

very proprietor to introduce in his improvements of agriculture, it is in of such societies as these, that we great instrument of these improve- country. (Hear.) The Highland confined itself to Edinburgh, by itinerant shows subsequently r the whole country. (Hear) And e convinced that in a few years the e found of introducing similar establishing societies of this ottest corner of Ireland.—(hear.)— ntlemen, over the face of your coun- rdly express my admiration of its in an agricultural point of view. You e a mine of gold beneath your feet, if and dug out—and you are peculiarly regard to climate, particularly for the crops which are so essential, but, as I much wanting in the country. (hear) duded his interesting remarks, by er the Society had been in exist- ears, and after they had made an and, that instead of Irishmen going or Scotland to obtain Agricultural people of these countries would visit milar object. He begged to thank al manner in which they received ealth of the Highland Society. airman then gave "The Horticulture the health of the Earl of Kingston." ause. Kingston returned thanks. Erne, after a useful address to the and, gave "Lord Carbery, and the k Agricultural Association." Drunk ng. Carbery returned thanks. s of Downshire gave the health of "The Lord Lieutenant of the county of airman returned thanks. Carberry gave the health of "The Vice-ount Doneraile." aile returned thanks, and proposed of Downshire and the other distin- who have honoured us with their ay." s of Downshire acknowledged the toast n gave "Lord Carbery and the re- ts of Ireland." (Drank with three

At Great Ilford, H. B. Paulton, Esq. of the Adjutant-General's office, Halifax, N.S. to Mary Ann, daughter of John Kynaston, Esq. of the Rookery, Ilford, Essex.
 In Ballinacloogh Church, by the Rev. Dean Head, Robert Going Collis, Esq. of Spire-view, Rathgar, county Dublin, to Mary, daughter of R. Hawkshaw, Esq. of Mill Brook, Nenagh.
 In Galtrim Church, John Pentland Beazley, Esq. of Clonfadd, King's County, to Mary Anne, daughter of Henry Williams, Esq. of Curraghmore, county Meath.
 At St. Mary's Church, and subsequently at Moorfields, by the Right Rev. Dr. Kirwan, Charles Fitzgerald Higgins, Esq. of Trafalgar Park, Mayo, to Amelia Vertue, only daughter of Sir Richard Paul Jodrell, Bart. of Portland-place, London.
 In St. George's Church, Hanover-square, Hercules H. G. Mac-Donnell, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, second son of the Rev. Dr. Mac-Donnell, S.F.T.C.D. to Emily, only daughter of D. C. Moylan, Esq. of North Audley-street, Grosvenor-square.
 At St. Omer, France, Florence Anna Maria Stapleton Piers, second daughter of Sir John Bennett Piers, of Fristernagh Abbey, county Westmeath, Bart. to the Count Louis de Kerveguen, of the 8th Regiment of French Cuirassiers, son of Rear-Admiral the Count de Kerveguen, of Toulon.

DEATHS.

At Lahinch, on the 21st inst. after a lingering illness, which he endured with edifying resignation to the Divine will, Roger Cullinan, Esq. of Woodstock, county Clare, Ex-Scholar T.C.D.— a gentleman of very eminent scholastic acquirements.
 At Raheengrany, county Wicklow, Dorothea, relict of the late Rev. Henry Braddell.
 At her residence, Rathmines, Maria, relict of Christopher Fottrell, of Harold's Grange, county Dublin, Esq.
 In Castleconnell, Miss Mary Organ, late of Thomondgate.
 At Galway, Mr. R. M'Hale.
 Of lockjaw, from railway hurt, Mr. John M'Leod, bookseller, Glasgow.
 At Guernsey, the widow of Doctor Morgan Kennedy.
 At Verona, on his return to England, Marmaduke George, son of Thomas Cramer Roberts, Esq.
 At Andover, Hants, Thomas Heath, Esq. banker.
 At his father's house, Brandon-place, Glasgow, William Watson, Esq.
 At Borrowstounness, Tobias Mitchell, Esq. shipowner, aged 75.
 At Upper Berkeley-street, Eliza Barclay Evans, eldest daughter of the Rev. Edward John Evans, Vicar of Kilbroney, Rosstrevor, aged 23 years.
 At his residence, Nascot House, near Watford, in the 82d year of his age, George William Ricketts, Esq. late Receiver-General for Hampshire.
 At Ashton, Gourrock, Marion, daughter of Thomas Leadbetter, Esq. merchant, Glasgow.
 At Leamington, James Lawrell, Esq. of Frimley, Surrey.
 At Borrowstounness, Dr. William Shippard Cowan, Surgeon.
 At Lower Clapton, James Doherty, Esq.
 At Edinburgh, Breadalbine Campbell, late Lieut. 91st Regt.
 At Kensington, Colonel John Grant, late Portuguese service.
 At Mill-hill, near Blackburn, Wm. Turner, Esq. of Shrigley-hall, Cheshire, and late M.P. for Blackburn.
 At the residence of her father, Richmond-place, Clonmel, Eliza, eldest daughter of Mr. Benjamin Thompson.
 At Old Leighlin Glebe, of typhus fever, the wife of the Rev. Daniel Mooney, Perpetual Curate of Old Leighlin.
 At Ballintegart, county Wicklow, Abraham C. Tate, Esq.
 In Dublin, Adair Blackwell, Esq. Inspector of Army hospitals.
 At Augharas, Longford, of fever, Henry Mullaniff, Esq. Sub-Inspector.
 At Gibraltar, on the 5th inst. after a short illness, Sarah Ellis, the beloved wife of Major D. E. Johnson, 5th Fusiliers.
 At Penzance, Richard Potter, Esq. late M.P. for Wigan, aged 65 years.

July 23.
TO BE SOLD
 OATS. Appli

Amer
TO SAIL ON
 22
OF LIMA
THIS fine
 second v
 persons who in
 in securing Be tunity out of I
 She has mo manded by a satisfaction in
 Apply to th
 July 23.

Wg
FOR STRE
 and PUB
 are obtained
 rilla, so prepar
 each of these combination,
 that they are
 paration.
 For Debilit
 tite, Nervous
 be found a pe
 Skin, they are Prepared
 Wholesale b
 Wholesale es
 cine venders
 2s. 9d. each.
 SO
Messrs
 (S
Apot

65 0