

I conceive, ample power to the Corporation to the right of toll upon tea, and may not have found a schedule of 1761, it tea thus mentioned—" every chest of the case of Mr. Lyons and the verdict in 1824, you admit that verdict was had by the learned judge, but you ask why did you not argue the Bill of Exceptions? simply this, we got the verdict after a stated two days, the greater part of the been occupied by us while giving our viva ten evidence, and that fully making out the Corporation to their tolls. You allude on taken upon that trial, and to the con of success of Mr. Lyons's counsel, late to be the most eminent of the any dear Sir, with such a statement acts, and the opinions of such eminent mention, how did it happen that after all were taken, and all the expense that and such legal opinions had, you perporation of Limerick, for a period of to remain in receipt of the tolls gene will bear in recollection, that in my forated (which you did not and could not notwithstanding the death of Mr. open to you, and yet you did not take a have your exceptions argued. I find, rence to my papers, that Mr. Lyons did e 6th of November, 1826, more than our verdict, during the greater part of ou did not bring into court the bill of t from time to time, on special applica from the court leave to extend the time d while thus withholding them, I find you term, 1824, obtained a conditional order verdict, and that we having come in gainst that order, the motion was lowing Hilary Term, and having been py counsel on both sides, including Mr. was heard for your client, the plain- rdered the motion to stand for judg- ot give it for two Terms after—namely, e, 1826, when the court pronounced its as pleased to allow the cause shewn th (my clients) against the conditional and refused to set aside the verdict as at Cork, in 1824. n you draw between toll traverse and, no doubt, exceedingly interesting. o say, your inferences with regard to ed on the part of the Corporation are the usual course on the part of the ehend, is to secure his verdict. ck prepared upon all points, but under inent counsel secured the verdict as ; this simplified the question, and regards the Corporation.

the Corporation to various other oll was maintained by the pleadings, essary, have been sustained by usage, om. You have done me the favour acts of Parliament, and to state what the established law of the land s. I have made it a rule through ny clients by my opinions of what e obtain for them the most able e permitting them to involve litigation. I therefore do not o a legal disquisition of what consti- ll, but I think it right to apprise you d over to the present Law Agent of he opinions of many of the ablest everal of them elevated to the Bench ns were had, and I hope that the ions will have the effect of pre- ation which the doubts you have ight of the Corporation to claim toll ally, and also upon goods imported erick, are calculated to create.

At St. Paul's Chapel, Edinburgh, the Rev. John Burnett Pratt, M.A. of St. James's, Cruden, Aberdeenshire, and Chaplain to the Earl of Erroll, to Anna, daughter of the late James Radcliffe, Esq. of Shaw-hall, Lancashire.
At Chatham, Lieut. George Hollinworth, R.M. to Eliza, daughter of John Moore, Esq. of the Dockyard.
At Carnarvon, John Barry, of Clogheen, county Tipperary, Esq. Solicitor, to Augusta, second daughter of the late Sir E. F. Rodney, K.G.

DEATHS.

