seven years—John Cogan, Esq., The Lord Lieutenant has presented the Rev. John Brownlow to the Rectory of Clonegam, Waterford, vacant by the death of the Rev. Thomas S. Monk.
The Rev. Mr. Brownlow, a near relative of Lord Lrrgan, has been Curate of Ballinscreen, county Derry. The tithe rentcharge of Clonegam Union amounts to £562 per annum, and the Rev. George S.
Monck, Curate of Clonegam for sixteen years under his father, the late Rector, is to continue in that station.

The benefice of Clondevadogue, value £460 a year, vacant by the death of the Rev. Henry Maturin, late Fellow of Trinity College, Dublin, was yesterday offered by the Board to the Fellows, but declined by all that body in succession. On Saturday the Board will fill up the vacancy, by electing a successor to the late incumbent, out of a numerous body of applicants.

This day, Mr. John O'Donnell, Mr. Patrick Lyddy, Mr. Laurence Kelly, and Edward Spaight, victuallers,
