

at parties feeling themselves to the Lord Lieutenant and the Commissioners felt satisfied to go before the Lord Lieutenant to fight the battle at a hearing. (Hear.) But by this of the Bill was introduced, July, it ran through all its immediately after passed the being at a close, received the thereby becoming the law could be examined or opposed. The understanding was made to the police for the parish—with reason that it was not the volun- tioners, but at the special ers, who complained much of vance for want of such a force. unnecessary, or incompetent to ey were appointed, the Com- urse dispense with them, as anxiety to retain them, being their maintenance as any rate. It was also asserted that e Secretary, had no right ry to the Board, but on look- ctionary, he found that the cretary was, a person employed business, and he, therefore, ference whatever, whether he secretary; indeed, it should gentleman always discharged l energetically (hear.) Some he purchase of a fire engine e of the parish. It was got hat the day police were ap- ne benefit of the rate-payers, ir property. It had, on seve- acquisition and advantage to e considered an indispensable of fire, its want would be rish (hear.) The chairman Mr. John O'Brien, M. P. ex- ot being able to attend the to attend to any communica- ate therefrom. Mr. Roche unjust attempt having been n the parishioners not only nagement of their own affairs, by excessive taxation, if they ves by legal opposition. the application to government to he levy now sought more it to be taken in instalments. of redress left open, and he rnement wished to shew the epeal of the Union was not ot justice ought to be done justice was inflicted. (Hear.) if ever there was an

At Lachine Grove, Canada, the Rev. Henry Esson, Minister of St. Gabriel's Church, Montreal, to Elizabeth, daughter of John Campbell, Esq. W. S. of Carbrook, Stirlingshire.

DEATHS.

On Thursday morning last, at the Glebe, Newmarket-on-Fergus, the Rev. Thomas M'ulloch, aged 70 years, for 20 years the respected Vicar of Killnasoolagh, who departed this life after much suffering from a lingering and painful disease, which he bore with true philosophy, and Christian piety and faithfulness, resigning, without regret, his immortal spirit into the hands of HIM who gave it, with a lively faith and steadfast hope, trusting alone to the merits and blood of his Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ; feeling firmly persuaded that He would mark out all his sins, and believing that, according to His great mercies, He will raise him up again, at the last day, to the enjoyment of an eternal rest in a brighter, a happier, and a better world.

At Hastings, on the 1st inst. aged 44, Maryanne Lydia, the lamented wife of Donough O'Brien, Esq.

On Thursday, the 5th inst. at 72, George-street, Gerald, son of John Griffin, Esq. aged two years.

In Mary-street, of consumption, much regretted, James, son of the late Mr. Thomas Ryan, of this city, master-cooper. The deceased was for some time Secretary to the Temperance Society of St. Mary's parish.

Catherine, wife of Mr. Patrick Martin, of Tipperary.

In High-street, Galway, at the advanced age of 98, Mrs. O'Shaughnessy, relict of the late Dominick O'Shaughnessy, Esq.

Rebecca, wife of the Rev. Joseph Jameson, Rector of Carlow.

At his residence in Market-street, Cork, Mr. James Kelly.

At Tourville, Rathmines, Mary Louisa, daughter of the late Thomas Wallace, of Galway, Esq.

At his residence, Frankfort Cottage, Dundrum, T. Rawson, Esq.

Letitia, third daughter of the late Miles Atkinson, Esq.

At the residence of Mrs. James Pratt, Farm-hill, Roebuck, Mrs. Frances Southwell Bowen, aged 95 years.

At Loughrea, Mr. Michael Pelly.

At Carga, Downpatrick, Ellen, relict of John Bell, Esq.

Mr. Laurence Kelly, of Harry-street.

Mr. Richard Murrow.

At Crohan House, Fanet, county Donegal, Margaret, relict of the late William Patten, Esq. aged 86 years.

In Belfast, Mr. James Halliday.

At Milan, of fever, John James Quin, Esq. son of the late Rev. Thomas Quin, of Wingfield, county Wicklow.

At Seven Churches' House, King's County, Henry M. Johnston, son of William Johnston, Esq. of Peel Terrace, Isle of Man.

At Daddington Castle, Yorkshire, suddenly, the Hon. Lady Codrington, wife of Sir C. Bethel Codrington, Bart. and mother of Mr. C. W. Codrington, M. P.

At Liverpool, James Hall, Esq.

At Brighton, Neil, the eldest son of Dr. James Arnott.

At St. Paul's School, Henry, son of the Rev. James Cooper.

At Kingston, Catherine, wife of Mr. T. Brewster.

At Bellevue House, Cheltenham, James Nayler, Esq. aged 73.

John Milward, Esq. of Loxley House, near Stratford-on-Avon.

Ann Williams, daughter of the late J. Tucker, Esq. of John-street, Bedford-row.

At Tunbridge Wells, Thomas Beeching, Esq. Banker aged 76.

At Woodside, Old Windsor, Anne Harriett, relict of the late Lieut.-Colonel Allen, of Inchmartine, Perthshire.

At Ramsgate, J. Hay, Esq. late of the Madras Medical Board.

At Quebec, Mr. Patrick Commerford, tavernkeeper.

At Bombay, Marianne, wife of J. Larkins, Esq. and the daughter of Major-Gen. Valiant, after giving birth to a daughter.

On the 31st ult. at Whitehall, county Westmeath, of fever, the Rev. Thomas Walsh, A.M. and Ex-Scholar Trinity College, Dublin, Curate of Mount Temple for 26 years, which long period he devoted to a faithful, constant, and zealous discharge of his ministerial duties.

In Portumna, where she had been for the benefit of her health, Bridget, wife of Mr. Patrick Coleman, clothes-broker, of Mary-street, sincerely regretted.

At Enniskillen, Lucretia, daughter of Mr. Giddings, formerly Ordnance Storekeeper in Guernsey.

Major-General Sir Charles Deacon, K.C.B. of Great Berkhamstead, Hertfordshire.

At Antigua, Oswald Wood, Esq. M.D. Provost Marshal General of that Island.

WES

INSURANCE

21

RECEIPT Insurance
very at this O
before the 9th
Fire Insura Offices, with moment the
The Compa
thorough rep
Public, at the Life Insur
and every inf
Dav
109, G

EN
BY 22
TERMS, wi

THE fact th
on Scienc
lian and Frenc
every pupil in t
Classical Educ
in the Univers
tions and anxio
ment, health, a
for seven years
fied Assistants
with the reason
which the End
rant the asserti
sured.
Fewer pupils
other school average not be Chancellor's Pr Premiums, an FIFTH SIZARSH
THE HEBREW
the last; THIR
preceding year School. Two premiums, with have invariably
Coaches from D
Cork in eleven,