On Sunday last, at Mount Coote, in this county, the beloved wife of Chidley P. Coote, Esq.—a lady most deservedly respected for all the moral and social virtues.
In London, the Rev. Sir John Read, of Moynoe House, county Clare.
On Monday, at his house in Catherine-street, James Casey, Esq. late of Askeaton.
On the 3d inst. at the Tarbert Hotel, in the 30th year of her age, after a tedious and painful illness, which she bore with Christian patience and resignation, Alicia, the beloved wife of Mr. Maurice D. Harnett, deeply and deservedly regretted by a numerous circle of friends and acquaintances. She has left a widowed mother, a young and disconsolate husband, to deplore her.
At Blarney, on the 1st inst. Anna Maria, wife of John D. Harnett, Esq. and eldest daughter of the late A. O'Conner, Esq. of Mallow.
At Graceville, near Dublin, aged 81, Hester Henrietta, relict of Alexander Macmanus, of Mount Davis, Esq. late Lieut.-Colonel of the Antrim Militia, and daughter of Mark Ker O'Neill, late of Flowerfield, county Londonderry, Esq.
Rev. C. Gilchreest, P.P. of Clonbrony, Ardagh.
At Boyle Barracks, on the 4th inst. in her 30th year, Emily Catherine, the beloved wife of Captain Maydwell, of the 82d Regt. and youngest daughter of Samuel H. Dickerson, Esq. of Chatham. The remains of Mrs. Captain Maydwell have lain in the barracks of Boyle for the last seven days, and during that period there was not heard the sound of a bugle nor the beat of a drum in any instance where it could be avoided. The wishes of the Commanding officer, to pay every respect to departed worth, have been fully borne out by the members of the Depot.
On the 10th inst. Martha, wife of Carden Terry, Esq. of Cork.
At Four-mile-water Court, Mrs. Martha Dibbs, aged 86.
At his seat, Golden Grove, William Paisley Vaughan, Esq. Deputy-Lieutenant for the King's County.
At his seat, Ballymacoll, county Meath, Jas. J. Hamilton, Esq.
At Calcutta, George, son of Lieut.-Colonel Eyre Smith, late 62d Regt.
Mary, wife of Lieut. P. e. of the Drumshanbo Revenue Police, and daughter of the late Lieut. Bourke, of the Revenue Police, Boyle.
At Kiltbeggan, Lucy Amelia, daughter of Peyton Sheals, Esq. Sub-Inspector of Constabulary.
At York, of gout in the stomach, in his 70th year, the Hon. Henry Butler, next brother and heir presumptive of the Earl of Kilkenny.
Of apoplexy, Rev. Bryan M'Manus, P.P. of Kilmactrany.
At his house in Summer-street, South, John Caffrey, Esq. in his 73d year.
At Coolany, Catherine, wife of the Rev. Charles Sharman, Baptist Minister.
The Rev. Dr. Lockhart, Glasgow, at an advanced age.
At Newport, Isle of Wight, deeply regretted, Susan, eldest sister of Captain George Augustus Bygrave, for whose fate great apprehensions were entertained, until the last overland despatches announced his safety with the rest of the prisoners at Cabul.
At his residence in Hyde Park-gardens, of apoplexy, Francis A. Morris, Esq. son of Charles Morris, Esq. of Portman-square.
At Bury St. Edmund's, in the 72d year of her age, Mary, relict of the late William Green, Esq. of Bryanston-square, London.
In Hampshire, Lady Baynes, relict of the late Sir Christopher Baynes, Bart. of Harefield-place, Middlesex.
At Richmond, Surrey, Mrs. Mary James, aged 84.
Suddenly, Philip Houghton, Esq. of Manchester, the great patron of coursing dogs.
At Union-street, Stonehouse, Lieut. John Fleming, aged 77, late of the 96th Foot.
A. Frazer, Esq. late Captain of the 90th Regt. aged 77.
At Oak House, Battersea, George, son of John Charles Constable, Esq. late a Lieut. in the 13th East India Regt. at Bombay.
At Woburn-place, Russell-square, Catherine, relict of the late T. G. M'Intyre, Lieut. and Adjutant of 91st Regt.
In Bedford-square, Peregrine Dealtry, Esq. Master of the Crown-office.
At Ware Cliff, Lyme Regis, Letitia Mary, wife of Thomas Lisle Follett, Esq.
At Union-place, New-road, St. Marylebone, Captain David Sutton, of the East India Company's maritime service.
In the Middle Temple, John Meek, Esq. of Basinghall-street.
At his residence, Abbey Lodge, Regent's-park, Charles Norris, Esq. late of the East India Company's Civil Service, and Chief Secretary to Government at Bombay.
At Cawnpore, William Richard Kennaway, Esq. Judge of the Civil Court of Futtypore, son of the late Sir John Kennaway, Bt.
At Spanish Town, Jamaica, Arthur Fitzjohn Foster, Esq.
At Bombay, Captain R. D. Stuart, of the 14th Bombay Native Infantry.
On passage from Bombay, Lieut. Kippin, 2d, or Queen's.
At Loodianah, East Indies, Major Charles Andrews, commanding 2d Light Infantry battalion.
At Thorpe Malsor, Barbara Ann, youngest daughter of Thomas P. Maunsell, Esq. M.P. Northamptonshire.
In Mountjoy-square, Dublin, Francis Mills, Esq.
At Bandoren Lodge, suddenly, Lieut.-Colonel Johnston, late of the 8th Dragoons.
At his house, Elstree, Herts, Richard Kirwan Hill, Esq. Captain half-pay of her Majesty's 52d Regt.

