

arrangement in this peculiar cted without entailing the any dissenting quarter, viz.
 's money, or imposition of a shioners of St. Michael.
 ristians in Limerick but vous anomaly under which ble district labours for want
 The new edifice in Pery against the numerous con-
 and the Wesleyan Chapel,
 used as a temporary Church,
 led by its own flock. ulation of St. Michael's is of the Minister and truslum, for occasional accompends that the venerable ile distant from most of lastly, the Church of St.
 house of worship they in a remote parish, and odate its own congregation!
 cumstances, we respectfully otestants of the large and ael's, if it is not their first duty is glaring reproach, and to children with a Church ct, under the care of their ayer and thanksgiving to the is come which demands an t, and with the Divine bles-
 , if the parishioners bestir

Chairman of the meeting of relative to the murder of Mr.
 e, last Friday. His Lord-ous deed, advised a large f it, and an appeal to Gee of the present Arms Act, y possess themselves easily of
 o. Mr. W. Fennell adverted a the lower classes procure ary barracks, and instanced hich was confirmed by Mr.
 Police. A gentleman here had been made to a licention a convincing fact of the cations:—A farmer told him, winter from the nature of the n some of the papers, actually ve they were martyrs, and ir landlords! The memorial esent, as was also the reward.
 1,000 towards the reward.

Regt. son of the late Rev. M. Cassidy, Rector of Newtownard, county Down, to Jane, eldest daughter of Captain and Paymaster Barlow, of the same Regt.
 In the British Embassy, Paris, Mark Anthony, only son of Mark Anthony Levinge, Esq. of Enniscoffey House, county Westmeath, to Elinora Anne, second daughter of the late William Hodson, Esq. formerly of Middleton.
 Robert Stephens, Esq. of Glasgow, to the daughter of John Walker, Esq.
 At St. Helier's, Jersey, Madelon Elisa, daughter of Lieut.
 Ranwell, R.N. to J. S. Taylor, Esq. her Majesty's ship Racket, son of Major Taylor, R.N.
 At Sydney, George Macleay, Esq. to Barbara St. Clair, third daughter of the late Major Innes, of Thrumster, Caithness.
 At St. John's Cathedral, Edward Brown, Esq. planter, to Caroline, daughter of Joseph Crump, Esq. of Calcutta.
 John O'Keilly, Esq. of Kilmurray, county Meath, to Alicia Margaret, daughter of William Talbot, Esq. of Preston.
 In St. Thomas's Church, H. Tronson, Esq. son of the late Rev.
 Robert Tronson, Rector of Athboy, to Barbara, daughter of the late Valentine Dunne, Esq.

DEATHS.

At Ching Keang, on the 29th July, Christopher Anglim, of the Commissariat department, late of this city, and son of the late James Anglim, of this city, Esq.
 On the 3d inst. Matthew Stritch, Esq. of Eltham-place, Kenington, Surrey, and of Toumullin, county Clare.
 Aged 83. Francis Giles, Esq. of Brackbill, county Kerry.
 James John Hamilton, Esq. of Ballymacoll, county Meath.
 At Rathgar, at his brother's residence, Charles Waldron, Esq.
 Suddenly, at Kingstown, Amelia, youngest daughter of the late Richard Spear, Esq.
 Eliza, wife of Mr. Jervis Pye, Nelson-place, Cork.
 At Ely-place, Emily Christian, youngest daughter of the late Richard Waller, Esq. aged 16 years.
 At Athenry, Mrs. Eleanor Smith, aged 78, relict of the late L.
 Smith, Esq. Caherferisker, county Galway.
 At the Mainguard, Galway, Mr. Peter Burke.
 In Cadogan-place, Jane, daughter of the late Dr. Moore.
 At Milton House, Portsea, in the 91st year of his age, Martin White, Esq. formerly Chamberlain of Portsmouth.
 At Exeter, James Hilton, Esq. of Gascoyne-terrace, Plymouth.
 At Upper Baker-street, New-road, Miss Jane Louisa Marchant.
 At Lanark, Mr. John Forrest, late Surveyor of Taxes, in the 72d year of his age.
 At Saltecats, Mr. William Currie, aged 79.
 At Glasgow, Mrs. Cecilia Cooper, relict of Lieut.-Gen. Shank.
 At St. Leonard's-on-Sea, Mrs. Hopkins, widow of the late Physician to the Duchess of Kent.
 At Bath, Rachel, eldest daughter of the late Rev. James Waller, D.D. late Vicar of Kensington, and Archdeacon of Essex.
 At Scotsraig, Fifeshire, David Dougall, Esq.
 At Edinburgh, William Henderson, Esq. aged 76.
 Benjamin Smith, Esq. late of the Commissariat.
 At Woolwich, of brain fever, J. Balfour, Esq. Royal Artillery.
 At Fort William, Lieut. John William Sykes, 49th N.I.
 Wednesday morning, at his residence on the North Strand, of a lingering illness, borne with great fortitude, John Mahon, Esq.—a good friend, and indulgent landlord.
 On the 5th inst. in the house of her mother, the Dowager
 Countess of Clanricarde, Dominick-street, Dublin, the Right Hon. the Countess of Howth, of measles, which baffled all medical skill. Her Ladyship was in her 38th year, and has left four daughters and one son. She was sister to the Marquess of Clanricarde and Marchioness of Sligo.
 In Maryborough, Mary, relict of the Rev. Stephen Fletcher, aged 83.
 At the house of his brother-in-law, the Rev. W. H. Cooper,
 Mr. Mathew Wilks Brittan.
 In Portland-place, the Right Hon. the Countess of Munster.
 At Torquay, Anne, the wife of Walpole George Esq.

Queen's Duty—the authorized to grant

James Gorman,
 Susanna Godrey,
Plaintiffs.
 Henry Thomas Bay
 and John Brown Defendants.

of Stackpool Court,
 and Lands of Newp Reddanspark, and of Clare, in the ple
 prior to or cotempo 1838, being the date
 to come in before m Quay, Dublin, on c ber inst., and proce
 they will be preclu
 Dated this 3d da

ALFRED WALKER
 Upper Dorset-stree

New Book
 b
 No. 1, DENM
 WILLIAM W
 Dublin, Bo
 to their Excell
 Commander of th
 the Nobility and G
 that he has opened
 No. 1,
 And has now ready
 Gentlemen's Winte
 Boots, and Waterp
 Neatness and Price
 chased heretofore i
 The largest stock
 descriptions, toget
 stock of Children
 than any House in Heads of Famili
 please to try this will be effected by
 No. 1, DENM
 (Next