at Galway on Mon-, and next day preached in the new Chapel of St. rick's, when a collection of £70 was made, includ-£30 from Mr. Mathew, who, on Wednesday, ninistered the Temperance pledge to many hund persons. The Rev. Gentleman subsequently left Dublin.

The Rev. Mr. Kenny, P. P. of Castle Connell, has eived a splendid cross for his chapel, also a donan of £20 from a distinguished family in that neighirhood, towards the repairs of the above edifice.

Miss Ellen Hogan of George's street, was on Tuesprofessed a sister of the order of Mercy, at the nvent in Charleville.

The Roman Catholics of Six-mile-bridge have preted to the Rev. Mr. Quin a gold watch, in testiny of their regard. The Hon. William Browne, M. P. has subscribed to the association for propagating the Roman tholic faith in foreign countries.

Kilteely has remitted £11 123. to the O'Connell bute, per Rev. E. Walsh.

The parishes of Glin and Loughill, contributed £13 the O'Connell fund.

The Castlebar Temperance Society had an elegant ree on Thursday, when Dr. Malley returned thanks the health of Major Stuart and officers of the 88th pot.

J. Drummond, Esq. R.M. is changed from Tallow, unty of Waterford, to Tralee.

The Lying in Hospital, Cork, benefitted £70 on riday, by the performance of Mr. Batty's troop. Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, Cork, ected on Monday, for the ensuing year :- The Mayor, resident, Richard Gould, Joseph Hayes, Ed. Hackett, an Meagher, William Fagan, James Daly, Patrick elly, Timothy O'Regan, Doctor Lyons, Michael lennessy, Charles Sugrue, J. S. Murphy, T. Jennings.

and upper, months M'Nab, Eaq. Aberarder, Inverness-shire.

At Seagoe Church, John Loch, Esq. of Balbriggan, to Henrietta, daughter of the late William Overend, Eaqr of Edenderst, Fortadown.

DEATIIS.

Yesterday, in Upper Gientworth-street, adjoining the Dominican Chapel, the Rev. Denis Lynch; a Clergyman well known in this City for several years, studiously attentive to his duties, and remarkably quiet and unpretending in his manners. At Mary Fort, county Clare, Edward O'Callaghan, Esq, of

Coolready:

At Cove. Eliza, wife of Wm. Fuller Hartnett, Esq. of Newcastle, in this County. At his residence, Mount Campbell, near Drumena, county

Leitrim, Admiral Sir Josias Rowley, Bart.

Near Youghal, Mr. Bartholomew Verling, late of Cork, aged 92. At Audley-place, Cork, Mrs. Chinnery, reliet of the late Richard Chinnery, Esq.

In Ellen-street, Mary, widow of the late Mr. Jeremiah Hedigan, many years an extensive and respectable Baker in this City.

At Wilton, Cork, Charles Henry Leslie, Esq. aged 80. At Lucan, William Harpur, Esq. for many years Sub-Inspector of Constabulary. At Kill, King's County, Agnes, relict of the late Rev. O. Nelson, aged 75 years.

Miss Caroline Coultman, of Rockfield, Queen's County, daughter of the late Major Wheeler Wynne Coultman, 53d Regt. At Rathwade, county Carlow, on the 7th inst. Mr. John Cummins, at the age of 111 years.

At Doneraile, Thomas O'Brien, Esq. On the 5th Sept. 1841, on board the ship ' Hellen Stewart,' on her passage to Bombay, John Gillespie Dunliven, eidest son of Surgeon Armstrong, 84th Regt. aged 16 years and nine days,

The Rev. Patrick Kelly, P.P. of Ballintra, Raphoe. At Rathmines, Arthur Stanistreet Harvey.

At Granby-row, Anna Maria, daughter of the Rev. Philip Smyth. Margaret, daughter of the late Joseph Black, Esq. Marymount, near Dromore.

In Seapoint Avenue, Anna, widow of Capt. Anthony Lyster. The Rev. Joseph Waugh, of Pertenhall, Kimbolton.

At the Police Barracks of Belfast, Sub-Constable Daniel (ruff. At Fitzwilliam-square, North, Jessie Manners, second daughter of the late Thomas Manners, Esq. Edinburgh.

At Florence, at the house of her son-in-law, Colonel Stisted, late 3d Light Dragoons, Catherine, reliet of Bladen Swinny, Esq. At Hammersmith, Mrs. Cheveley, widow of W. Wolfaston Cheveley, Esq.

Charles Carter, Esq. Superintendent of the St. Katharine Docks.

At Greville House, Cheltenham, James Pierson, Esq.

