DEATHS.

Lately, Mrs. Gregory Davies, eldest daughter of Sir William Mansel, Bart. of Iscoed, Carmarthenshire, and sister of Colonel Mansel.
In the town of Phillipsburgh, St. Martins, on the 29th of December last, Thomas Egar, Esq. formerly of H.M.'s 8th Regt. of Foot, and lately Stipendiary Magistrate of her Majesty's Colony of Anguilla. He was interred in the grave-yard of the Dutch Reformed Church. The funeral was attended by his Excellency the Governor and Staff. Two companies of the Colonial Militia marched in front, with several of their officers, and most of the Civil Employees—the latter wearing mourning. The procession included the respectable inhabitants of the town, who all manifested much regret at the death of this gentleman. Mr. Egar was a native of Nenagh, and nephew of Doctor Quin, of that town.
Suddenly, on Good Friday night, at his residence, Duckspool, county Waterford, John Matthew Galwey, Esq. formerly Represent- ative in Parliament for that county—a Magistrate and Grand Juror, and land agent to Lords Donoughmore and Cremorne. He has left a widow, one son, and three daughters. He attended the Chapel of Dungarvan a few hours before his death. He contested the Borough of Dungarvan several times since the Reform Act.

3d Resolution—Moved by ROBERT PAUL, Esq. Manager of the Commercial Bank of Scotland, se- conded by MAURICE LOTHIAN, Esq. S.S.C.
"That the special thanks of this Court be given to the Trustees of the Society, and to the Members of the various Local Committees of Management in the country, as also to the Medical Officers, and other Office Bearers of the Society, for the efficient manner in which they have performed their respective duties.
4th Resolution—Moved by the Rev. JAMES GRANT South Leith, seconded by THOS. BEVERIDGE, Esq. D.C.S.
"That whilst the Members of this General Court have heard with much satisfaction the statement made by the Auditor as to the continued small amount of casualties which have occurred, in comparison with what might have been expected, it affords them at the same time no ordinary pleasure to reflect upon the vast benefits which the sums of money paid away must already have conferred upon the widows and families of deceased members, and to look forward to similar advantages being hereafter derived by the heirs and successors of existing members."
