

ly my reasons, as well declined (when applied received two successive R. M. (then at Burris- will be pleased to allow ewed for an additional May, 1842, that already nd the case not having ese applications I an- to renew my subscrip- ng was, that since the , I had decided objec- tion coming from Mr. Duff's application to me of the existence of any and I believe that other e impression) and upon l ignorant of the names nittee; therefore, consi- the chief controul and und, I was averse from ation. nes upon the committee e, it was intimated to ed or ready to renew and personal application to her member of the com- o such application was ing to Dublin) I placed in the hands of a third ertain conditions, to pay roper, to any one of the No application however ough, I believe, some of aware that he was autho- pay the money over. the committee were not names as defaulters. In that the money has been I intend to retain it) to ban Society, £10. and to £5. servant.

MAS G. PRENDERGAST.

rt of our last impression: provision for the Princess er intended marriage, will ters. year occurs on Sunday, years—namely, not until ch such an event would eing leap year. nhope, alias Winkwork, gold watches, the pro- eller in Clerkenwell, was nsported on for life. at Yor street, Glasgow, arrels of corn, upon four hursda, and the loss to

Esq. late Captain 17th Lancers, to Lydia daughter of Major-General Charles Turner.

DEATHS.

On Monday night, at his house in George's-street, very much regretted by his family and neighbours, Henry O'Sullivan, Esq. for many years an extensive tobacco-manufacturer.

On Yesterday, at his house, Henry-street, in the meridian of life, to the deep regret of his sorrowing family and numerous friends, Mr. James Jackson, for many years one of the most eminent Victuallers and cattle dealers in the south of Ireland. He bore a tedious illness with true Christian patience, and, when the sleep of death was near, his latter moments were marked with that grace which the world cannot give, and he sunk to rest, to wake to life eternal.

At Mitchelstown, Caroline, youngest daughter of the Rev. Thomas Forrest.

At her father's residence, aged 16 years, Maria, daughter of Mr. Neptune B. Conway, of Thomondgate.

On the 6th inst. Edward Henry, third son of Edward Wixon, Esq. of Bandon. His parents indulged his early desires for this profession, and though one which often, shakes the nerves of youths, he boldly persevered, and died in his 17th year, from a fall received when engaged in an act of much boldness, for which he was proverbial. His few lingering days left sufficient evidence (soothing intelligence) that he knew the Lord, of whom he had been taught, in earlier days.

At Rosshill, county Galway, Patrick Commins, Esq.

At Tullamore, the Rev. John Hadden, Wesleyan Minister, Chairman of the Tullamore district, in the 40th year of his Ministry.

At Blackrock, aged 83, Barbara, daughter of the Rev. H. Corlett, Rector of Peeltown, Isle of Man.

In Waterford, Mr. John Hearn, and Mrs. Welley.

At Cookstown, of malignant fever, R. Murdock, Esq. Surgeon.

At Armagh, Lieut. Flack, 58th Regt.

Captain John Hanlon, of Belfast.

Mrs. Thompson, an old and respectable inhabitant of Belfast, aged 78 years.

At Donaghmore, near Dungannon, Joseph Monro, eldest son of the Rev. James Hanson, in the 19th year of his age.

In St. George's-place, Mr. Robert M'Farlane, of Edinburgh.

At Wootton Bassett, Wilts, W. Cripps, Esq. Mayor.

Mrs. Harris, wife of the Rev. Dr. Harris, President of Cheshunt College, and author of the prize essay on "Mammon."

At Edinburgh, Robert Haldane, Esq. of Auchingray, Lanark.

At Leamington, Robert Long, Esq. of the Manor House, Devon.

Mr. Joseph Lee, late of Trinity-terrace, Southwark, aged 74.

In Newgate-street, Joseph Daw, Esq. for many years a member of the Corporation of London.

Richard Barry Slater, Esq. M.D. of High Wycombe, Bucks.

At Glasgow, Andrew Macintosh, Esq. aged 77.

Alexis Snodgrass, only daughter of the late Charles Henry Papillon, Esq. merchant, Glasgow.

At Ayr, Philip Whiteside, M.D. in his 84th year.

At Middleton Tyas, near Richmond, Yorkshire, George Milnes, son of G. Healey, Esq.

At Bombay, Mary, wife of Captain Hume Hart.

At Montreal, Thomas Bulkeley, Esq. M.D. and Surgeon of the 71st Light Infantry.

At Halifax, Nova Scotia, Colour-Serjeant John Reilly, 64th Regt. in the 27th year of his age.

On Tuesday, at Old Town, Vice-Admiral Evans.

The Rev. John Kennedy, P.P. of Killein, county Tipperary.

At Dundalk, Eliza, wife of James Arthur, Esq.

At St. Asaph, Robert H. Peel, Esq. cousin of Sir Robert Peel. He served in this garrison as Lieut. in the 3d Dragoon Guards.

At Stirling Castle, Quartermaster Serjeant Joseph Gleeson, 84th Foot, a native of Nenagh.

At Douglas Farm, Cork, James William, only son of Dr. Cahill.

At Edinburgh, Lieut.-Col. Thomas Bates, 21st Light Dragoons.

At Clapham-common, Bartholomew Jeffery, Esq.

William Frederick Hill Rooke, son of Major-General Sir H. Willoughby Rooke.

At Peckham, Mrs. Robins, widow of the late M. Robins, Esq.

On the 17th November, at the residence of his daughter, Montreal, Major Jackson Wray, formerly of Wraymount, King's County, aged 76, and Major in the King's County Militia.

At Calcutta, Emily Georgina, wife of Captain W. M. Wetenhall, 10th Regt.

At Brighton, Margaret, widow of Alexander Macleod, of Viewfield, and formerly of the Rev. Alexander Campbell, leaving two daughters, Isabella, wife of the Hon. H. B. Dalzell, and Banatyne, wife of Captain Horsford, both of the Bengal Artillery.

resolution, we feel it to be public testimonial the high that admirable citizen, prof judge.

Proposed by John O'Brien, James B. Butl

Resolved—That as he wa of the community, the sub purpose should not be con dent in this County, but o perty therein, or connected sious to mark their respect of his nativity.

Proposed by William Butle the Rev. Mr. Shee

Resolved—That a Subsc opened for signatures, and pointed to solicit subscript not be in attendance, and and site of the testimonial. Proposed by Pierse Carric W. A. Brew

Resolved—That the fol pointed a Committee for power to add to their num The Chairman, Rt. Rev. Dr. Kennedy, Major Macnamara, M.P. Cornelius O'Brien, M.P. John O'Brien, M.P. Pierse Carrick, J. B. Butler, Rev. Mr. Kenny, Kilrush, Rev. Dean O'Shaughnessy Rev. Chas. Fitzgerald, George O'Callaghan, John Singleton,

Proposed by William Mr. Thom

Resolved—That Subsc at the Offices of the Clare cial and National Bank, a J. B. Knox. Esq. be reque Treasurers.

Proposed by John Ma Rev. P.

Resolved—That the Re Clare Journal, Dublin E Mail, Dublin Evening Re NICLE.

LUCI JOHN Sir Lucius O'Brien hav liam N. Macnamara, Esq to, it was moved by the seconded by William B that the marked thanks o Lucius O'Brien, Bart. therein, which was respo W. N. M JOHN B