At Shalston, Bucks, Mrs. Mary Purefoy Jervoise, relict of the late Rev. G. H. J. P. Jervoise, aged 90. In Frederick-place. Kent-road, Mr. Thomas Dyer, of Lloyd's

Coffee House. Mrs. Jane Lovatt, of Liverpool, mother-in-law of Mr. Richard

Lynch, hookseller, of Manchester. Mrs. Looney, wife of Mr. John Looney, late of the Isle of Min. Gilbert Ritchie, eldest son of James Ritchie, Esq. surgeon, Dalmeilington. At London-street, Edinburgh, William Allester, Esq. writer. At Southampton, Mrs. Agnes Short, Lady of Charles Sh !!, Esq. formerly of the 6th Dragoon Guards; and, from a gun-shot wound, Charles, their second son.

At Athens, James M'Call, Esq. younger, of Daldavire, near Glasgow.

At Jarviston, Old House, N.B. William Meek, Esq. aged 94. At Fernando Po, Horatio Coilman, Assistant-Surgeon in the Niger Expedition, At Ma ta, Chevalier P. Pariso, late Lieutenant-Colonel of the Maltese Provincial Battalion, and Aide-de-Camp to the late Marquis of Hastings.

Mr. James Griffin, of Baltimore, U.S.

At Poonamallee, East Indies, Major W.B. Bernard, 39th Regt. Killed, in a severe engagement with the Ghilzies, between Cabul and Jellabad, in Affghanistan, on the 19th of Cetaber, Lieut. Edward King, 13th Light Intantry, fourth son of the Hon. and Rev. Richard Fitzgerald King, aged 24.

On the 27th ult. at Cadiz, W. Costello. Esq. At Rio De Janeiro, Jessy, eldest doughter of the late John Tennent, Esq. merchant, Liverpool.

On the 31st ult. in London, William Middleton Power. Esq. late Major 28th Regiment, son of the late John Power, Esq. of Tipperary, and brother-in-law to the late Pierce O'Brien Butler, Esq. of Dunboyne Castle, county Meath, and Henry White, Esq. of Golden Hill, county Tipperary. Major Power was married to three wives. His first was a Multese, daughter of the bishep of that country, by whom he has left two children. His second wife was sister of the Right Hon. Baron Lefroy, who died on her passage from Demerara lie finally was united in marriage to an English lady, the widow of a late eminent physician in London. Near Ma Ifield, Catherine, wite of Mr. Joseph Mulcany, and sister to the Rev. Mr. Cuddily, of Clonmel. At Royal Canal Terrace, Dublin, Mr. Peter Lynch, one of the Councillors for the Four-Courts Ward. In Manor-street, Mary, wife of Mr. James Campbell Moore. In Haddingfon-road, Edward Thomas Walsh, Esq. e'dest son of the late Edward Walsh, Esq. of Upper Dominick-street Marianne, wife of the Rev. James Carlisle, and daughter

Thomas Mottley, Esq. 40 years Tide-Surveyor of Carting late John Hickey. Esq.

At Wenlock, suddenly, the Rev. R. Rate her of her At Windsor, Colonel Bassett, of Beautiff, Chas. .. brother of the late Sir Richard Basset.

At Brompton, Miss Isabella Hill.

To the Lovers COLLECTION OF REAL

Cathinated Autre

JAMIES MA

HAS the henor to ann Gentry, Public, &c., t Sell by Unreserved Auctio Room, Limerick, on WEDNE inst., a splendid and highly vi Paintings, principally by the whom will be found specimen Artists of the Spanish, Ital English Schools, viz. :-

Murillo, Rubens, Hobbina, Jurdaines, Sterke, Hogarth, The entire will be on vi be in readiness two days pri

> JA Limer

Jan. 15.

the Auctioneer,

Auction of Stoc MANURE, HURSES, FOU OUTS DE DITTO HOUSEH LD FURN

JAMES MA AffilL have the honor competition at MOGU on WEDNESDAY, the 26th following Days, the entire In-Lamb Ewes, 31 Hoggets, Heifers, Farm Horses, Hun year old Colt, by Tom Thumb Filly, by Gerraffe; strong four-wheeled Covered Car, several Sets of Harness; ever

IMPROVED FARMIN in Ploughs, Harrows, Scuffle Turnip Cutter, Carts, Drays, T barrows, Tools, &c, also, 150 60 Tons Well Saved Upland Acres, the First Quality of Os after which

THE HOUSEHOLD Which is of the i lost modern preservation, con isting of Par Chairs; Handson e Brussells do., Chimney and Pier Glasse Curtains, Round Tables, Ornamets, Sofas, Sideboard. cope; Dinner Tables, Weath Tea Store, Lustres. Fenders, Mnhogany Plat Backets, Side Eight Day Clock, Hall Cha Eliptic and French Bedsteads Rate Quality, Hair Mattrasse Ward Robes, Chests of Draw Bedroom Carpets and Curtain Tables and Basin Stands; Dre Bidets, Clothes Horses, Boot . Ware ; Tea Equipages, every and Plated Ware : Cut Glass, C and Dairy requisites.

Sale to commence the first the Stock, Farming Implement which the Household Furnitus Terms, Cash, or approved months' date, with stamp and taken in payment for any sum JAMES MARSH

Comme Mogullane is situated mid and Ennis, on the Mail-coach