Emigration to America IMPORTANT NOTICE TO EMIGRANTS.
FOR QUEBEC

FRANCIS SPAIGHT has purchased the a splendid New Oak Ship, called the "Jane Black,"

The largest Vessel ever in the Port of Limestone, and therefore, have on board this VESSEL all they can desire for their comfort and accommodation.

The following is a list of Mr. SPAIGHT'S ships which will sail from this Port for Quebec, with the first is expected to leave on or about the 1st of April next, and the others will follow in allowing a few days between the sailing of each ship.

Jane Black, 1300 Tons, ... Capt. Timothy Borneo, 1000 Tons, ... Capt. P. O'Donoghue
Governor, 800 Tons, ... Capt. D. Gormley Thetis, 700 Tons, ... Capt. Daniel H. Bryan
Bryan Abbs, 600 Tons, ... Capt. J. Hugill

These splendid first-class Oak Ships are in the best order, and the Captains are well being remarkable for their skill and propriety to the Passengers under their care.

It will be seen from the great Tonnage of these Vessels that the accommodation they afford is ample; Emigrants cannot therefore select any other Ships for their purpose.

Application for passage to the Own Office, SPAIGHT, at his Office, Bedford-row, London, street, where every information will be given to the Emigrants.
