

Ireland. Dr. John Geary presided, and resolutions were passed condemnatory of the intended alterations, and asserting that the Poor Law Commissioners had not faithfully represented to Government the state of the Medical Charities in Ireland, nor the views of the Professional men of this country with regard to their policy. A petition to Parliament was agreed upon.

The Waterford Faculty meet on Thursday, to petition against the Medical Charities Bill.

One of the chief London houses in the corn trade, in a circular addressed to its friends, states, the holders of bonded wheat, by refraining from paying duty until the end of June, may rely upon obtaining a profit for their money of two per cent per week!

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—With the deepest regret we have to announce the death of John, eldest son of Chief Justice Pennefather, under most afflicting circumstances. The Chief Justice proceeded on Monday, to the Royal Hotel, Bray, for a few days' relaxation previous to the commencement of Trinity Term, with two of his sons and son-in-law. Thursday morning the sons went to Bray Head for exercise, and on the top of one of the cliffs the ill-fated young gentleman's hat was blown off, and in endeavouring to regain it, or from his foot having slipped, he fell over the cliff, and in the fall the skull was fractured, and he was killed on the instant! He was but 17 years of age, and of the highest promise in talent, and of most amiable disposition. He had received the rite of confirmation from the Archbishop of Dublin, on Wednesday.

Charles O'Connor, of Killalo, a boy aged eight years, was run over by a car loaded with potatoes, this morning, at Bank-place corner, and was so severely injured internally, that he died in half an hour after. Two of the City Police were present when the accident occurred, and instantly conveyed the little sufferer to Barrington's Hospital, where every assistance was rendered him by Surgeon Thwaites, but in vain. An inquest was held this afternoon, and as it appeared the man was walking the horse, and holding by his head, the Jury found a verdict of accidental death, with a deodand of 5*s.*

Col. Sir Michael Creagh, 11th, late 86th, was examined on Wednesday before the Cork election committee, to prove intimidation and violence.

Mr. HUMPHREYS has received the most voluntary testimonials from numerous persons who have received benefit from their use. The limits of an Advertisement are necessarily prescribed to publish the whole, he must content himself with merely quoting the following received from some hundreds:—

“ TO MR. HUMPHREYS, NOTTINGHAM.”

“ SIR—For nearly twenty years past I have been afflicted with pains in the head, sickness, and other symptoms of a disordered stomach, for which I have tried various medicines and obtained very little benefit, until I was induced to make use of your valuable Camomile Pills, from which, in two or three boxes, I found speedy relief.”

“ So severe and frequent were my attacks, that several days in a week I have been unable to attend to any business, but by the occasional use of your Pills, my health is greatly improved, my spirits increased, and the attacks are considerably less frequent.”

“ I think it a duty to my fellow-creatures to publish this communication, which you are at liberty to use as you think proper, and I will gladly answer any questions to the similarly afflicted.”

“ I am, Sir, yours respectfully,

“ THOMAS TAYLOR.”

“ Melbourne-street, Mansfield Road, Nottingham.”
