

...to certain clauses command. Mr. Matthew me that it was intended mainly depend for its sup-from the Mont-de-Piete could be nearly adequate to ate that they would form the Hospital might rely ;
 ally expected that voluntary scriptions would form an on family having laid the his noble building for the is truly surprising that their re not seconded by the y inhabitants of the City, whom would soon place the accomplish the intentions of I was grieved indeed, on Saturday last, to find the o circumscribed for the want nittee had been obliged to pting two, devoted to the In looking through these observe the apparent skill, to the poor creatures who ctims of distressing casualties.
 the exercise of that "charity nd is kind"? "is there no eeply, indeed, is it to be ble charity should remain in y dormant state, when a small from the inhabitants of the oors of the Hospital for the the poor suffering under hose numerous applications w obliged to be refused.— n the town after leaving the eral impression abroad is, that -de-Piete have been for some fully adequate to the support respectable landlord of the ed me that that was his notion, rtain it was the general impressir, it is of urgent importance on should be removed, and the
 with the fact, that however pro-may have been, and still is, yet ebt of the Mont-de-Piete is re-o appropriation of the profits of ospital.

your's very faithfully,
W. W. SIMPSON.

the eminent Auctioneer and dressed a letter to his Excel-on the ameliorated condition ularly as regards the agriculsuggestions for their further Simpson is a Member of the Royal England, and of the New Royal of Ireland.

At Christ Church, Thomas Wyndham, Esq. to Annie Elizabeth, daughter of Captain Penruddocke, Fusileer Guards, of Winckton, Hants.
 At St. John's, Paddington, John Staniforth Bckett, Esq. to Gertrude Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the late Sir William Howe Mulcaster, R.N. and niece of Lieut.-General Sir Frederick Wm.
 Mulcaster, K.C.H.

DEATHS.

At Moymore, near Ennistymon, in the 84th year of his age, Captain John M. M'Namara, late Royal Marines. This brave and gallant officer served with distinction in some of our most celebrated Naval engagements, and was twice severely wounded in action. He lived beloved by all who knew him, and sunk into the grave universally regretted.

On Tuesday, the 24th inst. at Ash-hill Towers, in this county, Mary Anne, infant daughter of the Hon. James Grant.

At the house of her aunt, Mrs. Creed, South Mall, Cork, Susanna Warren, eldest daughter of the late Henry Russell, Esq. of Limerick.

In Dingle, Lieut. Andrew Thompson, R.N. Chief officer of the Coast Guard station there.

In High-street, Mrs. E. Lyddy, wife of Mr. P. Lyddy, sen. of this city.

At the Glebe House, in the 84th year of his age, the Rev.
 Richard Bevan, of Carne, county Wexford.

At Coologue, in this county, Anne, wife of Edmond O'Ryan, Esq. and daughter of the late Joseph Gubbins, Esq. Knocklong.
 She was sister to the Rev. William Gubbins, of Grantham, Lincolnshire, and niece to the Rev. James Ryan, C.C. Cashel.

At Dangan, near Galway, the residence of the Right Rev. Dr
 Browne, of fever, caught in the discharge of his ministry, the Rev..
 Patrick Morris, O.S.A.

At his residence, Rathlish, near Portarlinton, James Dunne,
 Esq. late sovereign of the borough.

At Kilkenny, Mr. Isaac Evans.

At Sidney, New South Wales, Denis Moriarty, Esq. nephew to Charles Sugrue, of Cork, merchant, and grand nephew to the late Right Rev. Dr. Sugrue, of Kerry.

At Lusa, in Piedmont, Barbara, second daughter of J. L.
 Puxley, Esq. of Letherlleesty, Carmarthenshire and Cork.

In Galway, Mrs. Connelly.

John Irwin, Esq. of Camlin, county of Roscommon, in the 80th year of his age.

At Elphin, Edward D. Lloyd, Esq. M.D. aged 24 years.

At Lurgan, Ann, relict of Alexander Cuppage, Esq. in the 74th year of her age.

Eliza, only daughter of Robert Jackson, Esq. of Cloncon House, King's County.

In Monaghan, Mr. George Moore, coach agent and clerk of Petty Sessions.

At Mountpelier, Charlotte, relict of the late John Frederick Gibbon, Esq. Retreat, county Wicklow.

At his residence, White Church, John L. Fox, Esq.

At Enniskerry, Surgeon Hope, eldest son of the late William Hope, Esq. of Dawson-street.

In the 77th year of her age, at her residence, Benburb, Belfast, Martha, sister to the late William Oliver, Esq.

At Cape Coast Castle, Mr. Thomas Wade, eldest son of Mr.
 Thomas Wade, of Waterford.

At the London Hotel, the infant son of Sir Edmund and Lady Hayes.

In Gloucester-place, Portman-square, Mary Ann, the wife of Henry Parker Collett, Esq.

At Rothsay, John Finlay, Esq. of Messrs. John M'Intyre & Co.
 merchants, Glasgow.

At Liverpool, Robert, only surviving son of Robert and Elizabeth Morris.

Mr. James Browne, jun. Insurance-broker, Glasgow.

At Hull, the Rev. George Lee, in the 73d year of his age.

At Alton, Hants, Henry Rowland Harley, Esq. aged 75.

At Cheltenham, Henrietta Augusta Rooke, son of Captain Thomas Slator Rooke, Madras Army.

In Russell-square, Anne Maitland, daughter of Robert Fraser, Esq. and of the late Lady Anne Fraser.

At Richmond, Surrey, John Harfield Tredgold, Esq. Secretary of the British and Foreign Anti-Slavery Society.

At Upper Kensington-gore, Charles Hart, Esq. aged 77.

At Vassal-road, North Brixton, Lieut.-Colonel John Ward, of the Bengal Establishment.

At Boulogne-sur-Mer, Richard Riley, Esq. late of the Admiralty.

chasing 6 pair the
 The Stock con
 Shoes for Gentle
 360 Pair of 400 Pair of
 And every article
 Children's Wor
 French Gambada
 Plain Leather eq
 per Bottle.
 Please r
 at WRIGHT &

Two Pol
ONE effected
 the British London, in the y aged 70 years—
 one effected on the Caledonian for the sum of premium, £8 6s
 up to May 3d, 1
 For particular
 FOGARTY, Pheen
 Deeds and guar
 N. B.—If no will be sold by A
 of which due no

P
 TREMEND
 Rosewood Boxes
 NO. 19
 M. R. J. S. V
 very sup
 with Pearl, line and key, and he offers at

The most e
 the Kingdom
 N. B.—

Pri
 REM
TO BE SO
 rick, on Application
 at 55, GEORG