WILLIAM BLEDDEN.
Connel, September 8.

daughter of Captain Daniel Stevenson of Mile-end. At Hamilton, Australia, Charles James Culley, Esq. son of the late Major James Culley, 5th Regt. to Emily Stuart, only daughter of the late Captain Lloyd, R.N. On Saturday last, in St. Thomas's Church, Dublin, by the Rev. Mr. Handcock, Mr. John Purcell, of this city, to Miss Margaret Richardson, of Spring-Garden Parade.

DEATHS.

Yesterday, at George-street, in this city, sincerely and deservedly lamented by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance, John Bently, Esq. of Hinston, county Clare—a gentleman possessing all those amiable qualities of head and heart, which endeared him to a wide and highly respectable circle of family and friends. As a resident landlord he was justly beloved by his numerous tenantry; as a Magistrate his firm, yet temperate, administration of the laws gained for him universal respect—in fact in every relation of life his many excellent qualities will long be remembered; but as an affectionate brother, and dutiful son, he shone pre-eminent, and afforded a noble example well worthy of imitation.

In George's-street, on Wednesday last, the 7th inst. John James Fitz-Gerald, Esq. late of Ennis, county Clare, aged 76 years, second son of the late Jas. Fitz-Gerald, Esq. of Shepperton, and a Magistrate of said county for several years.

On Monday, 5th inst. at Brookdale, in the county of Cork, at the seat of Arthur Ormsby, Esq. aged sixteen years, Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the late Mr. Mathew J. Moore, of this City. Only a few months since this young lady revisited her native City in the full vigour of health, and in the bloom of beauty, almost transcendent—the admiration of all who knew her, not merely on account of her personal attractions, but for the more valuable and permanent graces of a mind endowed with every quality of gentleness and amiability, calculated to ensure permanent esteem. But the rapid and wasting disease of consumption seized upon a frame as beautiful as ever enclosed a gentle spirit, and she sunk gradually into the grave. Calculated as she was to adorn any society by her virtues, it pleased GOD, in his mysterious dispensations, to remove her at this early age, from a world of sin and sorrow; but her numerous Christian friends, and, more especially, a widowed mother, sorrow not as those without hope, for she died as she lived—trusting in the merits of her REDEEMER—rejoicing in hope of the glory of GOD; and without regret for the things of time, but with a happy anticipation of the joys of eternity. Her pure spirit was wafted into those blissful regions, where the wicked cease from troubling, and the weary are at rest.

At Clifton House, Clifton, William Henry Worth Newenham, Esq. of Coolmore, county Cork, sincerely regretted.

On Sunday, the 4th inst. at Ballindery, near Borrisokane, county Tipperary, after an illness of twenty-six hours' duration, Morgan John, the beloved child of Mr. John O'Connell, Excise Officer.

At Castleconnell, Mr. Morgan.

At Kilkee, Mrs. Wright.

At her father's house, Raleigh, county Cork, Anne, eldest daughter of James Minihar, Esq.

At Carrick-on-Shannon, Captain Cullen, of the Leitrim Militia, and brother of Lieut. Colonel Cullen, of the same Regt.

At Hammond's Marsh, Cork, Mr. Daniel Roderick O'Connor, at the advanced age of 85 years.

At Nassau-street, Mr. Anthony Dempsey, formerly of Loughshinnie, county Dublin.

At Cove, Mr. Joseph Lalor, Surgeon Dentist, of Kilkenny.

In Parliament-street, Matilda Sophia, daughter of Mr. Wm. Bates.

At Rathcourcy, aged nine years, Margaret, daughter of Mr. J. M'Mullin, Excise officer, Midleton.

At Blessington-street, Thomas Phillips, Esq. of Ashgrove, county Meath, and Edrigol, county Cavan, in his 72d year.

At Millmount, Dunganon, Henry, fifth son of Samuel King, Esq. of Coal Island Mills.

At Westbourne Vicarage, Sussex, the Rev. Francis Arthur Golding, third son of George Richard Golding, Esq. of Long Park, county Tyrone.

Mrs. Soyer, wife of Mr. Soyer, of the Reform Club, and one of the most distinguished female artists of the day: She has left behind her upwards of five hundred paintings.

At Edinburgh, Miss Jane Lundie, daughter of the late Rev. Cornelius Lundie, Minister of Kelso.

Mr. John Boucher, late of the firm of Boucher and Laverton, Bristol.

At Woolwich-common, Fanny Elizabeth, relict of W. Harris, Esq. of the Ordnance Medical Department.

William Charles Sturt, Esq. late of the Stock-Exchange.

Anna Maria, daughter of John E. Terrey, Esq. of Hatton-garden.

George Edmund Bower, Esq. late of the Ordnance Department, Tower.

After two days illness at Aden, Major Darley, 17th Foot, deeply lamented by his relations and brother officers of his Regt.

At Tunbridge Wells, Colonel John Daniel, 49th Regiment.

At Poonah, Emma, wife of Captain Thomas Eyre, 3d Bombay Light Cavalry, and daughter of John Evans, Esq.

At Mussoores, Major-Gen. J. Newton, of the Bengal Army.

At sea, on the passage from Calcutta to China, Lieut. and Adjutant James Forsyth, 5th Madras Native Infantry, son of the late David Forsyth, Esq. of St. Petersburg.

At Portarlington, suddenly, Mrs. Harte, wife of Doctor Harte, and daughter of the late Christopher Bagot, Esq. of Nursey, county Kildare.

At Jackson Hall, Coleraine, in her 80th year, Dorothea Waring Maxwell, relict of the late John Waring Maxwell, Esq. of Fungabrogue, county Down.

At Percy-place, Edward, son of Edward Fetherston H. Esq.

At Carrick-on-Suir, aged 72 years, Mr. Geoffrey Morris, sen.

At Castlecock, James Flanagan, Esq.

In Belfast, aged 85 years, Jane, relict of Thomas M'Bride, Esq. of Dublin.

At Helderby, Yorkshire, Mr. R. Clough, 40 years a clerk in the Bank of England.

In Cornwell-terrace, Regent's-park, W. Morris, Esq. merchant, formerly Captain of the Royal Marines.

At Fulham, Jane, wife of B. Aliuchin, Esq.
