

mael O'Shaughnessy, P.P., asion, for the first time,
 The room was decorated &c. The speeches were ed their best tunes, and
 g. a pleasanter night was oles of Father Mathew first and "the cup that cheers, nce band has incurred the Rev. Mr. Mathew, for the Castlebar Church, on Sunrvice.

from the parish in which the e situated, an inmate of the arrived at Liverpool from d emigrants, one conveying an 300.

the Repeal Association, has on at Derrynane, this week, s the mission.

lost out of a canoe at Bal-Saturday last; another canoe ven to sea, and has not yet of "singing for the million"

 that subject in Dublin.

tiety is being formed at of Conyngham, President.

per is received, relative to the ent at Kilkee, by delaying the en it should be conveyed by y to the above grievance last

y Godby's attention is respect-quarter, as the Postmasterdy the abuse—but certainly attendance of one or two

Post-office, on the night of der.

at of our subscribers on the non receipt of the Chronicle,

rom this office by post, is now ss of the Waterford and Lime-since Wednesday week last.

in part of our last impression.
 Head Police-office, is a can-of secretary to the Commissioners of Police, vacant by the les.

w, (formerly of the Queen's utant of the Royal West Midutant of the Uxbridge Volun-oisoned himself on Thursday of laudanum, in a feeling of r censure of the War-office, on t.

At Horncastle, the Rev. R. D. B. Rawnsley, Fellow of Magdalen College, Oxon, to Catherine Anne, only daughter of the late Sir Willingham Franklin, one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature, Madras.
 At Wellington, Somersetshire, Edward Wardroper, Esq. Capt.
 Madras Army, to Mary Anne, only daughter of James Marsh, Esq. of Alphington Villa, Exeter.
 Thomas Murray, of Rathfarnham, Esq. to Anne, second daughter of John Fottrell, Rosanna, county Dublin, Esq.
 In St. George's Church, Hanover-square, George D. Coleman, Esq. of the East India Company's Service, at Singapore, to Maria
 Frances, daughter of the late George Vernon, Esq. of Clontarf Castle, near Dublin.
 At St. George's, Hanover-square, D. Scannell, Esq. of Upper Ranelagh-street, Pimlico, Surgeon, to Matilda, daughter of Wm.
 Struthers, Esq. of Parliament-street.
 William Percival, Esq. of Manchester, to Miss Brennan, of George-street, Hanover-square.

DEATHS.

At York-terrace, Cork, suddenly, Susannah, relict of the late Thomas Gregory, Captain in the 18th Royal Irish.
 In Roche's-street, Maryanne, widow of the late Mr. Patrick Sheehy.
 At his father's house, Warren's-place, Cork, John Lindsay, only child of R. T. Fowler, Esq. M.D.
 At Louth-hall, of water on the brain, Algernon Edw. Plunkett, youngest son of the Right Hon. Lord Louth.
 At her mother's residence, Dyke Parade, Cork, Catherine, second daughter of the late George Davies, Esq.
 At Turlough, of dropsy, William H. Woodhouse, Esq. late Lieut. of the 37th party, Revenue Police, and second son of Curran Woodhouse, of Portadown.
 At Ardnaree, Sidney, relict of Thomas Ham, Esq. Civil Engineer.
 In Cook-street, Anne, wife of Mr. Francis Coyne.
 In Derry, Mr. Michael M'Nulty, Officer of Excise.
 At Drumderfit, Scotland, Katherine, relict of Thomas Logan, Esq. aged 92.
 Jane, second daughter of George Rich, Esq. of the Customs.
 The wife of Mr. Henry Watts, of Newmarket-terrace, Hackneyroad, late of Acton-street, Gray's Inn-road.
 Catherine Anne, daughter of the late Lieut. Neil Currie, Knocklarach, Islay.
 At Charlotte Square, Edinburgh, Lieut.-Colonel Lawrence
 Macdowall, of Garthland
 At his residence, Cefn-mine, Robert Thomas Carreg, Esq. of Carreg, an active Magistrate and Deputy-Lieut. for the county of Carnarvonshire for 41 years.
 At Leamington, in his 88th year, Alexander Trotter, Esq. of Dreghorn, county of Mid-Lothian.
 At Biggar Park, George Gillespie, Esq. aged 70.
 Cecilia Rebecca Morson, sister of J. C. Constable, Esq. of Oak House, Battersea.
 At Ormskirk, Miss Mary Kemp, daughter of the late William Kemp, Esq.
 At Fort Beaufort, Cape of Good Hope, Major Edward Molesworth, late of the 20th Light Dragoons
 At Springfield, Clonmel, on Saturday, Edward Labarte, Esq.
 At Templemore, William, eldest son of Joseph Loughnan, Esq.
 of Kilkenny.
 In Clonmel, the widow of the late Thomas Ryan, Esq.
 In Clonmel, Mrs. Abbott.
 At Paris, John Adolphus Boles, Esq. Secretary to the Commissioners of Police, Dublin
 In Great Cumberland-place, Lady Ormsby Rebow, wife of John Gurdon Rebow, Esq. and only child of General Slater Rebow, of Wivanhoe Park, Essex.
 In Connaught-square, Mathew Gosset, Esq. Viscount of Jersey, aged 80 years, and of which he held that office 57.
 At Blackburn, the Rev. Charles James.
 At Halifax, Nova Scotia, the Hon. Hibbert Newton Binney, father of Captain Binney, late 7th Regt. and for many years a member of her Majesty's Council in that province.

William Paxton Jer-Sloane-street.
 Rev. Philip Le Breton,
 William Sargent, Esq.
 hall.
 Frederick Silver, Esq.
 Gate.
 John Stewart, Esq. 22
 John Thoyts, Esq. 8,
 George James Sulliv
 Wilbury Park, Ame
 The advantages offer
 to the usual indulgenc Europe during peace,
 1. A participation se the whole term of life
 2. Premiums calcul offices of the same sta
 annually, half-yearly,
 single payment; in a li payments; or, on a c Insurances may also b paying only half the a number of years, the interest at the conveni
 3. By a regulation claim is opposed unles
 misrepresentation is d
 which the insurance w forms no ground of o
 The usual commissi
 Agents.

AGENTS,

Ralph W

- No.
- JOHN GE
- DUBLIN.... ABEL
- Nota
- HUGH
- A. REA
- BELFAST... WILLI
- Dr. CO
- CORK..... RICH
- JOHN
- ENNISKIL- } EDWA
- LEN..... } BAPT
- SLIGO..... MONT

Persons desirous of pany in any Town wh made. are requested t
 the Secretary, at the tham Place, Blackfr