

in their exertions, devoting their entire time and day, late and early, (gratuitously) in aid of their brother shareholders, who are full of gratitude to them, and duty to themselves, their families, and their children, to come forward to the assistance with their contributions. If they do not, they must abide the consequences. Judgments have been recently obtained to a large amount against the defendant, and will be directed against all instead v. Cunneen, an action tried at Neesham's Court, by a tradesman against a defendant, for false arrest under a civil bill decree, and a verdict of £20 damages against defendant.

There are no less than 240 licensed pig butchers in the market, to conduct the sales between merchant and farmer.

The Agricultural Association have agreed to pay the Town Council £100 a-year, for the cattle

Salary of Mr. Thady Cotter, Clerk to the Board of the Ennis Union, was raised to £60, at the meeting of that Board on Wednesday last.

Michael Carroll has resigned the Clerkship of the Ennis Union.

The officers of Castlebar Workhouse will be elected on the 12th February.

The Work Guardians are now in debt to the Commissioners £16,800.

Patrick Ryan, Apothecary, Ennis, is appointed Dispensing Officer to the Workhouse of that Union.

After the conflagration of Messrs. Duffields' provisions, Belfast, £5000 of property was saved, but the loss is estimated at double that sum.

The estate of Lizard, near Coleraine, leased to the defendant's family, having fallen into the Ironmonger's hands, by the death of the late Bishop of Down, 60 ejectments have been served upon the defendant's tenants, mostly all Presbyterians to quit the estate.

Following were entertained by Dudley Perse, Esq. at Roxborough, at cock shooting:—The Marquis of Clanricarde, the Hon. E. Lawless, Thos. N. B. Esq. M. P. Col. Perse, C.B. 16th Lancers.

COCK SHOOTING MATCH.—On Monday there came off the most extraordinary matches on record—

Mr. R. Carter's "Strawberry" Pony and Mr. Carney's grey Mare, "Runaway" for £20. The contest selected was from Tuam to Galway and back, a distance of 32 Irish, or 40 statute miles. Mr. Carney rode 14 stone and a-half, although his little pony was not ten hands high. Mr. Carney rode about 13 stone. The mare led for the first 10 miles, but from that out the pony shewed his heels, into Galway and out again. Mr. Carney arrived at 20 minutes past one o'clock, and performed the whole distance in the short space of 3 hours and a quarter.

At Craiglockhart, Adolphus M. Corn, Esq. Glasgow, to Elizabeth, daughter of the late W. Dumbreck, Esq. South Coates. At Bridgend, Perth, Mr. George Turnbull, merchant, to Jane, eldest daughter of Mr. John Christie.

DEATHS.

At the Spa, Tralee, Helena Denny, daughter of Thos. Day, Esq. Mr. Samuel Foley, George's-quay.
On the 13th inst. at St. James's-square, Bath, Miss Phillippa Peacocke, daughter of the late Sir Joseph Peacocke, Baronet, and niece to the late Charles Lord Castlecoote.
James, the infant son of William Crosby, Esq. Ennis.
In George's-street, Cork, Miss Helen Agnes Byrne.
At Dunmanway, Mr. John Welply.
At Bachelor's Quay, Cork, at an advanced age, Mrs. Canty.
Daniel Coolahan, of Cogran House, King's County, Esq.
At New Lawn, Swords, Mr. Mungo Ducat.
William Edward, eldest child of Mr. Edward Ferrar, Dundalk.
At Garville, Edwin Thomas Pidgeon, Esq.
In Castlebar, Mr. John Trembleton.
In Russell-street, Tilly, relict of the late Folliot Magrath, Esq. William O'Brien, Esq. A.M.T.C.D.
At Johnstown Cottage, Catherine, relict of the late Thos. Pellett, Esq. and daughter of the late Captain John Charlton, Curratown, county Meath.
At his residence, St. Dolough's Lodge, county Dublin, John Rutherford, Esq.
On the 13th inst. at Paris, Caroline Harriett, eldest daughter of the late W. Walshe, Esq. of Dublin, Barrister-at-law.
At Bath, Lady Francis Phillott, sister to the late, and aunt to the present Lord Howth.
At Torquay, Louisa, wife of the Hon. William Vaughan, youngest brother of the Earl of Lisburne, and daughter of Edw. Wigan, Esq. of Lapley, Staffordshire.
At Euston-place, aged 83, Sybella, relict of John Wilson, Esq. of Vera Cruz, and sister of the late Sir Arthur Piggott, Attorney-General.
At Lark-lane, Toxteth-park, Joseph Gibbons, Esq. an eminent corn-merchant of Liverpool.
Miss Woodcroft, of St. Anne-street, Liverpool, many years a consistent member of the Wesleyan society.
At Moseley-hall, Congleton, in the 70th year of his age, James Brierley, Esq. a magistrate of Lancashire and Cheshire, and formerly boroughreeve of Manchester.
At Aberdeen, aged 91, James Grant, Esq. of Huntley, only brother to Mr. Grant, Crouchend.
At her apartments in Hampton Court Palace, Ann Byam, widow of the late Hon. and Rev. Miles Stapleton.
At Bath, Mrs. Georgina Mason.
At Warmleybury, Herts, Susannah, daughter of the late J. Hare, Esq. M.P.
At Southwick-place, Hyde-park, Lieut. William Baillie, 47th Regt. Bengal Native Infantry, son of Lieut.-Col. A. Baillie.
At Anchnacant, Aberdeenshire, Isabella, wife of Robert Piddas, Esq. and daughter of William W. Ireland, Esq. Ballyhorsey, county Wicklow.
On the 13th Nov. last, at Aden, on the coast of Arabia, Edwin, youngest son of W. S. Hall, Esq. Paymaster 17th Foot, aged 14 months.
At East Bank, Helensburgh, Alexander Macpherson, Esq. writer, late of Glasgow, aged 72.
Suddenly, in Glasgow, James Wingate, Esq. insurance broker.
At Belligrove, near Campieton, Argyllshire, Isabella Hook, Esq. widow of Captain Charles Campbell, late 79th Regiment.
At Montreal, Alice Sabine, daughter of Captain Browne, 85th Light Infantry.
At Philadelphia, John Vaughan, Esq. Treasurer of the American Philosophical Society, aged 86.
At his residence in Leeson-street, Robert Fannin, Esq.
At Rathgar, Lynch Butler, Esq.
In Drogheda, in his 75th year, John M'Cran, Esq.
At Balrath House, county Meath, Jane, daughter of Richard Walshe, Esq.
Capt. John Algeo, of Ravarra, near Saintfield, county Down.
Thomas, son of the late Thomas Shaw, Esq. Carrickmacross.
At Brompton, Michael, son of the late M. O'Brien, Esq. Bury-street.

6