

Roche's correspondence relative to the Court of Queen's Bench, on:—

Carass, 20th June, 1842. I enclose a letter I have written to your Lordship of Limerick, by which your Lordship's ardent desire of the inhabitation of your Lordship and the means of obtaining a Corporation, which, by a majority of the Irish Corporation renders them not entitled to the point raised was not unanimous, but a majority have voted in favour of the present Reformed with confidence to her Majesty a legislative enactment to be supposed to be wanted in the present body, and to no member of the House of Commons they look with more certainty for supporting in office which you so strongly advocate as a member of the House of my fellow-citizens in this request that your Lordship, as far as lies in your power, to Parliament that will put out of doubt the rights of this important Municipal Corporation. Be, my Lord, your Lordship's
