

on, frugal maintenance, every poor Protestant's care, and a mother's happy in being able to donation of the same ect.

was held on Wednesday well in the chair. The spectable, and included a of the district. The ion were present, includ- mitted. The resolutions William N. Willis, F. Hunt; William Hewson, The report demonstrated in the resources of this n was exclusively owing try in the addition made rk. The Rev. Chairman the valuable effects of parish, and paid a just respectable farmers who ce of the little orphans em with abundance of ordance with the system ction of the Committee, ad after school hours in dustrial training Mr. by Counsellor Hewson, ed, and effective address, Society. The collection ous supply of collecting ildren whose case was umns, are living in the on; their only surviving since died; the family dy district, so much so ooked at the two little em never to have worn air was more like wool of a human being!— ublic, these poor children ed henceforward, and secular instruction, with ness than the families of thy farmer or tradesman. to Rathkeale, on Thurs- large and respectable l independent Protestant Beechmount, presided. by James Massy, Duns- ll, Esqrs. and seconded N. Willis, Wm. Curtis, y. The proceedings were ergymen present strongly efits conferred on their erations of the Society— hich the children were ghbouring households— us habits, and improving but punctual addition g by the monthly allow- rived much advantage of so many intelligent of brotherly kindness the manifest advan- e the order of Provi- in the humble and orphans so completely agement of their faithful short," concluded Mr.

the steamer was moored, the noble pair ascended from the cabin to the quarter deck, they were received with a hearty cheer from the ladies and gentlemen on the quarter deck, which was enthusiastically responded by the immense crowds on the quays, and which they gratefully acknowledged, both the noble Marquis and his amiable Lady repeatedly smiling at the warmth of the Irish cead mille a faltraigh they received. The Marchioness was rather plainly attired; she wore a striped lilac muslin robe, white satin bonnet, and crimson travelling shawl. After leaving the steamer, the happy couple drove off in their carriage to the magnificent residence of the Beresford family at Curraghmore.

The Marquess and Marchioness of Waterford are expected to honour Killarney races with their presence.

On Sunday last, a smith of the name of Fox was killed by the lightning at Knockfierna, in this county, during the thunder, another man met the like fate near Ballingarry, and another at Charleville. A fine colt, the property of Godfrey Ball, Esq. of Ballinakill, was killed by the electric fluid.

Rich. Newcombe Willis, Esq. who in the early part of the present year graduated in Trinity College, Dublin, and took out his medical degree in the same University, was, on Monday, the 6th instant, admitted a member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, having gone through the several studies, and passed the required examination. Doctor Willis is fourth son of the late Rev. Thomas G Willis, L.L.D. Rector of the Union of Kilmurry and Derrygalvin, in this diocese.

Mr. Duffy, Proprietor of the Belfast Vindicator, is found guilty in the Court of Queen's Bench, of a malicious and seditious libel, relating to the trial and conviction of Francis Hughes, for murder, at Armagh Assizes, reflecting upon the Jury, and the prosecution.

The Newry Examiner has pleaded guilty to the prosecution for libel on the administration of justice, at the suit of the Crown.

The tenders of the weavers of Cork, for clothing the paupers, are accepted by the Guardians.

The real name of the new aspirant to the mantle of Power, the Irish comedian, at the Haymarket, is Stephen John Leonard—O'Neill being merely a stage cognomen. This gentleman is an attorney by profession and well known for his comic powers. The character he chose for his first appearance was that of Dr. O'Toole in the "Irish Tutor." His debut was so decidedly successful as to leave little doubt of his becoming an acquisition to the English boards.

The jubilee in Cork has been extended to the 3d of July.

At the fair of Rathkeale on Monday, there were but few buyers in attendance, and rather a small supply of stock. Milch cows rated from 7*l.* to 10*l.* 10*s.*; strippers, 6*l.* 6*s.* to 9*l.*; fat cows were scarce, and rated from 9*l.* to 12*l.*; two-year old heifers, 4*l.* 5*s.* to 6*l.*; yearling calfs, 3*l.* 5*s.* to 4*l.*; fat sheep, 30*s.* to 35*s.*; store sheep, 17*s.* to 25*s.*; store pigs dull, and averaged from 1*l.* to 1*l.* 10*s.* Eyre Massy, Esq. of Glenduff Castle, sold one springer for 15*l.* and one fat cow for 13*l.*, and Mr. Power of Ballinakill, a lot of fat sheep at 34*s.* 6*d.* a piece.

The following appeared in part of our last impression:

THE LATE RIOT AT ENNIS.

It was most indiscreet of Mr. Smyth, who personally ordered out the Police party, to leave them exposed to the persevering attacks of a violent mob at a late hour of the night.

Lieut. C. Butler is pro service, at Kilmore station.

COMM

Before the Ho

The Agricultural Board Special Jury to recover £ on an assignment of 500 question was whether the mortgage—The Jury for damages, and 6d costs.

BII

- At Lower Gardiner-street, Dr. Esq. Solicitor, of a daughter.
- On the 19th inst. at Stephen Sampson, of St. Katherine's, co. At Bruff, on Thursday last, the Esq. Sub-Inspector, of a daughter.
- At Riverstown House, county Lloyd Ormsby, Captain 88th R. At Miltown Place, Cork, the Esq. of a daughter.
- At Castle Townsend, the Lady of a daughter.
- At Dromore, the Lady of a daughter.
- At Mountain View, Rathmine of a daughter.
- In Leeson-street, the Lady of a son.
- In Upper Baggot-street, the Lady of a daughter.
- At Belfast, the Lady of a daughter.
- In Merrion-square, the Lady of a daughter.
- The Lady of Thomas Faussett at the residence of the Rev. the Lady of Henry J. Batchelor at Sir James Watson's, West Watson, 14th Regt. of a son.
- At Spondon, Derbyshire, the Lady of a daughter.
- In Whitehall-place, Mrs. Swinburn of a daughter.
- At Jersey, the Lady of the Esq. of a son.
- In Cadogan-place, the Lady of a son and heir.
- At Florence, the Countess Borghese of a daughter.
- At Secunderabad, the Lady of a son.
- At New Ross, the Lady of a daughter.
- The Lady of Captain Sir Henry of a daughter.
- At Corfu, the Lady of Alexander of a daughter.

MARR

- At Douglas Church, William county Cork, Esq. Solicitor, to Downman, Esq.
- At Gormanstown Castle, M. Esq. to Matilda, only daughter of Lord de Grey, Somerset, Sir T. of Britfieldstown, county Cork, to Langdon, Esq. R.N. of Inwood.
- In Killybegs Church, Jane Lett to William Lodge, to Abraham Ha Louth.
- Mr. William Hunter Mervyn, Methodist Preacher, to Jane, da Antrim.
- At Woodside, near Liverpool, the Royal College of Physicians, George Massey, Esq. of Avondale.
- At Framfield, Sussex, J. Revel county of Wicklow, to Maria, Esq. of Framfield Park.
- William Freebairn, Esq. of Dr. daughter of Robert Frame, Esq.
- William Bullock, Esq. Hereford Rev. William Allen, Rector of and Vicar of Hay, Breconshire.
- At Hackney, the Rev. C. Torkington late J. Powell, Esq. of Carey-street.
- At Mearns, Mr. Thomas Ferri Andrew Todd.
- William B. Lorrain, M.D. James Grieve, Esq. Howden.
- At Edinburgh, H. D. Alexander