

tion of the force before an is business was to advise and t to wander about amongst a seeking to win or pacify the a task more becoming their Hennessy, whose praiseworthy met by a coarse rejoinder ellies!

of 38 policemen having been an infuriate mob, sworn to mon, would not strictly war-upon their assailants, without on duty, Mr. Brown, County Simon, Sub-Inspector; or Capt. rate, who severally repudiate given such an order; but on are at issue with the other of the police force, who dethe investigation before Mr. ficer in command of the Police lect of duty, by not complying code, which requires an exami-ammunition of the men when a precaution that would have doubt and difficulty, beside ty now in confinement, who om the accusation of spilling ences of a criminal prosecution.

h officers to command a Police f this kind, is further deduced of the men having primed and ra, without an order from Mr.
on; and if the men did at last unparalleled excitement and cribed to want of confidence in d left the men to their own re-selves impatient and confused; from others, when they should and vigour equal to the crisis, unfortunately unprepared to we feel assured, will examine tion with due regard to all the th full consideration of every emote; but we must not lose udice which poisons the mind against the 38 men now in prominently marked at every estigation, as to endanger the were it not for the protection oice, the countenance, the lan-he mob, as they pursued these ugh the street, when paraded and vice versa, amidst threats to witness, may be imagined from the revolting scene; but om attempting a description of rades christianity to the utter-creation.

man nature, let time be afforded ated feeling to subside, and devoted victims to trial in the exclaiming "blood for blood!"

At Broomsbury, Charles R. Vigers, Esq. of Truro, to Anne, daughter of the late J. Thompson, Esq. of Calcutta.
Count Geisdorff to Miss Vanneck, daughter of the late Hon.
Gerard Vanneck.
At St. George's, Hanover-square, the Hon. and Rev. Edward Harbottle Grimston, second son of the Earl and Countess of Verulam, to Frances Horatia, eldest daughter of John Morier, Esq. late Minister at Dresden.
At Woolwich, William Congrove, son of the late Sir Joseph M'Lean, of the Royal Artillery, to Maria Frances, only daughter of the late William Tireman, Esq. of Chichester.

DEATHS.

At Rockfield, in this county, on the 18th inst. Abigail, only daughter of the late Edward Villiers Fitzgerald, Esq.—a lady sincerely regretted by her family and friends.

On the 9th inst. at Frankfort, S.M. Peter Low, Esq. late of Bushy-park, in this county, and of Merrion-street, Dublin.

At his residence, Riverview, Gort, most sincerely and deservedly regretted by a numerous circle of friends and acquaintances, Henry John M'Cook, Esq. aged 54 years.

At Skibbereen, Mrs. Mary Everitt, wife of Joseph Everitt, Esq. H.P.

At Mount Pleasant Cottage, Jackson De La Cour, third son of William Cornwall, Esq. of Bandon.

At his brother's residence, Walter Atkin, son of the late Thomas Wade Foot, Esq. of Sprungfort House, county Cork.

On Monday last, to the deep affliction of her family and friends, Agnes, the beloved child of Mr. Richard Barry, Butter Inspector of this city.

Margaret, eldest daughter of C. Connell, Esq. Clover-hill, Cork
At Doneraile, Eliza, daughter of John Nash, Esq.

At Ross Ville, Carlow, Edgar, eldest son of Thomas Crawford Butler, Esq.

At Killerevan, at the advanced age of 88, John Kirwan, Esq.
At Kilmore, the residence of her brother, the Rev. John Fitzgerald, sen. Mrs. Dillon, aged 92. For 60 years she conducted, in Blullingar and Athlone, a ladies' seminary.

In Galway, Mr. Ulick Bourke.

Mrs. Margaret Power, widow of the late Mr. Thomas Power, of the Quay, Waterford.

At the residence of her son-in-law, Francis M'Clean, Esq.
Stephen's-green, Mrs. B. Anderson, of Fisherstown House, Queen's County.

At Lower Gardiner-street, Dorothea, daughter of T. T.
Magrath, Esq.

At his residence in Islandmagee, the Rev. John Murphy, in his 87th year. Mr. Murphy was, for upwards of fifty-five years, Minister of the Presbyterian congregation of Islandmagee.

At Thurles, Mr. John Meagher.

Mrs. Mary Foster, relict of the late Mr. Bunbury Foster, of Carlow.

At Charleston, South Carolina, Mr. John Benson, formerly of Belfast.

At Saltcoats, Captain David Gourley, of Leith.

Suddenly, at Port-Glasgow, William Cunningham, Esq.

At Greenock, Elizabeth and Margaret, daughters of Mr.
Patrick Lyons.

At Helensburgh, Major A. Douglas Monteith, H.F.I.C.S.

At Windon, near Liverpool, Mr. William Wilson, shipbuilder.

At Gourrock, Mrs. John Gilroy, late of Paisley, aged 89 years.

At Hawarden, Flintshire, aged 90 years, Mrs. Jane Thropp, relict of the late Mr. Samuel Thropp, Surgeon.

In Gloucester-place, Miss Rolle, sister of the late Lord Rolle.

At Seend, Wilts, Ambrose Awdry, Esq.—a Magistrate and Deputy-Lieutenant for that county.

At Wigan, Lancashire, aged 77 years, the Rev. Thos. Appleton, a Monk of the Order of St. Bernard.

At Quebec, Mr. Robert Smith, merchant, eldest son of James Smith, Esq. timber merchant, Greenock.

Tuesday last, in Henry-street, Jeremiah, infant son of George Jackson, Esq.

Mrs. Bagge, of Ardmore House, county Waterford, relict of John Bagge, Esq.

Of rapid consumption, after her confinement, at her father's house, Fairy Hill, Elizabeth, wife of William Davis, a member of the Society of Friends.

Of scarlatina, Michael, son of Edmond Smithwick, Esq. of Kilkenny.

On Merchant's-quay, Mr. William Cahill, master-tailor.

At Ternon Glebe, the son of the Rev. S. Alexander.

At Fitzgibbon-street, Alexander, youngest son of Captain E.
Cuttingham.

Henrietta Albinia, and Elizabeth Georgina, daughters of the Lord Bishop of Worcester.

13—A Pair of well matched 5 and 6 years old, Switch Sale at one o'clock

June 18.

TO THE
of the Limerick
WE the undersigned Maria, for Quebec behalf of the other emigra take final leave of our na charging, as far as we can incurred by the kindness HARVEY & Co, the owne were embarked our lives an preserved by the interpo aided by the skill and exe crew.

Next to our humble a ments to the Divine Power watery grave, during and su the 5th inst., our thanks for his kind and humane our return to the Shannon, sions was much reduce rendered useless by damag resources were exhausted) unable to prosecute our Atlantic, if Mr. Harvey prevent the destruction of a which he has done with the phist and the charity of a at his own sole expense, provisions, and in every oth tering not only to our wan this work of benevolence M sustained by Mr. P. B. O'BR Dublin Steam Company, by to our unhappy situation, th well carried into effect.
offer our thanks and leave best reward must proceed their own benevolence.

Dated at Scatterry-Roads,
Jas. M'Donough, Surgeon,
Peter O'Connor,
Henry Hickey,
Patt Hickey,
Timothy Tracy,
John Francis,
Patt Burke,
Michael Quinlan,
David Hynes,
James Furnell,
Sinan Coghlin,
Daniel Enright,
Patt Clarke,
Martin Cooney,
Michael Furnell,
James Doyle,
John Heenan,
John Shelly,