the last that can be given in this City. December 14.

Limerick LACE WAREHOUSE, 27, PATRICK-STREET. Robert M'Clure

BEGBS to announce the arrival of a select assortment of Valenciennes, French and British Blond Edgings, Real Thread, Lisle and Nottingham Laces, Fancy Gets, &c. &c., with a variety of Scotch and Irish sewed Muslins in Capes, Collars, Cuffs, Habit Shirts, Chemizets, Frocks, &c. &c., which will be Sold at the very lowest price for Cash.
The remaining part of the old stock having been still further reduced, will be disposed of as quick as possible.
Every article in Limerick Lace can be had, as usual, until the House is disposed of.
All Outstanding Debts are requested to be paid in as soon as possible.
Dec. 10.

FARM TO LET.

AFARM containing 22 Acres, being part of the Lands of BUNLICKY, Parish of Mungret, and County of Limerick, within Three miles of the City, having a good Farm House, and Offices thereon, the ground is in prime order, and consists of 15 Acres of Meadowing.
3 Acres of Clover.
3 Acres of Wheat.
1 Acre of Potatoe Ground.
Not a Rod of waste. Immediate Possession,
Proposals to be sent to Captain COMPTON, R. N., Southville; or to ROBERT HUNT, Cecil-street, Limerick.
December 10!

Equity Exchequer.

John Vincent, Esq. } Executor of Westby Per- } val, deceased. }
Plaintiff. }
Augustine Thwaites, Esq. }
Executor of Thos. Bour- } chier, deceased, and seve- } ral others, }
Defendants. }

PURSUANT to the Decree of her Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland, made in this Cause, bearing date the 26th day of JANUARY, 1839, I will, on SATURDAY, the 14th day of JANUARY next, at the Hour of One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at my Chambers, on the Inn's Quay, Dublin, set up and sell to the highest and fairest Bidder, all that and those 4-5th undivided parts, shares, or proportions of, and in the Towns and Lands of KILCLOGHER and CLOHANELEG, MOVEENS KILCASHEEN, and of the Fee Farm Rent issuing out of the Lands of TULLA and KILLINEY, situate in the Barony of Moyarta, and County of Clare; and also 4-5th undivided parts, shares, or proportions of, and in the Lands of KILTUMPER, and the Fee Farm Rent issuing out of the Lands of LEITRIM, and 1-6th of the Lands of DRUMELIHY, situate in the Barony of Clonderalaw, and said County of Clare; also the Towns and Lands of KILLURANEMORE and KILLURANELEG, situate in the Barony of Tulla, and County of Clare; also a Policy of Assurance for the sum of £1000, bearing date 19th JANUARY, 1826, effected in the London Union Assurance Company, on the Life of the Reverend JOHN R. HODSON, now aged about 55 years, all in the pleadings mentioned, or a competent part thereof, for the purposes in said Decree mentioned.
Dated this 3rd day of December, 1842.
ACHESON LYLE, S.R.
For rentals and particulars apply to JOHN VINCENT, Plaintiff's Attorney, &c. 134, Leeson-street; CHARLES C. KING, Attorney for Defendant THWAITES, No. 12, Gardiner's-place; Messrs. WOLFE & Co. Attornies for Defendant, THOS. BOURCHIER, No. 81, Lower Gardner-street, Dublin.
December 10.