DEATHS.

At Tralee, in the 74th year of her age, Agnes, relict of the late Richard Blennerhassett, Esq. and eldest daughter of Sir Barry Denny, Bart.
 On the 13th inst. in Portarlinton, of premature confinement, in the prime of life, Mary Anne, the beloved wife of Samuel A.
 Poole, Esq. of Cushinny Cottage, and daughter of Christopher Adamson, of Ballinalack, Esq. county Westmeath.
 On Monday last, in the 87th year of her age, Mrs. Anne Mul-ville, relict of the late Daniel Mulville, of Knockanira, county Clare, Esq. In this venerable lady was combined a rare assemblage of those qualities of head and heart which exalt the human character, united to a highly cultivated mind, polished manners, marked by the aristocratic stateliness of the old school, that delighted all who had the happiness of enjoying her society. She possessed her mental faculties, unimpaired, to the last, and the fullest reliance on the mercy of God, through her adored Redeemer. She resigned her willing spirit into the hands of her Creator in the midst of her sorrowing children, and was followed to the grave by the lamentations of many whom her unostentatious bounty had relieved.
 At Mitcheastown, in her 16th year, Martha Catherine, eldest daughter of Richard Hanan, Esq.
 At Warren's-place, Cork, Mr. James Desmond, corn-factor.
