DEATHS.

On Monday, at his residence, Currabower, Mallow, George Bolster, Esq. to the deep and lasting regret of his family and numerous friends, to whom he was endeared by his many amiable qualities. During his short sickness, which he bore with Christian fortitude and resignation, he experienced the rich consolation of that religion in which he lived a most exemplary member.
 Depending upon the merits of his Redeemer's blood alone, death to him appeared not as the king of terrors, but as the welcome harbinger of endless peace.
